

INSURANCE PHILANTHROPY.—F. H. Cooper, of Chicago, is reported as having secured a $200,000 life insurance policy made payable to John Mitchell and other trustees. Mr. Cooper desires to establish by means of this insurance a perpetual trust for the support of the aged people in his native town, Akkrum, Holland. While abroad last year, visiting his father, now over ninety years of age, Mr. Cooper promised him he would make this provision for his aged friends and acquaintances and others, who may, through sickness or other misfortune, be unable to provide the necessary comforts for a peaceful old age. Mr. Cooper intends to visit Holland this summer and purchase a piece of property near Akkrum for this purpose.
