MY OWN MANUFACTURE ALIVE BOLLARD New Store 128 Youge St. Old Store 199 Youge St.

VOL. XIII., No. 39

NTO, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1905

PRICE FIVE CENT

TOPICS OF AN OLD-TIMER

Old-Timer Visits Hamilton After an Ab-

Old-Timer treated mimself to an ex- and they absconded. cursion to Hamilton last week and made much joy of the event. Reviving old memories, viewing old landscenes of one's boyhood days, are acts And to me this was an altogether sentimental journey. It was so long since I had lived in Hamthat I had little expectation of meeting anyone I knew in the days of old. There was a bare possibility of my meeting an old printer or two. whose names and faces might be familiar to me; but I had little expectation of so doing. I calculated, however, that the recent publication of my Hamilton recollections in the 'Register' and their republication in the "Daily Herald" would be of service to me, and I was not mistaken.

My trip was by "Turbinia" and this expedited my journey. I do not remember the exact distance between Toronto and Hamilton. It used, I think, to be over forty miles in old times when the boats used to call at all the way places, such as Oakville and Bronte; but it is several miles less now, when no way stops are made. At any rate the time tasby the trip was about two-anda-half hours. A beautiful waterwalker is the "Turbinia," claimed to be the swiftest fresh water sailer but it is now ornamented with flowin the world, without any rocking or er gardens. Why King street was rolling or mal de mer. But what a laid out with a gore in it is somehig battery of boilers that vessel has thing I never learned and "Charley" to be sure! No wonder she is fast. Durand, who knew everything about The day was not exactly a dia-old Hamilton, does not tell it. One mond, but bright enough to make a fithe principal structures on King street east is the "Waldorf" Hotel, that were new to me, such as factories and preserving houses, were visible, and marked progress; progress material and industrial, as well caux, on the north side of Kingas financial.

There was the same old landing place at the foot of John street-the Clay wharf, was it? No, that was further east, but what used to be Gunn's wharf, I think. time and other scenes deaden mem- I may do this at another time. I ory! There used to be a square, was not surprised at the advances four-story building on the top of the the "Ambitious" City has made. Inhill that in other and earlier days deed I expected greater. The boundwas used for a soldiers' barracks. It aries, however, have extended far and used to be a striking object when wide and the population has increasthe lower portion of the city was ed from 3,000 or 4,000, what it was merely a commons! It is yet there, but seems to be reconstructed and devoted to other and more desirable purposes. I was disappointed at the appearance of Hamilton's harbor. It The same old mountain looks familiar, but it is not yet taking a "bird's eye view" from that topped off with the palaces of the famous locality of the city below

Christ's Church on James street, as you advance to the heart of the city, a handsome edifice in early days, but it is replaced by another edifice-the Protestant Cathedral. Knox's Presbyterian Church is on a prominent corner on the same street, but evidently has undergone some architectural changes for the better The old market-house and town half, whose erection was superintended by Charles Durand, when town clerk, of old, is replaced by a much superior structure in the upper part of which are located the various city offices. There are additional buildings for various market purposes and on a good market day are abundantly supplied, as they were when I took a look at them, and I then thought of FURRIERS PERSIAN LAMB Persian Lamb Jackets will be as popular this season as heretoore. We have anticipated an unusually big demand by making heavy purchases of skins direct, and have already prepared for the show-cases some three hundred beautiful designs of Jackets. Besides this we are prepared to handle your order t once for one made to your neasure. Write for Catalogue.

LINA 3

the abundant times when apples and potatoes were sold there for a York

The old engine house on King William street is supplemented with a tall tower. It is of brick and when sence of more than Fifty Years- first erected was used for town or Scenes of His Boyhood Recalled police board meetings, town prison, and engine house. The date of its Did the First Touch of Work on the original erection was 1835, and its "Spectator," the Oldest Paper in reconstruction 1883. Hamilton has now a much more imposing stone samilton-"Billy" Cliff, a Compan- court-house and jail than when ion of his Boyhood, visited-"Dan" went away, and is the third on the same spot, the first one having McCarthy, an Old Toronto Friend, been built of logs. The post office is -Mrs. Bird and the Brick Family, a fine, roomy building and is located -Who Built the First Catholic on the south side of King street at the southwest corner of John street. Church - John Nelligan, Son of Cap- The first hotel in Hamilton, which tain Nelligan, an Old Friend- Den- was kept by a man named Carey, was on this corner, but not occupy nis Nelligan and Leonard the Twin ing so much space. It was subse quently changed into stores and at the time of the rebellion in 1837, its occupants were accused of treason

