STU SRC "pitiful"

Dear Editor:

It was pitiful beyond tears to behold the site of Tuesday's STU Council Meeting. The occasion was the debate on motions calling for the resignations of Mr. A. Debly, Comptroller, and Mr. S. Beckingham, STU Student President.

According to the constitution, a councillor, furthermore a president, can only be called on to resign when dereliction of duty occurs. In this case, total disregard for constitutional procedure was evident. The majority of council was clearly opposed to Mr. Debly expressing his opinions in public. Furthermore, most councillors did not appreciate Mr. Debly's participation on CAUSE, because it did not comply with their perception of what was in the interest of the students.

Having taken it upon themselves to stifle any voice of opposition, the councillors clearly had no intention of listening to anyone's defense of Mr. Debly. A number of them objected to allowing speakers who wished to address the issue from a more objective point of view. When some points of defense were finally presented, they were continually interrupted and disrupted by several members of council. Numerous comments such as "Let's get this over with!" persuaded the observers that most councillors had already made up their minds before the 'trail' and were not willing to entertain dissenting points of view which could interfere with what appeared as a Kangaroo Court, Mr. Debly's purge was 'a fait accompli' before his defense had even started.

I understand that Mr. Debly is planning to run in the upcoming (sic) elections and that he is looking to a mass student support in vindication for his previously impeccable performance. The Student Party has already declared that it is backing Mr. Debly's candidacy.

On campaign trail '82

Dear Editor:

At this time I would like to announce that I intend to run for the open seat as a business rep in the upcoming elections slated for February 17, 1982.

To let the business students more aware of the name that they will see at the poles (sic) (obviously mine), I will tell them a little about what I've done in the way of student politics and why I would like to run for this seat.

Firstly, my experience in UNB student politics is very limited. I do however realize that my main goal is to provide the students of this campus their fair share. By this I mean that my main priority for run-ing in this election is to attempt to make sure that our student government is trying to do its best for the students. Another main aim of mine is to make sure that the student apathy that now exists on this campus be reduced if at all possible. To reduce this student apathy I suggest that any business student or indeed any student in general, if indeed I do succeed in getting in, come to me with any grievances you have whatsoever.

I sincerely hope that you consider me when you make this important decision.

And on a closing note I would like to congratulate the Brunswickan on implementing the new "Reaction" article by Mr. John Bosnitch. I must admit Mr. Bosnitch at times has an unorthodox way of presenting issues however I believe his intentions are quite good. I would suggest to you that you retain his column as it tends to give a flare much needed in this newspaper at certain times. These such times are many of late and Mr. Bosnitch only tries to relate to the students his side of the story. People like him are needed and although he may not be well liked he is well respected for his efforts.

My last remark is a remark in which I say to our SRC Executive. Keep going, let's stay clean this year. I know you can do the job and I have complete faith in the 4 at the front of the room!

Good luck and I hope to be able to work with all the members of the council toward a common goal.

Thank you.

By HUNTER S. THOMPSON and RACUL DUKE

Well, back again for another attempt at Gonzo Journalism. Yes, it is time for that twisted attempt to infuriate the powers that be. The farce known as the UNB SRC is making life interesting, to say the least. It is disillusioning to watch the Dr. Pepper Dance Troupe (the executive) go through the motions of fair play. We've started munching librium early in the morning, and it seems to dull even the most obvious inconsistencies in the SRC.

Maybe if everybody at UNB could have librium in the morning, we could tolerate our president's Gerard's ravings. Picture this scenario: armed white shirts patrolling campus, blaring loudspeakers spewing catch phrases such as 'Let's start some new traditions.' All the while, Gerard broods on his throne, and V.P Lynch screams over a microphone, 'Happy hour is now enforced. Please have a librium. Our brown shirts will now be passing out SRC screwdrivers-consisting of one part vodka, one part O.J. and two parts formaldehyde taken from the president's brain, which is kept in a shoe box out back. . . ' As it is, we'll just have to tolerate reality such as it is. Please pass the ether. . .

Alright, now that we are back to a level of pseudocoherency, let's assume that you have seen the brand new 1981 Orientation Report. It's new and improved, and it washes better than any new detergent. We have ours lining the cage of our pet condor. What's done is done, the report has been accepted, and what really happened in Orientation '81 will remain a mystery to us all. So where is Mr. Dave Campbell when we need someone to kick some ass?

And for those of you who are addicted to the lines of moula, our peerless prediction on the NBA all stats: (Drumroll Maestro!) We take the west and three points, for those of you who wish to finance mother's operation -call y-o-g-i and ask for dekie. Only serious peons need call. Reports have it that Veep George Bush will be giving a mumbling benefit at halftime for the support of high school of diplomacy (Andrew Young; Dean). Anything has to be an improvement over Brent Musburger.

As you may have surmised our Super Bowl prediction play worked beyond our wildest expectations. The spread went crazy when we hit the stands. We've put the cash in Kraggerands and the commodities in an attache.

Notes from Rumourville. . .

There seems to be a resurgence of brownshirts on campus, and they seem to be forming a political party of some sort. This must be the time to announce the formation of a counter party. All those interested in joining the Freak Party and Librium Consortium can write to the Bruns, c/o Freak Power. . .

Also, some of you may have noticed that deficit in orientation has been reduced. Rumour has it that within three weeks it will show a profit of $4,000.00 and controlling shares in I.B.M. . . Gosh, those good old comptrollers, they sure know how to turn a figure nice, huh?

And finally, appearing as a guest lecturer at the next SRC meeting will be John McLaughlin. 'nough said.

Solidarity supported

Dear Editor:

Among the first actions of the newly elected executive of the Student Party, was a declaration in support of the fledgling Solidarnosc Support Committee. The purpose of the SSC is to promote the cause of the Polish people by exposing the public to the fact behind the repression in Poland.

The Solidarnosc Support

Committee is selling pins with the Solidarnosc Logo. These are available for 50 cents and all proceeds shall be sent directly to the Solidarnosc Union. January 30 has recently been declared an international day of support for the Polish People. All major western leaders are participating in speeches, rallies and television specials aimed at restoring freedom in Poland.
