

Q.120 Was he in the car when you got in?

A.120 I remember seeing him there, that's all.

Q.121 Did the driver stay with you all during the journey.

A.121 Yes.

Q.122 Who gave him instructions?

A.122 I think Col. Coombs.

Q.123 If there was a driver and Mr. Corbett in the front seat, Crouch would have to be there also if she weren't in the back seat?

A.123 Yes.

Q.124 So there would be three in the front and two in the back. Do you remember that?

A.124 It seems to me there was sometime when that occurred but I don't remember when?

Q.125 Yesterday you said "We all got out of the car, Col. Coombs, Lieut. Corbett, Crouch and myself." Did you also say yesterday that you and Miss Crouch and Corbett went in the House ahead of Col. Coombs.

A.125 No.

Q.126 You all went in together?

A.126 Yes, as far as I know.

Q.127 If Crouch thought that you, Lieut. Corbett and she went in together and Col. Coombs came in after, what would you say?

A.127 It may have been right.

Q.128 You don't remember anything after you went into the bath-room, you may have taken off your clothes yourself?

A.128 I might have, but I wouldn't have hung them up.

Q.129 Crouch was alone when you saw her last that night?

A.129 Crouch came into the bathroom the last time I saw her that night.

Q.130 Was she alone when you saw her in the morning?

A.130 Yes Sir.

Q.131 You say Col. Coombs and Lieut. Corbett came into the bed-room with you and Crouch in the morning and Crouch says that Mr. Corbett woke her up in the morning?

A.131 When I went in to Crouch she was up and dressed.

Q.132 Did she indicate that Mr. Corbett had wakened her?

A.132 I don't remember.

Q.133 Anybody wake you up? You woke up yourself?

A.133 I woke up myself.

Q.134 When Crouch, Corbett and yourself were in the car and the
