MARSHAL HAIG'S ARMY CAPTURES TOWN OF BRUAY

British Reach West Bank of Scheldt River Near Valenciennes.

GERMANS OFFERING MUCH RESISTANCE

French Reach Line of Serre
River Northwest of Laon.

London, Oct. 23.—Northwest of Laon French troops have reached the line of the Serre River, having made an advance of two to three miles on an eight mile front.

The British began a new attack early today on the front between Le Cateau and Solesmes, south of Valenciennes. Field Marshal Haig announced today. The British have captured Bruay, two and a half miles north of Valenciennes, and have reached the west bank of the Scheldt. The statement follows:

"At an early hour this morning our troops attacked on the Le Cateau-Solesmes front and are reported to be making good progress."

"Further north, between Valenciennes and Tournai, we have taken Bruay and reached the west bank of the Scheldt at Biekeren and Espin. Considerable resistance was encountered on this front yesterday and sharp fighting took place in which our troops, pressing the enemy vigorously, inflicted many casualties upon him, and drove him from his positions, capturing a number of prisoners."

Huns Leave Brioules.

With the American Army Northwest of Verdun, Oct. 23. (By the Associated Press).—The town of Brioules, on the western bank of the Meuse, which has been stubbornly defended by the Germans, has been given up by the enemy.

The Germans set fire to Brioules late Tuesday and American patrols early today reported that the Germans had withdrawn from the town.

Eastern Theatre.

Paris, Oct. 22.—The official communication dealing with operations in the eastern theatre says:

"On October 21 French forces reached on the Danube Lom-Palante (Bulgaria, twenty-two miles southeast of Vidin) which they occupied; they captured a convoy of enemy barges loaded with merchandise and wheat."

"North of Alekshtat, Serbian forces have progressed notwithstanding very strong resistance by the enemy."

"Serbian cavalry have reached the region east of Paracin, capturing part of the headquarters of a German division, including the archives and baggage of General Von Gallwitz, commander of the division."

"In the region of Ipek and Novipazar detachments of Serbian Comitatists and Montenegrins supported by French troops, captured in the course of engagements with Austro-German forces in retreat more than 1,600 prisoners and important booty."

OBITUARY.

David Glendenning.

David Glendenning, of Harvey Station died last Saturday after a lengthy illness. He was a native of Richmond, and was in the 79th year of his age. He is survived by one son and three daughters, also one brother and three sisters.

John Desmond.

The death of John Desmond, Little River, occurred Tuesday evening at his residence. Mr. Desmond was a well known farmer and was highly respected in the community. He was sixty-eight years old and leaves two sons, Stephen and Frank J., and one daughter, Miss Mary, all at home. The funeral will take place today.

Joseph Gallant.

Special to The Standard.
Shediac, Oct. 23.—One of our old residents and a citizen who will be missed from our town, passed away on Monday, when Mr. Joseph Gallant died at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Martin on Calder street after a very short illness. He is survived by two daughters and one son, none of whom are residing in Shediac.

During the epidemic that has visited the town the late Mr. Gallant rendered valuable service to many who were ill, and while attending the sick he contracted the disease, succumbing to pneumonia.

Charles Dickinson.

Woodstock, Oct. 23.—Charles Dickinson, a well known hotel man, died today of pneumonia. He was 70 years of age and is survived by a wife and a son, Harry.

Miss Juliette Paturelle.

Special to The Standard.
Shediac, Oct. 23.—While the deadly "flu" has been abating in our midst the past few days, there are still sad hearts and homes in the town owing to the fatal results of the malady. The entire community mourns the passing away of one of our brightest and most promising young citizens. After a short illness considered grave from the first, Miss Juliette Paturelle died at four o'clock yesterday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Paturelle Main street east.

The passing of such a lovely young life, snatched so suddenly from the family circle, is a very sad blow to the parents and surviving sister, Miss Laurette. The late Miss Paturelle was beautiful in character, and possessed a sense of a pleasing appearance with charm of personality, gifted in art and in music, and with a sweet lovable disposition. Juliette was beloved by many, and in her home town and in other parts her large circle of friends will be saddened to know of her death.

