

PART II.—Systematic Cartography of New Brunswick... ..	324
Type No. 1. The Pre-Differentiation Type, 1500 to 1534... ..	327
Type No. 2. The Cartier Type, 1534 to 1604.	335
Type No. 3. The Champlain Type, 1612 (1609) to 1703.	348
Type No. 4. The Delisle Type, 1703 to 1744.	361
Type No. 5. The Bellin Type, 1744 to about 1770.	371
Type No. 6. The Modern Type, About 1770 to 1820	385
Type No. 7. The Complete Type, 1820 to the Present.	399
Type No. 8. The Exact Type.	406
PART III.—A Classified List of the Principal Maps Showing New Brunswick or Portions of it.	408
APPENDIX.—Sources of Information.	423
Bibliography.	426

4. A MONOGRAPH OF HISTORIC SITES IN THE PROVINCE OF NEW BRUNSWICK. Vol. V, 1899, pages 213-357.

Introduction.	213
I.—The Prehistoric (Indian) Period.	217
1. The Distribution of the Indian Tribes.	217
2. Indian Villages and Camping Grounds.	218
3. Indian Routes of Travel in New Brunswick.	233
II.—The Period of Exploration.	259
1. Routes of Cartier and of Champlain.	259
III.—The Acadian Period.	262
1. Settlements and Forts.	262
2. Seigniories.	302
IV.—The English Period.	320
A. Settlements and Forts.	323
2. The Township and Other Grants.	331
V.—The Loyalist Period.	336
1. The Loyalist Grants and Settlements	336
2. The Loyalist Boundaries.	344
VI.—The Post-Loyalist Period.	345
APPENDIX. Sources of Information.	351
Bibliography and Cartography.	354
Addenda	357

5. A MONOGRAPH OF THE EVOLUTION OF THE BOUNDARIES OF THE PROVINCE OF NEW BRUNSWICK. Vol. VII, 1901, pages 139-449.

Introduction.	141
A. The Personal Equation in Boundary Studies.	141
B. The Relation Existing between Boundaries and History.	143
C. Sources of Information in the Study of Boundary Evolution	143
D. The Kinds of Boundaries, and their purposes.	144
E. The Physiographic Basis for Natural Boundaries in New Brunswick.	149
F. Upon Boundary Disputes.	151
The Indian Period.	153
The Period of Discovery and Exploration. Down to 1606.	155
The Acadian Period.	164