

able to report that the year has been a successful one with us. The attendance has been larger than that of any previous year, even when three schools were in operation. In all, we had upon our roll one hundred and eleven names.

In addition to this, the amount contributed by the pupils exceeded anything yet attained in the history of the school. Mite boxes were introduced, by the help of which the entire sum necessary for the support of a pupil at Point-aux-Trembles was raised. Formerly, in order to achieve this result, the givings of the scholars had to be largely supplemented from other sources.

With feelings of deep gratitude to the Great Shepherd for His goodness towards His little flock in the past, we go forward, trusting Him still to protect and guide us, and praying that He may lead us into greener pastures and by more refreshing waters than we have yet known.
