PRINCE ARTHUR NAMED

Duke of Kent Though Perhaps Not Until the King's Birthday—Recognition for Mrs. Humphrey Ward and Forbes Robertson is Expected

(Canadian Press)

London, Dec. 27.—The honors to be conferred by King George on New Year's Day have given rise to some interesting rumors. The vacancy of the Order of Merit naturally creates the greatest speculation. The name of Mr. Humphrey Ward, which has been mentioned in this connection, but it is likely that she will receive some other recognition, and this greater honor will go to some member of the British Academy. Many people would like to see Sir Aston Webb, architect, become the successor to the late Sir Lawrence Alma-Tadema as a member of this order.

Johnston Forbes-Robertson, actor, it is said, will, on this occasion, be made a knight.

Prince Arthur of Connaught, son of the Duke of Connaught, governor general of Canada, is due to receive a dukedom, probably that of Kent, but this may be postponed until the king's birthday.
