OTTAWA, Ontario,
April 27th, 1933.

Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen, K.C., LL.D.,
Leader of the Government in the Senate,
The Senate,
O T T A W A.

Dear Senator Meighen,-

I am not going to throw a bouquet of flowers at you this morning for your presence at the "party" last night at the Ottawa University, as your facetious remarks, coupled with a profundity of thought, so overshadowed my little speech that I now regret that the Rector invited you to attend. Take warning, that the next bouquet of flowers I shall throw at you will contain a brick. However, I believe from all I can hear from all sides to-day, that it was a wonderful success and that, of course, is due to the broadminded men who attended irrespective of politics, nationality, or religion.

May I remind you that in future you may address me as Doctor, and I believe that degree covers all classes of medical science including that of vacant upper stories, and it would be beyond my dignity to inform certain Honourable Members which you must necessarily see when you rise in the Chamber, as to my new calling. Of course, I intend having a special department for the unfortunates coming under that category.

With kind personal regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

Senator.
