

PROOF OF PUBLICATION SUBMITTED IN THE MILLIGAN-CROCKET LABEL SUIT.

One Witness Heard and Adjournment Had Until This Morning at Defendant's Request—Other Cases Before the Circuit Court—Connolly vs. the City of St. John.

Before Judge McLeod yesterday morning the case of Connolly vs. the City of St. John was taken up. The plaintiff in this case is Michael Connolly, of Montreal, who is seeking to recover from the city a balance of $6,500 which, it is alleged, is due him for dredging at the McLeod wharf and elsewhere.

George V. Milner, K. C., who appeared for the plaintiff, objected to the case going to trial when the jury was made up of city residents altogether, who, under an act of 1877, were liable to be chosen in the manner of an interested party.

W. H. Duval, Joseph A. Stubbs, John Conlon, John Spence, Samuel L. Crockett, Joseph A. Tilton, and William Hoath.

After Mr. Crockett had begun his address, W. H. Wallace entered the court room and sat next to the witness, Mr. Allen, the defendant's attorney, asking him to apply for a postponement until this morning.

In reply Mr. Crockett said he was willing to accede to the request for an adjournment, but was anxious to get through with one witness at a time and get home. She had come from a distance and at some inconvenience to herself.

Mr. Crockett then resumed his address to the jury. He said that the subject matter upon which the jury was to be sworn was familiar to the jurors as it had reference to the making up of the so-called Rothesay non-resident list.

Mr. Crockett next resumed his address to the jury, saying that the defendant's plea, which was in substance and fact as follows:

1. And for a second plea to the said first count of the declaration, that the defendant, James H. Crockett, is not the author of the said article, and that the plaintiff is not entitled to recover damages thereon.

2. And for a third plea to the said first count of the declaration, that the defendant, James H. Crockett, is not the author of the said article, and that the plaintiff is not entitled to recover damages thereon.

Mr. Crockett then resumed his address to the jury, saying that the defendant's plea, which was in substance and fact as follows:

1. And for a second plea to the said first count of the declaration, that the defendant, James H. Crockett, is not the author of the said article, and that the plaintiff is not entitled to recover damages thereon.

Mr. Crockett then resumed his address to the jury, saying that the defendant's plea, which was in substance and fact as follows:

1. And for a second plea to the said first count of the declaration, that the defendant, James H. Crockett, is not the author of the said article, and that the plaintiff is not entitled to recover damages thereon.

Mr. Crockett then resumed his address to the jury, saying that the defendant's plea, which was in substance and fact as follows:

1. And for a second plea to the said first count of the declaration, that the defendant, James H. Crockett, is not the author of the said article, and that the plaintiff is not entitled to recover damages thereon.

Mr. Crockett then resumed his address to the jury, saying that the defendant's plea, which was in substance and fact as follows:

1. And for a second plea to the said first count of the declaration, that the defendant, James H. Crockett, is not the author of the said article, and that the plaintiff is not entitled to recover damages thereon.

Mr. Crockett then resumed his address to the jury, saying that the defendant's plea, which was in substance and fact as follows:

1. And for a second plea to the said first count of the declaration, that the defendant, James H. Crockett, is not the author of the said article, and that the plaintiff is not entitled to recover damages thereon.

Mr. Crockett then resumed his address to the jury, saying that the defendant's plea, which was in substance and fact as follows:

1. And for a second plea to the said first count of the declaration, that the defendant, James H. Crockett, is not the author of the said article, and that the plaintiff is not entitled to recover damages thereon.

Mr. Crockett then resumed his address to the jury, saying that the defendant's plea, which was in substance and fact as follows:

1. And for a second plea to the said first count of the declaration, that the defendant, James H. Crockett, is not the author of the said article, and that the plaintiff is not entitled to recover damages thereon.

Mr. Crockett then resumed his address to the jury, saying that the defendant's plea, which was in substance and fact as follows:

1. And for a second plea to the said first count of the declaration, that the defendant, James H. Crockett, is not the author of the said article, and that the plaintiff is not entitled to recover damages thereon.

Mr. Crockett then resumed his address to the jury, saying that the defendant's plea, which was in substance and fact as follows:

1. And for a second plea to the said first count of the declaration, that the defendant, James H. Crockett, is not the author of the said article, and that the plaintiff is not entitled to recover damages thereon.

Mr. Crockett then resumed his address to the jury, saying that the defendant's plea, which was in substance and fact as follows:

1. And for a second plea to the said first count of the declaration, that the defendant, James H. Crockett, is not the author of the said article, and that the plaintiff is not entitled to recover damages thereon.

Mr. Crockett then resumed his address to the jury, saying that the defendant's plea, which was in substance and fact as follows:

1. And for a second plea to the said first count of the declaration, that the defendant, James H. Crockett, is not the author of the said article, and that the plaintiff is not entitled to recover damages thereon.

Mr. Crockett then resumed his address to the jury, saying that the defendant's plea, which was in substance and fact as follows:

1. And for a second plea to the said first count of the declaration, that the defendant, James H. Crockett, is not the author of the said article, and that the plaintiff is not entitled to recover damages thereon.

