Dear Mrs. Mackenzie King,

Thank you very much indeed for the books which you have sent me. I have not had time at present to do more than dip into them, as I am busy writing a book of my own in this pleasantly remote part of Yorkshire. I promise myself, however, much enjoyment by reading them on my return to town to-morrow.

I was very glad indeed to have the pleasure of meeting you; and I hope you will let me know if you are in the country again, or want some piece of information about our clumps.

yours sincerely

W. L. Mackenzie King
