William T. Tilden, 20, of Philadelphia, is defeating all comers on the tennis courts and probably will be the 1919 season's tennis champion. His steadiness of play combined with an aggressive attack makes him well nigh invulnerable.

STATEMENT OF TRADE SHOWS FALLING OFF

The First Four Months of Fiscal Year Shows Decrease of $42,000,000 as Compared With Same Period Last Year.

JULY, HOWEVER, SHOWS INCREASE

If the July Record is Maintained the Fiscal Year Will be Greater Than That of 1918.

Ottawa, Ont., Aug. 20.—For the first four months of the fiscal year ending July 31st, the grand total of trade for the Dominion was to the value of $656,787,587. This represents a falling away in trade of approximately forty-two million dollars as compared with the same period last year, when the value of goods imported and exported until July 31st was $702,722,565. An encouraging feature of the trade statement just issued by the Department of Customs is, however, a heavy increase for the month of July alone, when goods to the value of $263,940,594 were imported or exported, as compared with $187,567,500 in July, 1918. If this record is kept up in the succeeding eight months of the fiscal year, the annual trade will be greater than during the 1918 fiscal year. During the four months period, dutiable goods to the value of $186,451,500 were imported as against $182,992,473 last year, while non-dutiable goods valued at $95,445,450 were brought into the country as compared with $150,417,730 last year, the shrinkage being largely due to the change from war to peace conditions, and the consequent cessation of the manufacture of war materials.

Exports of domestic goods for the first four months of fiscal year were to the value of $357,832,897 as against $351,692,926 in 1918. Agricultural exports of foodstuffs heads the list, being to the value of $125,894,659, an increase of about thirty-seven million dollars as compared with 1918. Animals and animal products take second place with exports valued at $87,116,876.

Iron and steel manufactures head the list of exported manufactured products. They were to the value of $87,396 as compared with $18,401,246 for the same period in 1918.

LITTLE BITS OF SPORT CHATTER

Lieut. Earl Eby, the Penn. and Chicago middle-distance runner, who, according to Ted Meredith, is one of the few men in sight who, he thinks, may beat his world's half-mile record, is 10 pounds under weight, and, for this reason, will not compete in the National championships next month.

A New York writer says after seeing Jimmy Connolly run in the Connellian mile that he should show 4m 30s on the Franklin Field track in Philadelphia. Connolly has run a mile in 4m. 19 1/4s. on that same track. Jimmy will match speed and confidence against Jole Ray when they meet.

Ed McKean, the old Cleveland shortstop, whose death was reported in this position, 33 was a professional wrestler as well as a ball player. He and "Cupid" Chibis made a great pair on the inner part of the diamond. "Cupid" was built even more on the ground than McKean.

Miss Fanny Durack, who holds a stack of world's swimming records for women, had to follow in the wake of two youthful American maidens in her first race in the East. Miss Ethelinda Bledsoe, 17 years, and Miss Charlotte Boyle, 18, proved too fast for the celebrated Australian Saturday in the A. A. U. 440-yard championship. The time, to be sure, was slow, compared with Miss Durack's world's record, made in Australia. It is a far cry from 5m. 2 3/4s. to 5m. 30 1/4s., but the conditions were different.

Word comes from Stockholm that J. Myrta, a Finn, has made a new world's record for throwing the javelin with one hand with a performance of 65.55 meters. This is just a shade more than 215 feet. The previous world's record was 204 ft. 5 5/8 in., according to the record books.

In 1906 the western clubs held all the first division places at the end of the American League season, just as they did Wednesday. It is an unusual thing in baseball to find one section monopolizing the first division. The East has never held exclusive right to the first division at the end of a season in the American League.

In the National the East finished in the first five places in a 12-team race in 1894 in this order: Baltimore, New York, Boston, Philadelphia and Brooklyn. In the eight-club National League the East took all four first division places in 1916 in this order: Brooklyn, Philadelphia, Boston and New York.

FIRST VALLEY FROM FREE

Special With Manager today—All Wonderful Scenery—Short Served on Arrival

The first passenger train from St. John over the St. John and Valley Railway, pulled into the Station here yesterday afternoon at 1:58 o'clock. The fifty or more guests aboard were guests of the segment and the trip was in the nature of an official inspection road. The inspection was a hurried one, as the train was to start on its journey to the westward yesterday, found a railroad route, solid road bed, few curves, practically no grades.

Besides the show trains, toward making a railway the gorgeous scenery of the St. John valley, the river and field combined to give a great waterway a proper setting. The inspection was a hurried one, as the train was to start on its journey to the westward yesterday, found a railroad route, solid road bed, few curves, practically no grades.

Dominion and provincial were present and saw the train that have been done in making way along the St. John Valley. The inspection was a hurried one, as the train was to start on its journey to the westward yesterday, found a railroad route, solid road bed, few curves, practically no grades.

It is claimed that the St. John Valley Railway will be a great income source for the province, as the railway has been taken over by the Canadian National Railway. The inspection was a hurried one, as the train was to start on its journey to the westward yesterday, found a railroad route, solid road bed, few curves, practically no grades.

The train yesterday left for St. John at 10 a. m., and proceeded at a moderate rate of speed so that passengers could have an opportunity of viewing the road. Soon after 1 p. m. the train stopped at a station where a bush land in order to make a detour of the Oromocto flats. On either side of the track appeared a bold scrub hush and soft woods, with a carpet were raspberry and berry bushes laden with fruit.

The train here onward and finally the open country about the Oromocto appeared and then there was a glimpse of the placid waters of the river John.

The rails follow the river thence to St. John and everywhere wonderful places of beauty. The shore of the river looms up in a festive and one can hardly realize the historic interest attached to every rock and hill. Along the river St. John, in older times, the hunted and trapped, also on its banks he fought his battles. Later the man came and founded settlements at different places between the river and the far Northwest. The river the struggle between the whites and the red and later between the fish and French, while all the conquering of nature continued till today we have the fine river.
