Louis Stevens .....

On motion, the tenders were referred to Commissioner Jones, to consider and report.

HAD NARROW ESCAPE

Frank Belyea of West St. John had a narrow escape from drowning yesterday morning but fortunately escaped with nothing worse than a ducking. Mr. Belyea who is engineer on the dredge Beacon Bar was going down over the side of the steamer Huntscraft to a scow when he slipped and fell into the slip. Being unable to swim and heavily clothed he was in serious danger until his cries were heard by the crew of the steamer who pulled him out of the water. He was taken to the engine room of the dredge and after getting on dry clothing did not seem any the worse for his plunge into the icy waters.

Police Court

Cases Yesterday

Evidence Taken in Disorderly House Case and Defendants Remanded — Magistrate Reprimands Girls Charged With Assault.

In the police court yesterday morning Mrs. Maude Nichol was charged with being keeper of a disorderly house, and Kate Donnel, Verna Morton, Ronald Nodwell, Lewis Daley and Walter McAnn were charged with being inmates. The arrests were made by Policeman McNeil accompanied by Policemen McLeese and Detective Saunders in consequence of information received from Kate Donnel. The police said they found two men fighting and Daley, Nodwell and the Donnel woman drunk but no liquor was found. The accused were remanded for further hearing.

George Danford was charged with St. Patrick street, for illegal purposes. St. Patrick street, for illegal purposes. L. A. Conlon appeared for the defence. The seizure of the fifteen bottles of whiskey found in the defendant's piano was made by Inspector Merryfield, McAlain and Kerr. The case was opened in the morning session and concluded in the afternoon. Evidence was given of fifteen bottles of whiskey in the defendant's piano. Defendant explained it was put there in order to conceal it from the children.

The judge said that in view of the circumstances arising in the case, the maximum fine would not be imposed. He would further consider the case and the fine will be imposed this afternoon at two o'clock.

The case of Nellie Peterson, Muriel Lee and Lillian Boyle, charged with assaulting Carmella Barbour was then taken up. The defendants pleaded not guilty. The evidence of the plaintiff and her father was taken.

There being no evidence against the Peterson girl the case against her was dismissed. The judge after severely reprimanding the other two girls allowed them to go as the charges were not pressed. His Honor said that a girl by her conduct might make herself liable to a fine of twenty dollars for a breach of the peace just as well as a boy or man. The conduct of some of the girls of St. John was worse than the boys, that were allowed to go out too late at night.

Court was adjourned till ten o'clock this morning.

WEDDINGS

Hallett-Anderson.

A wedding of much interest was solemnized on Wednesday, December 10, at 4 p. m., at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson, Benton, N. B., when their youngest daughter, Stella Eva, was united in marriage to H. G. Budd Hallett, of Millville, N. B. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Turner, Debec Junction, N. B. The bride entered the drawing room, which was beautifully decorated in evergreen ferns and cut flowers, on the arm of her father, to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, rendered by Miss Annalee Hallett, sister of the groom. The bride was beautifully dressed in a gown of Duchess satin, with sequin trimmings, and wore a veil caught up with orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of white roses. The bride was Miss Alice Hallett, of Fredericton, N. B., sister of the groom. Her gown was a beautiful one of pale blue satin, draped with gold and silver lace, and she wore a picture hat to match. She carried a shower bouquet of pale pink carnations, tied with streamers of pink lily of the valley chiffon. The groom was supported by Frank E. Anderson, Presque Isle, Maine, brother of the bride. At the conclusion of the ceremony, lunch was served, and later the bride and groom left by C. P. R. for Montreal, Toronto, and American cities. The bride wore a travelling dress of navy blue serge and a taupe hat with turquoise blue ostrich trimming, and a set of beaver fur, the gift of the groom. Upon the return they will reside in Carleton Place.

The presents received by the young pair consisted of cut glass, silver, cheques, and a piano from the bride's father. The bride is well known and very popular, and will be greatly missed. The groom has recently returned from overseas, where he served four years in France.

Among the out-of-town guests were Miss Elizabeth Hallett, Miss Annalee Hallett, Miss Lulu Hallett, Miss Alice Hallett, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Gilson, Miss Elizabeth Anderson, Moncton, N. B.

Turner-Havens.

Jacksonville, Dec. 11.—A wedding of much interest took place yesterday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Havens, when their eldest daughter, Alma Blanche, was united in marriage to Earle W. Turner, of St. Almo. Rev. H. Harrison officiated assisted by Rev. Mr. Penwick. The bridesmaid was Miss Goldie Havens, sister of the bride. The groom was supported by Mr. William Paul. Miss Alice Tilley played Mendelssohn's wedding march. The bride looked charming in her travelling suit of navy velvet with fur to match. The bridesmaid wore pale blue crepe de chene with a hat of sand Georgette. A dainty luncheon was served after which Mr. and Mrs. Turner left on the noon express for St. Almo where they will reside for the winter months and then will make Jacksonville their permanent home.

The groom's gift to the bride was a string of pearls; to the bridesmaid, a ruby ring; to the pianist, a brooch.

Proctor-Morrill.

An interesting wedding took place last evening at the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. Dr. David Hutchinson, when Roy Burris Morrill, a well known and popular young man in the North End, was united in marriage to Miss Ada Beatrice Proctor, of Cody Station, Queens county. They were unattended and will reside on Kennedy street.
