REV. MR. LAWSON TO BE HOME THIS WEEK. Moncton Pastor Has Been Attending Sons of Temperance National Division in England

Moncton, N. B., June 17.—(Special)—Rev. G. A. Lawson, pastor of the First Baptist church, who has been attending the annual conference of the National Division of the Sons of Temperance in Sunderland, England, is expected home the latter part of this week. He sailed from England on Tuesday on the S.S. Laconia, and will disembark at Boston.

Rev. Mr. Lawson, who is most worthy patriarch of the Sons of Temperance in America, was one of the prominent overseas visitors at the big gathering in Sunderland. He delivered an address on the work of the order on this continent. He said that if they were to have success in their great work they must first of all have a vision. They should try to get a vision of the world's need and, having seen what the world was wanting, they could come down to their spheres of labor and apply the lessons of their vision. In the second place there must be a vigorous prosecution of the work which had been committed to them. He felt that the Sons of Temperance in the old country had had a vision, and were vigorously prosecuting their work. He had been impressed with the value of their scheme of benefits in the mother land, and felt that the time had arrived in Canada for them to take some steps to protect their members and preserve the strength and solidarity of their order.

He felt that, in order to do this in the North American division, they must adopt some scheme of benefits. Mr. Lawson commended the cadet movement in Great Britain. In this the order in Great Britain was far ahead.

His place here will be taken by a player named Dutton, who comes highly recommended, not only as a first sacker, but also as a batter. Winkler, the Greek's new star pitcher, will also report for duty within the next few days. Chic Fraser, who played second base last season, will also probably be along in an early date.

MISS JULIA TILLEY DEAD

Daughter of Sir Leonard Passes Away in Toronto

MANY YEARS IN GOOD WORK

Was Deaconess in Church of England and Was Connected With Rev. G. A. Kuhning's Church When Latter Was in Toronto

A despatch to the Times from Toronto says:—"Miss Julia Tilley, who held a foremost position in the work of the church in Toronto, died on Sunday in St. John's Hospital, where she was taken only on Friday last, after a long illness. She was the daughter of the late Sir Leonard Tilley of St. John N. B. "She was one of the first to take up the life of a deaconess for the Church of England, and afterwards became a noted advocate in presenting the needs of the Church of England Deaconess and Missionary Training Home.

"For a long time, she was identified with the Church of the Ascension, and labored in the lowest town district. She was leader of the women's Bible class, and also of the branch of the women's auxiliary. Residence was taken to Rev. G. A. Kuhning, then rector and now of St. John. B.

"Her executive ability was later recognized by the diocesan women's auxiliary when she was made president upon the death of Mrs. Williamson, a sister of Sir Edmund Osler.

"Interment will take place in London, Ont., on Wednesday. Miss Tilley, small in stature, and wearing the deaconess uniform, presiding over hundreds of prominent members of the church, made an outstanding figure.

The late Miss Tilley had many friends in St. John, who will learn of her death with sincere regret. She left St. John some years ago to keep house for her brother, Arthur Tilley, of Toronto, and became so bound up in the work which she found for herself there that she would never give up her home in Toronto. For many years she had spent the summers with Lady Tilley in St. Andrews, and in this way kept in touch with many of her friends in this province.

During her younger years Miss Tilley did much good work among the children and the poor people of Toronto, and when she found that the office of deaconess would offer her a wider scope for her activities, she took the prescribed course and was set apart by the Bishop of Toronto about fifteen years ago.

For several years she worked in a downtown parish among the people of the slums and at the same time conducted a very large and successful Bible class for ladies in the upper end of the city. Miss Tilley had a deep interest in mission work, and about ten years ago she was elected to the responsible position of president of the Toronto Diocesan Women's Auxiliary, until her health failed. For the last two years she had been invalid and had been under the care of her sister, Mrs. J. D. Chipman.

Among the surviving members of her family are her sisters, Mrs. J. D. Chipman and Mrs. Thos. Burpee of Toronto, her brother, Arthur Tilley of Montreal; F. D. Tilley, of this city is a half-brother, and Lady Tilley is her step-mother.

Rev. G. A. Kuhning, with whose church in Toronto Miss Tilley was connected, today spoke in very high terms of the departed, when apprised of her death. He said that she was loved and respected by everyone who knew her. For many years she was a prominent figure in church life in Toronto and wielded a strong influence for good in the community.

ST. JOHN SALMON GRACES BOARD OF NEW YORK PRESS CLUB

A few weeks ago a St. John gentleman, who was visiting New York, was royally entertained at the New York Press Club through the courtesy of John Boden, formerly of St. John, but for many years prominent in the newspaper life of the American metropolis. Among other things was particularly inviting dinner in the Press Club's quarters at which he was sumptuously dined and wined before an evening of pleasure in attendance at a performance of the Garden of Allah.

As much as the variety and completeness of the entertainment provided for the St. John man, he appreciated the fact that it meant loss of valuable time for busy men and a consequent after rush to catch up. In the course of the dinner the quality of salmon came up for discussion and the St. John gentleman was able to say by his knowledge that there are no salmon to equal those of St. John, to assure his hosts that he could send them one that would lead anything they had in New York. Last week he kept his promise, sending a fine harbor fish, just out of the water. On Saturday he received the following telegram sent on Friday night:

"We thank you for the most delicious salmon dinner ever served in the New York Press Club, and hope some day it may be our privilege to reciprocate so far as we can. We have toasted you and yours."

The telegram was from Messrs. Hennessey, Doyle, Westhausen, Keahan, Ellis and Boden of the Press Club.

A LABOR PARADE

To the Editor of the Times: Sir—With regard to Old Home Week, I think it would be a good thing for all the laboring men in the city to have a grand parade on Thursday, July 11, by having all the millmen in line on that day.

Let each mill owner call his men together, and talk the thing over. By turning out all the laboring men in a trades and labor parade we could make it the greatest day that has ever been seen in St. John in our time. Let the strangers see that St. John is all right.

As it is the opening of Courtenay Bay, that will be a great day in our city, and think of our old friends and the old folks at home in Old Home week.

Will the city fathers see that it is carried out in good style, and make the day a grand success.

Yours, MILLMAN,

A Straight From the Shoulder Talk to Men

As you know, sir, we have here a safe, sure and original kind of clothing store for men of clothes-sense. We want you specially to know that it is a better store this year than it has ever been and, despite the talk of business backwardness, it is a more forward store than it has ever been—forward in records and forward in the matter of increased ability to serve well and to keep its own standard of true quality and true economy unlowered.

Today you can come here and find unlimited choice of suits at $12, $15 and $18, and you will find true quality and true economy in each one of them.

We mention these low prices because the severest test of a store is to provide the man who wants to pay a low price with clothing that has high-price features.

It is also reasonable to suppose that the store which can provide high-class features in low-priced clothing, can provide high-class clothing at relatively low prices. At least, we have suits at $20 to $30 that go to prove this.
