News Notes About Prominent Baptists

(Maritime Baptist)

Rev. S. Roy, Acadia '11, is the wide-awake pastor of the Lincoln Park Baptist church, of West Newton.

Rev. C. P. Christopher has taken up pastoral work with the Second Baptist church of Newport, Rhode Island, thus closing a long and successful pastorate at Middleboro, Mass. Mr. Christopher is a native of Albert County, N. B., and studied for a time at Acadia.

Rev. Clyde W. Robbins, who recently closed his pastorate at Digby, has assumed the pastorate of the First Baptist church of Dorchester, Mass. He will also pursue studies at the Newton Theological Institute.

Rev. Frank S. Hartley of Rochester, N. H., is one who doesn't forget the home land and the interests of the Lord's work here. He is a brother of F. Clarke Hartley, of Truro.

Lie. E. A. Robertson, who spent the summer in the west for health reasons and who returned east a few months ago, is now back again at Acadia pursuing his studies. He expects to take up pastoral work when the college closes about the first of June.

The church at Preepoot has extended a hearty call to Rev. J. Whitfield Brooker, now pastor of the field at Surrey, N. B.

Rev. C. R. Freeman, pastor of the Charlottetown church, has been engaged in special meetings.

Rev. F. T. McWilliam has been called to the pastorate of the Lower Aylesford field and will take up work there at once. The Amherst News has some appreciative words of Rev. J. A. Sweetnam, pastor of the Springfield church, who on March 2 filled the vacant pulpit in the absence of Pastor Rose.

Rev. R. Osgood Moore, having accepted an invitation to the pastorate of the churches at Grand Harbor and Seal Harbor, Grand Manan, N. B., will close his services at Clark's Harbor, N. S., at the close of March, and begin services in his new pastorate immediately.

Lie. G. R. T. Ayling, has accepted a call extended to him by the Rawdon church, and will begin his work there near the last of May.

Rev. W. C. Machum, of Port Maitland, N. S., the new field secretary for religious education, spent Sunday and Monday in St. John. The judgment of the board in appointing him to the responsible position of field secretary is heartily approved by those who heard him on Sunday.

Carmanis Leaves Halifax.

Halifax, N. S., March 25.—The Cunard liner Carmanis sailed yesterday for Liverpool with 600 passengers and 6,000 tons of cargo.

For Spring

SUITS that suggest the fresh breezes of Spring.

Our display strikes a newer note in clothes that reflect the jaunty buoyancy of youth and mirror the dignity and conservatism of the older man.

Men wearing such clothes can throw out their chests, take a deep breath and feel they are attired as well as the next man.

Models in such a variety that most every man can be suited.

Prices $20 to $50—ready to be finished at short notice.

Sir Boyle Roche's wild confusions of metaphor which so convulsed the Irish Parliament have not lost their flavor. "Mr. Speaker," said Sir Boyle, on one occasion, "I smell a rat! I see him floating in the air before me, but, mark me, I shall nip him in the bud!"

It was he who said that "single misfortunes never come alone, and that the greatest of all possible misfortunes is generally followed by a greater."

When the shoemaker brought home the boots made for Sir Boyle's gony feet, he was told, "you have bungled these boots. I told you to make one larger than the other, and instead of that you have made one smaller than the other—the very opposite."

New Spring SHOE DISPLAY

Representative of The Season's Decrees in Spring Footwear

With the passing of Winter the first call of Spring is for Clothing, and foremost in this direction is Footwear.

Seldom, if ever, has this store been in a more favored position in interpreting the season's demands and requirements in Spring Footwear.

Seems as though the designers directed their efforts with an eye to the thought and with a full appreciation of the auspicious period which the Spring of 1919 represents.

Here will be found for man or woman, boy or girl, miss or youth the most gladsome style in Footwear.

Impossible to do complete justice here to the line—suffice it to say that the colors showing are grey kid, dull kid, rich brown, mahogany and combination leathers. Also the patents are holding their place. The showing is in Boots, Oxfords and Pumps.
