

church services, who send their children or permit them to go to other schools.

Our Teachers are faithful and earnest, there is good discipline, the school room is attractive, our library is well maintained and largely used the general exercises are conducted with a view to afford pleasant worship and sound instruction. and through the Band of Hope meetings and Anniversaries the members are afforded as much entertainment as is usually given by other schools. What is the reason of the apparent falling off? Will not parents kindly talk over this matter at home, and confer with the Teachers, Superintendent, or Pastor, should anything have gone wrong?

QUARTERLY REVIEWS.

At the quarterly reviews the Pastor's Bible Class has united with the school as was done last year. The Pastor was present at the March, September and December reviews, adding much to the pleasure and profit of the meetings.

RE-UNIONS.

The Annual Re-union, held on Friday 25th January, was largely attended. The school room was beautifully decorated with wreaths and evergreens, and each scholar presented with a gift,—chiefly suitable books, aggregating in value, $107.55. The Summer Picnic was held at Port Stanley, on 30th July,—the members of the school being given tickets at half price.

THE LIBRARY.

The Library is very much used and appreciated. Although now containing 572 excellent books, it should be freshened up this coming year, and I trust there will be funds available for that purpose. Mr. John McLintoch and Master Willie Muir, have given great satisfaction in this department.

Miss Maddocks, as organist, and Mr. Wm. Murray as secretary have also rendered faithful services.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PAPERS.

The "Canadian Band of Hope,"—a most excellent paper, published by Mr. Maddocks, has been furnished to the infant
