Some noises help sleep, as the blowing of the wind, and the trickling of water; they move a genthe attention; and whatsoever movesh attention, without too much labour, still the natural and dis-cursive motion of the spirits.-Lord Bacon.

Some persons have periodical attacks of Canadian cholers, dysentery or Diarrhoes, and have to use great pre-cations to avoid the disease. To such persons we would recommend Dr.J. D. Keilogg's Dysentery Cordial as being the best medicine in the market for all summer complaints. If a few drops are taken in water when the symptoms are noticed no further trouble will be experienced.
