GAVE INTERESTING ADDRESS ON ISLE OF SKYE AND PEOPLE

The large auditorium of the Germain street Baptist church was well filled last evening, the occasion being an address by Hope A. Thompson on "Land of Heather and of Mist." This was followed by a piano solo by Miss Minnie Poole and a vocal solo by David Allen. Mr. Thompson then took the floor and delivered a very interesting and instructive address dealing with the picturesque scenery and mountains of the Isle of Skye. He touched on the weather conditions, habits of the people and recited some of the folk songs. The speaker gave several illustrations of the native dialect. One of the features of the address was the reading of numerous selections of poetry, written by Mr. Thompson, dealing with the life of Skye and its inhabitants. At the conclusion of the address a hearty vote of thanks was moved by W. C. Cross and seconded by Donaldson Hunt. Further musical selections followed, those taking part being Paul Cross, David Allen and Dr. Percy L. Bonnell.

APPEAL FOR IDLE WAR VETERANS

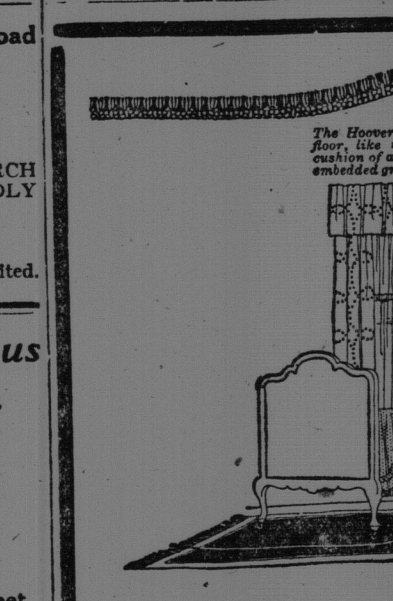

(Canadian Press Despatch)
Ottawa, Dec. 3.—Representing all unemployed among veterans all over Canada was extremely serious and requesting that the government take action to relieve the hardship caused by the lack of work. J. Fred Marsh, organizing secretary of the Grand Army of United Veterans and Herbert Capewell, member of the advisory board of the same organization, interviewed the prime minister and members of the cabinet, this evening.
The delegates were received by Prime Minister Meighen, Hon. Hugh Guthrie, minister of militia, Hon. J. A. Calder and Hon. J. D. Reid.
Seen after the interview, Mr. Marsh stated that the prime minister had promised the fullest consideration of their representations. Public works would be gone on with as speedily as possible in order to employ veterans who were at present unemployed, and the government would consider other means for meeting the situation.
Premier Meighen also stated after the conference that the government was giving the gravest consideration to the representations.

PLAN CHILDREN'S FESTIVAL ON AN ELABORATE SCALE

The St. John Branch and City Union of the King's Daughters, at its regular meeting yesterday afternoon in the Guild, planned for a grand festival for the children to be held in the Imperial theatre shortly after Christmas. The performers are to be children, and every school and every organization of children will be represented among them. The King's Daughters have considered holding such an entertainment for some time and, when finally arranging for its presentation, all members showed much interest and enthusiasm in undertaking the task allotted to them. Much other business was transacted at the meeting, over which Mrs. C. A. Clark presided. Very satisfactory reports were submitted.
Mrs. G. A. Henderson gave the report of the spiritual committee and the Opportunity circle was appointed to take charge under this committee in December.

Let Your Christmas Gift to Her be a Hoover

When you give her a HOOVER VACUUM CLEANER you not only give a great labor saving device; you also give her many leisure hours that would otherwise be impossible.
Beating—to dislodge the embedded grit, the destructive edges of which, under shoe pressure, actually cut loose the soft nap and wear a carpet threadbare.
Sweeping—of lightning rapidity, to detach instantly the annoying, clinging litter, threads and lint which adheres like burrs.
Suction—to remove dustlessly from the carpet surface this beaten-out, swept-loose dirt; also the surface dirt and scraps.
Only The HOOVER combines these three essentials.
It beats—as it sweeps—as it cleans.
Call at our Carpet Department, or phone, and we will be glad to demonstrate either at the store or privately in your own home.

A Spring Day-- A Pretty Face-- A Missing Man--

They were the three things that made Tom Reynolds in a spirit of adventure start on a wild goose chase which took him to the Canadian Northwest and the Alaskan Gold Fields.

Tom Reynolds is the hero of

H. A. Cody's New Book Glen of the High North a thrilling tale of daring, love and danger.

Mr. Cody, author of "The touch of Abner" and other books, writes clean, wholesome novels, unique in plot and full of adventure and romance, that grip and hold your interest to the last word. For six years he was missionary and rector in the Yukon district. When he writes of the Yukon, he speaks of things he knows. At present, he is rector of St. James' church in St. John, New Brunswick.

If you have not yet read "Glen of the High North" there is a treat in store for you.

SWIMMING MEET TO BE HELD SOON

The East End Improvement League will endeavor to develop the swimmers of the city this winter and the first swimming meet under the auspices of this organization will be next Friday night, December 10 in the Y. M. C. I. Pool, Cliff street.

Entries for the following events will be received by Gordon Carr, 34 Gilbert's Lane. It is hoped that all of the city swimmers will enter the various events.

The open events are 25 yards and 100 yards free style, 220 yards free style, 60 yards breast style and diving.

Boys seventeen and under; 25 yards free style, 25 yards back style and diving.

Boys thirteen and under; 25 yards free style, 25 yards back style and diving.

Excellent prizes will be offered in each of the events and a night of keen sport is expected in the first indoor meet held in St. John since the New Brunswick championships last April. The 220 yards race will give an opportunity for those who are not strong on the 25 to 100 yards' events. The boys' events should be exciting. The thirteen-year-old boys and those under that age will have the opportunity of competing in that class and not being forced to give away several years to older boys by being compelled to enter the seventeen-year-old boys' events.