Mr. Crockett then resumed his address to the jury, saying that the defendant's plea, which was in substance and fact as follows:

1. And for a second plea to the said first count of the declaration, that the defendant, James H. Crockett, is not the author of the said article, and that the plaintiff is not entitled to recover damages thereon.

Mr. Crockett then resumed his address to the jury, saying that the defendant's plea, which was in substance and fact as follows:

1. And for a second plea to the said first count of the declaration, that the defendant, James H. Crockett, is not the author of the said article, and that the plaintiff is not entitled to recover damages thereon.

Mr. Crockett then resumed his address to the jury, saying that the defendant's plea, which was in substance and fact as follows:

1. And for a second plea to the said first count of the declaration, that the defendant, James H. Crockett, is not the author of the said article, and that the plaintiff is not entitled to recover damages thereon.

NEW BRUNSWICK ORCHARD REPORT.

Dominion Fruit Inspector McNeill Tells of His Visit to This Province.

That if the trees were leaved a little toward the southwest, so that the limbs would shade the trunk, and if the pruning were not so severe, this injury might be prevented. There appears to be some difficulty in getting suitable nursery stock, though it is likely that the Department of Agriculture working through the agricultural societies will make an improvement in this matter.

NEEDED IMPROVEMENTS.

Stock Market Not Suitable for English Grower—Trees Are Set Too Close Together, and the Ground Should Be Thoroughly Cultivated.

A McNeill, Dominion fruit inspector, who has been giving a series of orchard reports in different parts of New Brunswick this spring has made the following report to the department of agriculture: By your instructions I attended orchard meetings at New Brunswick, as per the accompanying schedule:

April 29, 1905, Fredericton, orchard of I. E. Porter; attendance 120.

April 29, 1905, Fredericton, orchard of H. H. McCann; attendance 110.

April 29, 1905, Woodstock, orchard of C. L. Smith; attendance 65.

April 29, 1905, Harvey Station, orchard of H. H. McCann; attendance 110.

April 29, 1905, Westfield, orchard of G. R. Willet; attendance 108.

April 29, 1905, Shelburne, orchard of G. H. White; attendance 82.

April 29, 1905, Hillsboro, orchard of A. Stevens; attendance 80.

April 29, 1905, Shediac, orchard of D. S. Harper; attendance 31.

May 2, 1905, Lower Gagetown, orchard of G. W. Fox; attendance 100.

May 4, 1905, Upper Gagetown, orchard of F. J. Murphy; attendance 70.

May 5, 1905, Upper Shellfield, orchard of Isaac Stevens; attendance 80.

May 4, 1905, Upper Gagetown, orchard of F. J. Murphy; attendance 70.

May 5, 1905, Upper Shellfield, orchard of Isaac Stevens; attendance 80.

May 4, 1905, Upper Gagetown, orchard of F. J. Murphy; attendance 70.

May 5, 1905, Upper Shellfield, orchard of Isaac Stevens; attendance 80.

May 4, 1905, Upper Gagetown, orchard of F. J. Murphy; attendance 70.

May 5, 1905, Upper Shellfield, orchard of Isaac Stevens; attendance 80.

May 4, 1905, Upper Gagetown, orchard of F. J. Murphy; attendance 70.

May 5, 1905, Upper Shellfield, orchard of Isaac Stevens; attendance 80.

May 4, 1905, Upper Gagetown, orchard of F. J. Murphy; attendance 70.

May 5, 1905, Upper Shellfield, orchard of Isaac Stevens; attendance 80.

May 4, 1905, Upper Gagetown, orchard of F. J. Murphy; attendance 70.

May 5, 1905, Upper Shellfield, orchard of Isaac Stevens; attendance 80.

May 4, 1905, Upper Gagetown, orchard of F. J. Murphy; attendance 70.

May 5, 1905, Upper Shellfield, orchard of Isaac Stevens; attendance 80.

May 4, 1905, Upper Gagetown, orchard of F. J. Murphy; attendance 70.

May 5, 1905, Upper Shellfield, orchard of Isaac Stevens; attendance 80.

May 4, 1905, Upper Gagetown, orchard of F. J. Murphy; attendance 70.

May 5, 1905, Upper Shellfield, orchard of Isaac Stevens; attendance 80.

KING'S COLLEGE AMALGAMATION PLAN VOTED DOWN BY GOVERNORS YESTERDAY.

Warm Debate Over Proposal to Consolidate With Dalhousie—New Governors Elected Include a St. John Man—Faculty to Be Reorganized and New Policy Pursued.

Windsor, N. S., June 17.—(Special)—The Alumni of King's College held an important meeting today. A large number was present, there having been nearly 300 registered in the college. The first object of the meeting was to vote on the amalgamation plan with Dalhousie.

NERVOUS SCHOOL CHILDREN.

Many Are Run Down—How to Give Them Strength to Meet the Coming Examinations.

A conspicuous feature of modern life is the increasing demand of parents for the physical welfare of their children. Only when something unexpected happens does the average parent realize that the child has grown up.

EDGEHILL CLOSING EXERCISES.

