SCISSOR-INK TURNS.

A roasted chestnut—"Is it not enough for you?"

Teacher in grammar recitation—"I didn't have no fun at the sea-side. How would you correct this, Johnny?" Johnny—"Get a feller."

The new baby had proved itself the possessor of extraordinary vocal powers, and had exercised them much to Johnny's annoyance. One day he said to his mother: "Ma, little brother came from heaven, didn't he?" "Yes, dear." Johnny was silent for some time, and then said: "Say, ma?" "What is it, Johnny?" "I don't blame the angels for bouncing him, do you?"

I have been troubled with dyspepsia and headache for a long time, without being able to get relief. Hearing of so many persons (similarly afflicted) receiving a cure by the use of Burdock Blood Bitters, I made up my mind to try it, and the result is, I am better than I have been for years. I cheerfully recommend Burdock Blood Bitters to all sufferers from dyspepsia, in its most extreme forms.

MRS. LOUIS CRIST,

March 8, 1886. Bascom, Seneca Co., Ohio.

An Illinois hen lays two eggs every day except Sundays. On Sundays she lays off.

"That's what beats me," said the boy when he saw his father take a skatestrap down from its accustomed nail.

While the Union troops were marching through a Maryland town during Lee's invasion, some of the stragglers broke into a bakery, and, as one of them issued forth bearing a loaf of bread on a bayonet, an Irish soldier cried out: "Liftinint! liftinint! be jabbers, there goes a man with the staff of life on the point of death!"

In the spring I was troubled with Headache and sour stomach. Two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters entirely cured me.

J. H. ZETWAL,

Sept. 8, 1885. 17 Main St., Allegheny, Pa.

Most of the time in hot water—The washerwoman.

A little four-year-old fellow had a piece of cake given to him which he enjoyed very much, asking what kind of cake it was. On being told the name of it was "gopher cake," in a moment he roguishly remarked, "Well, I guess I'll go for some more."

There is nothing that makes a young man who has been married about a year feel so lonely and sad as to go to the store where there is a girl to whom he used to be attentive and ask her to show him some baby carriages.

Bridegroom from the country, after reading the sign, "Ice cream, $1.00 a gal." "Dollar a gal! Laws, if they charge ez much fur a feller ez they do fur a gal, Sue, we'd better let ice cream slide, an' stick ter lem'nade."
