The competion for the Maiden aggregate was completed yesterday during the association cup match This competition is open to members who have never atended a meeting before. The scores counted to win are the highest aggregate in the Nursery, Maiden, Domville, Prince of Wales and Association matches. The scores were as follows:

H. F. Goodwin. Ft. Cumberland, $8, the matter will have to come before the executive committee. The 74th Regt. team won first place, but a protest was entered on the ground that one of its members was not an active militian man. Soon after the protest was entered it was stated that the 74th team had been disqualified and that No. 1 team of the 62nd Regt., which was in second place, had been given the cup.

This evening the annual meeting of the members attending the D. R. A. meet was held at 8.30 o'clock. Capt. J. L. McAvity presided. The meeting is termed among the marksmen as the kickers' convention, and there the men are given an opportunity to make protests. The riflemen had no grievances to make, however, and the meeting was in session only a short time. Captain E. A. Smith moved that the association thank James F. Robertson and John Y. McKane for presenting prizes and that these gentlemen be invited to make the presentations. The motion was carried, it having been second. seconded by Major F. Hartt. The remainder of the time was taken up in discussing the matches which have taken place this year. It was the general opinion that the shooting has been far above the average. The scores made have been higher, and several marksmen who last year were not in the running have this year forged to the front and won creditable places in the prize lists.

The Sinclair cup contest, which took place this afternoon, is causing much discussion among the members of the
