big St. Louis Exposition, and the very handsome brass railings which were used on that occasion will be used again at the St. John Exhibition. Everything is so far advanced for the big show that there are only two things now worrying the management One is the weather, and that is beyond the power either of the managemen or of the people of St. John to affect but the other worry is something that the people of St. John can and should cope with, namely, the matter of ac commodation for the visitors. A very large number of people are expected this year from the outside towns and districts, and the management is to be ended upon the intelligent advertising of the big fair, which has result ed in the very great demand for ac-commodation in St. John during the first week of September. # FOR IMPROVED MAIL SERVECE

Contracts Let for Tri-Weekly Service From Chatham to Escuminac

CHATHAM, Aug. 29.-W. S. Loggie stated yesterday that he has received word from Ottawa to the effect that his request for an improved mail service along the south shore of the river had been granted, and contracts have been let for a tri-weekly service to Escuminac. The new service takes effect October 1st, and the days selected are Monday, Wednesday and Friday in place of Tuesday and Friday as at present. For Escuminac and all points between this will provide a tri-weeky service, while Bay du Vin during summer season will have a daily mail, as the boat calls there Tuesdays and Saturdays. The contract has been let in two sections, and Thomas Fitzpatrick has been awarded that from here to Bay du Vin. It was only by energetic action on the part of Mr. Loggie that this improvement in the service was secured, and residents on the south shore as well as the people of Chatham appreciate this evidence of Mr. Loggie's influence at Ottawa. The town schools opened Monday with an attendance of about 750 pupils. The new teachers are: Miss Agnes M. Alward of Fredericton, W. T. Durham of St. John and Miss Keating of Chatham. Over 100 new permits were is-

GRITICISE ACTION OF ROYAL ARGANUM

To the Editor of the Sun:

Sir-A few days since I noticed an account in your paper of a large gathering of the members of the Royal Arcanum in your city. Everything seemed to be harmonious and pleasant. In order that outsiders may know the real character of this institution I ask you to kindly give me sufficient space to show up the minor workings of this society. Shortly after the organization of the institution in the state of Massachusetts we organized a council in Fredericton, I think some time in the seventies. The writer's age was fortytwo, and according to the scale on a three thousand dollar certificate I paid in each assessment two dollars and thirty-six cents besides five dollars per annum local dues. The number of assessments varied from twelve to fifteen per year. This arrangement continued for several years, when a new settlement was made, under which I was compelled to pay twelve payments per annum of $4.14 each in addition to my local dues. I freely accepted these conditions and continued to pay my calls and dues regularly up to October, 1905. the lower harbor, Halifax, where she was working upon the sunken sehr. was working upon the sunken schr. Alexander R., when the Strathcona, I would have to either get out or pay something over sixteen dollars per month in addition to my local dues. Here was a jump of about four hundred per cent., while the assessments Saturday at the entrance of St. Ann's harbor. She was floated again Sunwho were depending on me would have something to fall back on. Now when other insurance society my rates are raised to figures which cannot be intended for any other purpose than driving me and all other old members out of the organization. Had the council made an increase of seventy-five or one hundred per cent. and made a proportionate increase in all alike I would not complain, but the one-sided and outrageous increase was more than I could stand and the treathe the same that the young longing to the Arcanum will have to put up with if they are fortui enough to live to be sixty-five years

I am, yours respectfully,

DANIEL LUCY. Fredericton, Aug. 29.
