THE ADDRESS OF THE CONFERENCE
OF THE
Wesleyan Methodist Church of Eastern British America, 1871
TO THE
BRITISH CONFERENCE, 1871.

HONOURED FATHERS AND BRETHREN BELOVED IN CHRIST JESUS:—

We have again been reminded by your Annual Address, as tenderly admonitory and kindly persuasive of the increasing guardianship received over our various interests by the Parent Body. It was read to us while the happiest associations of thought connected with our past, prosperous year, were lingering in our minds occasioned by a grateful review of God's great favour toward His servants and His Church. Goodness and mercy have abounded in our Methodist bodies. The Holy Spirit has visited, with special refreshing, many portions of His vineyard; and Ministers and people seem animated toward new, en-
