TEETH EXTRACTED FREE

We have the best painless method in Canada.

McALESTER, Okla., Aug. 26.—More vision this morning decided, Chairman Defoe dissenting, that the Dominion civil servce employes are not exempt from income assessment, following the New Brunswick decision. The appellants were James Henderson, inspector; George Ross, superintendent; H. Bavington, A. E. Carlisle, Edward Doyle, John Huggard, R. J. Thompson, A. F. Middleton, W. G. Middleton, A. G. Thompson, W. E. Hynes, clerks. All of the post office officials have decided to carry the case further. We have the best painless method in Canada.

To demonstrate the above we will until further notice -extract teeth free every Monday.

The demonstrate the above we will be the flames. It is believed that six or eight more will be brought out.

After the miners had gone down in the cage a fire broke out, accasioned by the ignition of a barel of oil, which a miner was trying to divide. The flames spread at once to the hoisting shaft and the air shaft and all communication with the top was cut off.

munication with the top was cut off. There was absolutely no help for the nprisoned miners.

ABANDONS SOUTH AFRICAN SCHEME

CAPE TOWN, Aug. 26.—General Booth announced here today the practical abandonment of the Salvation Army's scheme owing to the expense. HAVELOCK, Ont., Aug. 26.—One of the worst fires in the history of this town started here at 4 o'clock this morning. The loss is about $41,000, partly covered by insurance. Joyce's boot and shoe store, Barrett's grocery store, MacKay's tailor shop, Coon's bake shop and the Havelock Standard's office were destroyed. The Standard is owned by Mr. Lancaster.

HOLD SECRET SESSION

tical abandonment of the Salvation Army's scheme owing to the expense. For years General Booth has been studying plans for establishing a colony in Rhodesia. He had talked the matter over with the late Cecil Rhodes, who was an enthusiastic admirer of the general and his schemes for the amelioration of the condition of the masses. Salvation Army representatives have visited Rhodesia and reported favorably upon it for colonization purposes, but to finance the scheme would require thousands of pounds. The general had hoped that government aid would have been forthcoming in the initial stages of the undertaking, but his expectations, evidently, have but his expectations, evidently, have
