

In view of these facts the Department considers that all that can be done at present is to warn the chief that, unless he tries to work more harmoniously with the Overseer, a recommendation may be made for his deposal on the ground of incompetency.

Your obedient servant,

Secretary.