Mr. A. McLeod—You refer to an extract from the Buffalo Commercial Advertiser, containing an account of the lawless doings of an armed band who, after Mr. McLeod had been required by the authorities at Lockport, seized and lodged him in the prison from which he had just been liberated. Such acts are highly reprehensible, and the regulations of all men who desire to see the laws enforced. Mr. McLeod was committed on a charge of being concerned in the destruction of the Carthage, and was accordingly detained in the prison until the amount of his bail was furnished. It is to be regretted that you have not been able to ascertain the amount of the bail, and that you have not been able to ascertain the name of the person who has been committed in his stead. ATGHANISTAN.
Rejoicing at the victory over Dost Mohammed at Sycian, though a most splendid one, did not seem entirely to destroy the hopes of the pro-British faction. He was soon again at the head of several thousand men. Our forces in Afghanistan were most anxious to meet him, and as the Whig of Kashmir had volunteered, it was a son of Sir Robert Peel. It is scarcely probable that the next battle would be altogether decisive. Major General Sir Robert Peel succeeded in capturing the city of Herat, and a town belonging to Ali Khan and Rosh Khan, the two principal Kohistan chiefs. These men had invited Dost Mohammed to repair thither, so that this was an important success. The victory, however, was clouded by the death of Captain Comely, who was killed by the Major-General, who was shot through the heart by his side. The chiefs themselves escaped with the greater part of their followers. Dost Mohammed continued moving from place to place with his army, but his two sons, who had some time previously made their escape from the confinement at Ghazni, were unable as yet to gather their followers together, or to join their father. Having arrived at the Helmand, Lieut. Ruffely, assistant to Dr. Lord, the political agent, was sent to offer terms to the Dost; but before he could reach the place, the Amer moved on to Ghazni, crossing by thirty miles from the camp of Sir R. Sale. He was compelled to retreat from this place, and next took up his position at Nafroz. He was still there, by the last accounts, and of his son was reported to have arrived in the Ghazni with 400 infantry and 200 horses, when the news of a great and decisive battle having taken place near Buzman, between our forces and those of the Dost was received at Bombay, from Sir W. M. Naughton. Dr. Lord was killed in the action. The Dost fled to Cabul, and there delivered himself up to Sir William, who met taking his morning ride. No particulars have yet reached us, and of the details of this extraordinary engagement are of course anxiously looked for. It is to be hoped the disturbances in Afghanistan will end very speedily.

FROM THE BENGAL HURKAR, EXTRA, Nov. 16.
The troops of Chusan have been suffering severely from sickness and deaths, since their arrival on the island, being Europeans, 63—natives, 19. H. M. 20th has particularly suffered. Want of fresh meat has been the cause of the sickness among the troops, and the lazaret was ill supplied. The navy, at sea, had also suffered severely from dysentery, but few casualties had occurred.

It appears there have been some difficulties about the Bill of Mr. McLeod, now in the hands of Lord Campbell. An indictment against the Dost was not expected to come on before April. The measure, some of the British people are following the course of the Government. There was a bit of a row on Tuesday at the meeting of the Social Council, when the Hon. the Secretary, Mr. James St. John, and Sir James St. John, were present. The Hon. the Secretary, Mr. James St. John, and Sir James St. John, were present. The Hon. the Secretary, Mr. James St. John, and Sir James St. John, were present.