Windsor, N. S., June 16.—Edgehill closing exercises took place today and a large number of the pupils were present.

The principal, Miss Letroy, stated in her report that excellent work had been done by the eighty-nine pupils.

The musical and literary programme was most successfully carried out. The Swallows, a part song by the whole school in honor of the late Miss Letroy, was very effective.

The musical and literary programme was most successfully carried out. The Swallows, a part song by the whole school in honor of the late Miss Letroy, was very effective.

The musical and literary programme was most successfully carried out. The Swallows, a part song by the whole school in honor of the late Miss Letroy, was very effective.

The musical and literary programme was most successfully carried out. The Swallows, a part song by the whole school in honor of the late Miss Letroy, was very effective.

The musical and literary programme was most successfully carried out. The Swallows, a part song by the whole school in honor of the late Miss Letroy, was very effective.

The musical and literary programme was most successfully carried out. The Swallows, a part song by the whole school in honor of the late Miss Letroy, was very effective.

The musical and literary programme was most successfully carried out. The Swallows, a part song by the whole school in honor of the late Miss Letroy, was very effective.

The musical and literary programme was most successfully carried out. The Swallows, a part song by the whole school in honor of the late Miss Letroy, was very effective.

The musical and literary programme was most successfully carried out. The Swallows, a part song by the whole school in honor of the late Miss Letroy, was very effective.

The musical and literary programme was most successfully carried out. The Swallows, a part song by the whole school in honor of the late Miss Letroy, was very effective.

The musical and literary programme was most successfully carried out. The Swallows, a part song by the whole school in honor of the late Miss Letroy, was very effective.

The musical and literary programme was most successfully carried out. The Swallows, a part song by the whole school in honor of the late Miss Letroy, was very effective.

The musical and literary programme was most successfully carried out. The Swallows, a part song by the whole school in honor of the late Miss Letroy, was very effective.

The musical and literary programme was most successfully carried out. The Swallows, a part song by the whole school in honor of the late Miss Letroy, was very effective.

The musical and literary programme was most successfully carried out. The Swallows, a part song by the whole school in honor of the late Miss Letroy, was very effective.

The musical and literary programme was most successfully carried out. The Swallows, a part song by the whole school in honor of the late Miss Letroy, was very effective.

The musical and literary programme was most successfully carried out. The Swallows, a part song by the whole school in honor of the late Miss Letroy, was very effective.

The musical and literary programme was most successfully carried out. The Swallows, a part song by the whole school in honor of the late Miss Letroy, was very effective.

The musical and literary programme was most successfully carried out. The Swallows, a part song by the whole school in honor of the late Miss Letroy, was very effective.

The musical and literary programme was most successfully carried out. The Swallows, a part song by the whole school in honor of the late Miss Letroy, was very effective.

The musical and literary programme was most successfully carried out. The Swallows, a part song by the whole school in honor of the late Miss Letroy, was very effective.

The musical and literary programme was most successfully carried out. The Swallows, a part song by the whole school in honor of the late Miss Letroy, was very effective.

The musical and literary programme was most successfully carried out. The Swallows, a part song by the whole school in honor of the late Miss Letroy, was very effective.

The musical and literary programme was most successfully carried out. The Swallows, a part song by the whole school in honor of the late Miss Letroy, was very effective.

The musical and literary programme was most successfully carried out. The Swallows, a part song by the whole school in honor of the late Miss Letroy, was very effective.

The musical and literary programme was most successfully carried out. The Swallows, a part song by the whole school in honor of the late Miss Letroy, was very effective.

A BRAVE WOMAN IS CAPT. DELAP'S WIFE.

Cheered the Sailors of the Wrecked Bear River Schooner V. T. H.—An Anxious Night and a Total Wreck.

Monday's Boston Post tells the following story of the wreck of the Bear River schooner V. T. H., briefly announced in Tuesday's Telegraph: Mrs. W. H. Delap, wife of Captain Delap, of the two-masted schooner V. T. H., passed through a fearful ordeal Friday night, and her heroism in the face of this wreck and what seemed like certain death has earned for her the plaudits of seamen.

SCHOOL OF PHARMACY MAY BE ESTABLISHED.

Meeting Discussed at the Annual Meeting of the Society Held at the Willows Wednesday.

There may be established in this city an institution for the education of young men desiring a knowledge of pharmacy. There is a balance of about $745 to the credit of the fund, which was used up at the annual meeting Wednesday the advisability of devoting this money toward a pharmaceutical college was considered, but no definite steps were taken.

THE STEAMER MESSAGER.

Windsor, N. S., June 16.—(Special)—The steamer Messager, of the company of Messrs. Messinger, was wrecked at Yarmouth, N. S., on Saturday last.

The vessel was a total loss and both vessel and cargo are uninsured. She is a two-masted schooner of 180 tonnage, owned by Marshall & Hardy of Digby (N. S.).

Nature's Remedy for Diarrhoea and all Summer Complaints in Children & Adults. FULLER'S BLACKBERRY CORDIAL. THE FULLER COY., Limited, WOODSTOCK, N.B.