Of churches there are now many. marks and observing changes in the Instead of the ore little roughcast the youngest and up-to-date. Catholic church, in the times of Vithat are sacred to a man of senti- car-Generals Macdonell and Gordon, city to be proud of there is a fine Cathedral, and three belong to the old school of journals, other substantial parish churches, which passed away with the Smiths, and one new one building. I am told the Bulls and the Bregas. For specthe first church was burned down, tacular purposes the writer might through the work of an incendiary, with some assurance claim to take The old brick Methohist church on a foremost rank among the men that is one of the oldest. In my boyhood did the first touch of work that was days someone in that neighborhood done on any of them in the year was the owner of a billy-goat that 1846, when "The Spectator" was isused to persist in escorting ladies sued first as a semi-weekly journal, for the length of a block to and by the late Robert Smiley. It was from that church. Why his attentions were not summarily suppressed | cond in Upper Canada. The first was by the town authorities I never the "British Whig" of Kingston, from learned. But the oldest church edi- which Mr. Smiley graduated. I wonfice in Hamilton is the one down on dered much if I could find one of my King street east, at Wellington old-time associates of the "art prestreet. It belongs to the Methodist persuasion. I do not know but what Hamilton of to-day. But I did not the first hotel was in the same locality; but there is no sign of a hotel "old boy" of "The Times" if I there now: "Tam" F. Lennox, a seen Mr. William H. Cliff? Scotch actor, who took a fancy to was a name that was dear to me, Hamilton, once kept that hotel, and for Mr. Cliff was one of my boyhood "Tam" advertised "dishes in Scots companions in the early forties. and Paris styles.

The "Gore" is still the "Gore," was charming. Many objects which was formerly the "Anglo-American. The best hotel in Hamilton in the forties was the Royal Exchange, kept by one Nelson Dever- ailments that beset humanity. street, nearly 'opposite the Waldorff, or rather where that fine hostelry is

> I did not take up my pen this time, however, to write a descrip-But how tion of Hamilton and its institutions. famous "Burlington Heights, shilling or 121 cents, per bushel!

when I first knew it, to about 60,000 -its present enumeration. 'mountain," which is table-land, is considered the health resort, and on it is located the Lunatic Asylum. McCarthy, formerly of Toronto, an I had the pleasure of climbing it and and Dundas in its nest. heard it stated that General Simcoe, the first Governor of Upper Canada, was a Yorkshireman, gave many places names borrowed from that celebrated shire, includ-York, now Toronto; Burlington Heights, now Hamilton; Saltfleet, Scarboro; Ancaster, etc. And, by the to. Mr. Mc has three daughters live

THE ONE PIANO

That's the expression used by the greatest musicians to mark

the exclusive place held by the Heintzman & Co.

PIANO

Ye Olde Firme of Heintz-

man & Co.

For over fifty years we have been perfecting of this great piano.

BRANCH

OFFICES

giving experience and study to the

PianoSalon : 115-117 King St. W., Toronto

ABSOLUTELY

SAFE

PERMANENT CANADA

MORTGAGE CORPORATION HALF A CENTURY OF UNRIVALLED SUCCESS.

With Assets exceeding TWENTY-FOUR MILLION DOLLARS; with Capital and Surplus mounting to more than EIGHT MILLION DOLLARS; an unequalled experience and concervatively managed by Directors and Officers whose characters and business standing are in hemselves perfect guarantee that your money is safe.

Three and One-Half Per Cent, compounded half-yearly, is paid on Deposit Accounts large or small sums. Dollar deposits welcome. Send for pamphlet containing lest Annual Report. Financial Statement, etc.

