

4. That Brothers Corcoran, Idle, Nicklin and Belt, be a Committee to consult and decide on the advisability of holding a Camp Meeting, during this Summer, on the London District.

21. What are the Fraternal Communications held with this Conference?

1. That a letter be written to the English Conference in recognition of their kindly cablegram.

2. That the address from the Eastern Conference of the United States be received, and that Brothers Edgar and Crompton be a Committee to prepare a reply to the same.

3. That the Address prepared and read by Brother Cade be sent to the English Conference, in charge of Brother W. Herridge.

22. What Votes of Thanks were passed by the Conference?

1. That the thanks of Conference be given to the Grand Trunk, Great Western, and Northern Railways, for their kind consideration in allowing Delegates to travel to Conference at reduced rates.

2. That the thanks of Conference be tendered to the ex-Vice-President, and retiring Secretary.

3. That the thanks of Conference be given to the Sheet Secretaries (E. Middleton, H. Parrish), for their services.

4. That the thanks of this Conference be given to Brother Cade, for his very eloquent, impressive, and appropriate Conference Sermon, preached last evening, May 25th, and we pray that the Great Head of the Church may still abundantly bless our brother.

5. That the hearty thanks of the Conference be tendered to Rev. R. Cade for the excellent Address prepared by him for the British Conference.

6. That the thanks of this Conference be awarded to Brother K. Stephenson, for his generous promptitude in taking the work on Osprey Station during the illness of Brother Whitworth.

7. That the thanks of Conference be given to Brother G. Clarke, for his services as Reporter to the Christian Journal.

8. That the thanks of Conference be given to Brother T. Sims, for his services as Journal Secretary, and that his expenses be paid.

9. That the heartfelt and unanimous thanks of this Conference be extended to Revs. H. Harris, G. J. Reeve, the friends of the Circuit who have provided so liberally in the Hall, and also to the Aurora friends, for their kind hospitality to the Delegates attending the Conference, and that we assure them that the happy week we have spent in their generous homes and pleasant village, will long remain in our recollection, and it is the devout prayer of the Conference, that the Lord, who never forgets a liberal act done in His name,