The deceased was a voice of unusual greatness, part of her life at educational institutions, and was at the convent of the Sacred Heart, Halifax, at the time of the death of her mother, who received slight injuries. Her standing in all branches of her studies was exceptionally good. She was the possessor of a voice of unusual sweetness, and was ever ready to give of her talent to functions, social and patriotic. She will be held in fond remembrance by our citizens who extend to her grief stricken family their deepest sympathy. The sad blow of her daughter's death comes as a double bereavement to Mrs. Paturelle, whose sister, the late Mrs. Abbie Hebert, so recently passed away.

Mrs. A. Hathaway.

Special to The Standard.
Aroostook Jct., N. B., Oct. 23.—Mrs. Hathaway, wife of A. Hathaway, engineer of the C. P. R. died yesterday of pneumonia.

Mrs. Fred L. Chase.

Sincere regret was expressed yesterday when it became known that Mrs. Fred L. Chase died at an early hour yesterday morning at her home, 222 Main street. She became ill with influenza last Saturday morning and pneumonia developed, death resulting.

She is survived by her husband, who is in a critical condition from pneumonia, an infant child, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Gorman of this city; three brothers, Alfred at home and Charles and Jack, overseas with the Canadian expeditionary forces; and two sisters, Miss H. Gorman at home and Mrs. L. H. Adams of Ansonia, Conn. Mrs. Chase was a young woman who had a wide circle of friends and acquaintances and heart-felt sympathy will be extended to the bereaved family.

Miss Annie V. Hayes.

The death of Miss Annie Veronica Hayes occurred yesterday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Hayes, Glen Falls, after a short illness from pneumonia. Besides her parents, she leaves two brothers, survive. The sisters are: Mrs. William Trifits, Mrs. Edward Hipwell, Mrs. Frank L. McGuire, this city, and Miss Helen at home. The brothers are: Louis, of Portland, Me., and Joseph, at home. The funeral, which is private, will be held this afternoon.

Mrs. Sarah B. Currie.

The death occurred Tuesday after a long illness, at the home of her brother, J. A. Mallam, 20 Pleasant street, West St. John, of Mrs. Sarah B. Currie, wife of Frederick Currie. She was a daughter of the late Christopher Mallam, and is survived by her husband, one daughter, Mrs. George Took of Clancy, Montana; two brothers and two sisters. One brother, at whose home she died, and one sister, Mrs. Peterson, live in West St. John. The funeral will take place this afternoon, service at half-past two.

Sgt. Wm. Scott.

Many will learn with regret of the death of Sgt. William Scott, son of the late Joseph and Panny Scott of Millville, which occurred at the Military Hospital, St. James' street, Tuesday. Sgt. Scott was a returned soldier military police work at McAdam where he contracted Spanish influenza which caused his death. He leaves his wife and two small children in Fairville, also one sister, Mrs. James Cripps of Fairville, John and Spurr in the west, Arthur of Randolph, Walter serving his country somewhere in France, and Harry of West St. John.

John Kilpatrick.

Alexander Crawford returned to the city late evening after attending the funeral of his father-in-law John Kilpatrick, of Upham, Kings county. The deceased was eighty-six years of age, and died on Monday last leaving besides his widow, Caroline, ten children, two sons and eight daughters. The sons are Alfred, of Edmonton, Alberta; and Nelson, at home; the daughters are Miss Lizzie, Mrs. Boyd Kilpatrick, Mrs. Harry Fowler, Mrs. Robert Lackie, Mrs. Frank Sherwood, Mrs. Byron Debow, Mrs. Arthur Kilpatrick, all of Upham, and Mrs. Alexander Crawford, of St. John. The funeral services being conducted by Rev. Mr. McLaren, of the Church of England, and interment in the family plot at Upham.

The late Mr. Kilpatrick was well known throughout the country, having been born and all his lifetime resided at Upham, where he was a successful farmer, and for years was proprietor of the Twenty-four Mile House on the Hammond River Road.