In visiting Hamilton I had some especially its newspaper press. Hamilton has three first-class daily newspapers, all published in the evening. They are "The Spectator." oldest; "The Times," the second point of time; and "The Herald," form a group for a growing young None of them John street is still standing. This publish those great journals, for he servative" alive and well in wonder long, for I was asked by an found him hale and hearty in his 79th year, and outdistancing all competitors in the race of years. This diswas exceedingly gratifying covery to "Old-Timer," as he supposed triend long since dead, as he heard nothing of him for more than The Hamilton Bricks and the Fitzfifty years. He had been lately employed on the "Spectator," but had retired not very long since. His residence is with his daughter and 1840. The Bricks, led by their fason-in-law at 230 Herkimer street, where he enjoys his old age without from the pangs of rheumatism or other an exceedingly enjoyable visit to the editorial rooms as well as the me-

I must not forget a visit I paid to that prince of good fellows, Daniel old friend of mine, and who has host of friends here. Mr. McCarthy wears a white halo like myself, but surrounding country, including is hearty. He is an officer of Asylum, and climbs the rugged stairs to the mountain's top every day, to where the institution is situated, to the performance of his official duties. Mr. McCarthy has been connected with this institution for more than twenty years, and is well thought of, though not circulating so freely among friends as formerly in Toronway, Dundas and Ancaster, were once ing with him, and one son, a bright the examination of our fine new Catalogue if you have any notion whatever of a College course. It explains all about our modern methods and work which make our graduates so successful in getting the best positions going.

DON'T MISS

A post card will bring it to you, and we believe it will prompt you to take the most successful step of your life. Will you write that post card and address it

CENTRAL BUSINESS COLLEGE &

Yonge and Gerrard Sts.

TORONTO, - ONT.

W. H. SHAW, . . Principal 2

426; Yonge Street—Telephone Main 3298
572 Queen Street West—Telephone Main 139
304 Queen Street Bast—Telephone Main 134
429 Spadina Avenue—Telephone Main 2110
1312 Queen Street West—Telephone Park 711
274 College Street—Telephone North 1179
324; Queen Street West—Telephone Main 1409

ting the best positions going.

chanical departments of the various

will not permit me to individualise

in this article to any extent, but my obligations are due to Messrs. J. L.

Lewis, the editor of the 'Herald.

and Mr. David Hastings, the city editor of the same paper; Mr. Cameron,

Allan, foreman of the composing room, and Mr. James R. Allan of the business office; also Mr. Geo. M.

Bagwell and others of the "Times."

the editor of the "Spectator," consideration and kindness.

where I was treated with places of much more importance than I young gentleman, who is chief clerk Hamilton; but they are seldom heard at the Waldorf Hotel. Two sons of of away from home at the present his are connected with the Collier's Weekly publication house in New I had the pleasure of being York. Mr. McCarthy's guest during a part of the time of my Hamilton visit. old-time claims upon it, but more His private residence is at 215 Main printing trade in the '40s come togestreet west, which is on a rise of ground that was familiar to me in the long ago and close to the resi- Cliff. now a veteran of 78 dence of the Hon. Sam Mills when learned the printer's trade in Hamilalive. He and his family attend St.

Joseph's church. Walking down King street west one morning as I did many a time in the long ago, I was overtaken by Mr. J. L. Lewis, editor of the "Herald." who informed me he had a letter for a lady, who had seen a notice of my presence in the city in one of the paover old times. She gave her address as 56 Walnut street. Walnut street was familiar enough to me be-The locality was a neighborhood where I once resided and anticipated meeting some long forgotten friend. I was not disappointed. She was Mrs. C. J. Bird, a daughter of the late John Brick, a former city assessor. I had a most kindly reception from the lady, her husband, and grown-up son, a bright young This Jorality, be it remembered, was a choice part of old "Corktown," which was the Irish quarter. Bricks were great people Hamilton in the olden days. were among the pioneer Irish settlers, and there were four brothers of them besides the father and several sisters. Brick is a peculiar name ther, John Brick, came to Canada city in 1846: Robert Smiley ed and liberal men. Old Timer re-Before Hamilton was incorporated as la city Timothy Brick was one of the town board. John Brick was city man. Twenty years ago or more Thomas Brick was an alderman of the city, and to-day John Brick, brother of Mrs. Bird, is a city collector, whose acquaintance had the pleasure of making. Mrs. has some interesting reminiscenses well acquainted with "Mike" Mills. brother of Hon. Samuel Mills, who was a leader in that ill-starred enterprise. She gave me the interesting information when I informed her of one of my old Hamilton homes, that I had lived on historic ground, for that was the old Mills homestead, situated on Cherry and Tyburn streets, within an orchard which has ong since made way for homes. To Mrs. Bird's reminiscenses were highly interesting and edifying, and her and her husband's kindness and Another acquaintance made that great pleasure was that of was Captain Nelligan mander of a lake vessel, who lost his the foundering of his ship. The date of this sad event I cannot now give. Mr. Nelligan was delighted when he learned that I knew not only his father, but also his mother and his mother's family, the Kileys. They were County Waterford people from the charming locality of the river Blackwater-I think from Tallow. This is a hallowed region, made famous by such great names as those of Sir Walter Raleigh, the poet Spencer, the Countess of Desmond, who lived to be 140 years. the great Earl of Cork, Robert Boyle, the father of modern chemistry; Gen. Kean, and many other notables too numerous to mention. Mr. Nelligan is a young man of varied attainments, which include music and the drama. I was very happy to meet him on account of the associations his connexions called up. There was another Nelligan in Hamilton in the early days that this incident minds me of. He was a hotel-keeper and was no relation to Captain Hamilton. He was also a barrister and a native of the same town in that Dennis Nelligan came "I know that man," said he "and I am going to see I happened to be at the green room door when Denis Nelligan called to see his ownsman of the old theatre at the corner of Rebekah and Catherine streets. When they met the one exclaimed "Leonard!" the other 'Nelligan!" and threw their arms around each ether in a fond embrace.

