RECEPTION DAYS

Mrs. J. Grant Miller will not receive until the 3rd Wednesday in January. Mrs. Platt left today for a lengthy visit to her sister, Mrs. Lorne McGibbons, who will be present at the Governor's wedding which takes place very soon. Miss Governor made many friends in Medicine Hat last fall.

Mrs. J. H. Dunlop, 117 Toronto St., will not receive until the 14th of January. Mrs. John Lyle, 199 Balmoral St., will receive Friday of this week and the second Friday of each month following.

Mrs. Wallock entertained on Tuesday afternoon of last week from 4 to 7, in honor of Mrs. Platt. Mrs. Wallock received at the entrance to the drawing room, looking exceedingly well in a black dress with transparent yoke. Mrs. Platt wore white with touches of Dresden ribbon and carried an American Beauty rose. It was a library party. Mrs. Hooper won the first prize, "The Fruit of the Tree," and Mrs. Widdells the second. The winners were Mrs. Pingle, Miss McCullum, Miss Wood and Miss Kraus. On Wednesday Mrs. Wallock entertained her guests with "Delicacies." On this occasion Mrs. Smith carried off first prize, a vase, and Mrs. Grant, second, a topaz hat pin.

Watch cur Christmas Jewellery

Sale. It includes even the small trinkets as well as the most elaborate ornaments. Maybe you think Christmas is too early to give Jewellery. Well, it's not too early to buy anyway. In fact, wise people know that it is much better to take an interest in vigorous and trying to grow mind and spirit, but I want you to be able to look after her and protect her. "Yes, father," said the boy, grudgingly. "Then why don't you do as I say. Don't you like outdoor sports?"

It's The Unexpected

That's been in a woman's mind since she was a girl. A clever collection of prices cannot well be imagined. Our cases and jars, boxes, attempting delicacies, which would what an epicure's appetite. More words and glances cannot describe what appeals directly and exclusively to the taste. The banquet is ready; don't stay away from the feast.
