Ottawa ,1st March, 1905.

Sir,

I am in receipt of your letter of the 6th instant, reporting that you have received an account ~~from xxx~~ for $73.36 from F. Burnet against Daniel Cowie of Rice Lake Band for material supplied the latter to build a barn on his location; and in reply I note that you say you were instructed by the Department to give Cowie an order on Burnet for the lumber, the account to be paid in work, etc. The Department desires that you will quote the date and File No of the letter to which you refer.

Your obedient servant.

Secretary.