The following copied from the of an incident of my late visit, I presume written by Mr. Butler, American consul, and one of the three old printers mentioned:

"It does not often occur in this life that three old boys who learned the ther after a lapse of over half century. Early in the '40s William ton under Solomon Brega, then the editor of the Journal and Express. At the same time William Halley, now 74, was an apprentice in Ro Richard Butler. bertson's job office. now 71, took his first lessons in a Montreal printing office in 1846 and from 1848 to 1850 worked in London on the Free Press and Protome. It contained an invitation from type, and came to Hamilton in 1850 and worked on the Journal and afterwards on the Christian Advocate. pers to favor her with a call to talk Halley left Hamilton in 1849 and moved to Toronto, and early in the '50s came back here as resident agent for a Montreal type foundry. It has fore "the days of '49," when I left been more than half a century since Hamilton, but I did not know the he finally left Hamilton, and last Tuesday was his first visit back to Neither Cliff nor Butler this city. had met Halley in all those years. and the reunion that took place in the American consul's office was pleasant to the trio. The old days were lived over again for a brief hour. Names of printers who worked at case and hand-press, now long forgotten, were recalled. Tom Mc-Namara, Mick Sweetman, Teddy Pow-Big Franks, John Robertson, Bob Gay, John Christian-"There were giants in those days." What memories those names recalled, and many a story was told. The three but it is not unknown to history. ten mile post in the journey of life ed secretary. Twenty-one priests beand that at no remote day their came members. Meetings will be patricks built the first Catholic last proof would be corrected and held monthly. place of worship in Hamilton, which revised. William Halley told an inwas dedicated to divine worship in teresting bit of history as to how cultivate the singing of the Gregorwas foreman of a department in the gov-The sons were Timothy, John, ernment printing office in Montreal, ing of pieces in harmonized Patrick and Robert. They were ar and hearing that there was a good and the special study of the form chitects and builders, and enlighten- opening for a Tory paper in this of Gregorian chant, the Solesmes, city, he came up to look the field prescribed by the Sovereign Pontiff. members them well and liked them over. There was already one Tory paper, the Gazette, but Mr. Bull, its editor, was a mild gentleman who wrote pleasant editorial paragraphs. tax-collector and a very popular The progressive Tories were belligerent and wanted a fighting editor, and Robert Smiley filled the bill. He had but little money and the party was not in a contributing spirit, so the outlook was not very Bird Two brothers in Toronto had brought an outfit of printing material and of rebellion days, as her father was were preparing to publish a Reform paper, but they had a disagreement when the type for the first side of the first number was ready for the press. The paper was never printed, and as they wanted to close up the business Smiley leased the material and brought it to Hamilton, after-"Bill" Halley was wards buying it. a boy in John Robertson's job office, and as Robertson took the foremanship of the Spectator, Halley went with him and helped to get out the The Spectator was first number. successful from the start and made hospitality I shall not readily formoney for its owner. Inside of ten years Mr. Smiley had a fine printing office, machine presses and a bindery, and he owned the building on the corner of Hughson and Main streets, which he occupied as an office, and built Smiley Castle out in the middle of a field. The castle is now the residence of T. H. Pratt. He also bought a woolen mill in Ancaster,

BURNING OIL Rivals the Sun

Canadian Oil Co.

2-12 Strachan Avenue

ORDER YOUR COAL NOW

THE IMPERIAL COAL CO.

1129 YONGE ST. Telephone North 2082

N. MURPHY

comedian named Leonard visited ARCHBISHOP BRUCHESI AND THE PRINCE

Courtesies Between Church and State

(From the Montreal La Presse.) "It is our duty to lay stress on the happy result of the princely visit which Montreal is just now honor-"Saturday Musings" page of the ed. What took place between his Hamilton "Spectator" is descriptive Grace the Archbishop of Montreal and the Prince of Battenberg is of a nature to give great satisfaction to the Catholics of the province, and we may be allowed to take this opportunity to state that Archbishop Bruchesi, without any effort whatever, and merely through good education and the public spirit marking his whole apostolic career, has earned the respect and consideration of the Engish and Protestant community. believe that such happy results constitute for us all an undeniable force. With his usual tact, His Grace asked at what hour the Prince could receive The prompt reply of the Prince that he would himself go first make a visit to our Archbishop touches us very deeply. Such cordial relations between Catholics and Protestants, between English and French Canadians, show the future in quite new colors. Are we, at last, going to be considered, without discussion or suspicion, as peaceful, loyal and sincere subjects of His Majesty We never wished for anything else, but we have seldom secured it in this country. It requires testimonials coming from high quarters to destroy prejudices that have no reason to exist and which sometimes prevent the efficiency of our patriotic efforts and ambition to contribute to the progress of our coun-

The Buffalo Schola Cantorum

At a recent meeting held in Buffalo the Schola Cantorum for the diocese was formed. The meeting was called with the approval of Bishop Colton, old boys forgot for the hour that by Rt. Rev. Mgr. Lanigan, and they had passed the three score and Rev. Jas. A. McGloin was appoint-

The object of the organization is to the Spectator was started in this ian chant among the clergy of the diocese, to learn special occasions, the learn-

Accident at Church Building

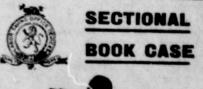

Charles Otis and Ulric Barette, employes of the Dominion Bridge Company, were killed on the 19th inst. the collapse of the scaffolding while working on the Catholic church at St. Cunegonde, near Montreal. A third workman sustained injuries from which it is not expected he will

Death of Rev. Father Bacon

Quebec, Sept. 23 .- Rev. Father Bacon, cure of L'Islet, died on Thursday afternoon at the presbytery in that parish. He was sixty years of age, and had previously held charges at Berthier. Notre Dame de Laterriere, Saguenay, and was prefect of studies at the College of Ste. Anne.

and was on the top wave of prosperity when consumption ended his car-Robert Smiley died in 1855. eleven years after coming to Hamil-1846 he was not worth When he died he left a good estate to be divided between wife and two brothers. His heirs frittered everything away, and the building on the corner of Hughson and Main streets was recently sold under mortgage. Mr. Halley is writing some very interesting reminiscences of old times in Hamilton for the Catholic Register. He carries well his 74 years, and is as bright and chipper as in the old days.

The latter assertion, unfortunately, is not quite correct, as I have been an invalid for more than a year. WILLIAM HALLEY.

One Section $3.00

Every home should have our Sectional Book Case. Keeps your books, keeps your temper in check, keeps your house tidy. Write for Catalogue to day.

THE OFFICE SPECIALTY MFG. CO. 97-105 Wellington St. W. TORONTO

FACTORIES: NEWMARKET.

Nelligan, the father of this friend. Toronto Once upon a time a noted Irish ESTABLISHED 1856 CELEBRATED LEHIGH VALLEY COAL P. BURNS & CO. COAL AND WOOD MERCHANTS 44 KING STREET EAST TOronto. Can. And take advantage of Summer Long Distance Telephones Main 131 and 132 Rates PRINCESS STREET DOCK Telephone Main 190 CORNER FRONT AND BATHURST STS. Telephone Main 449