WM. GRAINGER & SON'S SHORTHORNS.

Approaching the residence of Mr. Wm. Grainger & Son, Londonboro, Ont., we saw well-marked signs of improvement going on around the already extensive buildings at Londonboro, and as we arrived the crowds of people assembled doing justice at the heavily laden tables arranged on the lawn soon convinced us that this was the occasion of a barn-raising, which Mr. Grainger had previously told us of, and from what we saw of the structure we will feel disappointed indeed if at its completion we do not find one of the most modern equipped breeding establishments in the Province. Everything has been well considered in the designing, and nothing for comfort, health or convenience has been overlooked. From the good-natured, jolly crowd of neighbors, we are certain of the esteem in which Mr. Grainger and his enterprising son are held in that beautiful section of country. After tea we were in right humor to appreciate the merits of the herd we came to visit, which now number some 30 or more animals, the origin of which was the worthy cow (of national repute) 2nd Fairmaid of Atha, by Proud Duke, and out of Fairmaid of Atha. The females of the family have been retained, and bred from time to time to such sires as Lord Stanley, Prince of Strathallan, Evergreen Prince 3188, Britannia Duke 10th 9776, Truce Bearer 15335, Waterloo Duke 24th 12280, Golden Nugget 17548, and to-day Beau Ideal 23554, the worthy son of Sittytton Stamp (Imp.) 18963 (66368), and out of imported Bessie Lass 24824, by Banner Bearer 49034, is doing service in the herd. He is now three past, and apart from what we have previously said of him, we wish to add that he has improved beyond our expectations. He is a low-set, thick, evenly-fleshed animal, with his full share of quality, especially in the region of the loins, and carries his substance through in a remarkable manner, his calves coming in deep reds and roans. Judging by what is learned from the owners of his dam, they should possess extraordinary dairy qualities, and do much to maintain that quality so strongly established in the Fairmaid family. The Fairmaid females are in all the bloom they promised a year ago, and have yielded another crop of calves. Notably among them we saw the two-year-old Kitty Clay, by Golden Nugget, and out of Red Britannia (a daughter of the World's Fair dairy test cow), which promises to develop into one of the very best cows ever raised on this farm. She was bred to Beau Ideal to calve in the fall, and from the ancestral records much may be reasonably expected of her. Of equal quality and equally well advanced is the yearling Red Britannia 2nd, by Beau Ideal, and out of Red Britannia 2nd, a heifer full of quality, carrying out the well-filled substance of her sire, having a grand back, and the rich deep red color predominant in the herd. Ten calves had arrived, four of which were bulls, and although quite young they are stamped with the unmistakable type of their sire, and we will feel disappointed if they do not do their share to maintain the reputation won by the herd. A yearling bull, Laird of Dunrobert 26955, by 17th Prince of Thule 21157, and out of Red Rose, by Conqueror, with racing through the noted Strathallan family, is now held for sale.

E. GAUNT & SONS' SALE OF SHORTHORNS.

The dispersion of the "Ample Shade" herd of Shorthorns, at St. Helen's, Ont., on June 22nd, was favored with model weather and a good attendance of breeders of this class of cattle from many parts of Ontario, while Mr. E. S. Butler, of Ridgeway, Ohio, added to the interest of the sale by bidding freely and buying a handsome quartette of heifers. The cattle were in good condition and form, and were readily taken at fair prices, the highest price being made by the four-year-old cow, Missie of Neidpath 16th, who fell to the bid of Capt. T. E. Robson, Iderton, at $215. The two-year-old bull, Admiral—24556—, was taken by Mr. P. Maloney, Metropolitan, at $195. The average of $113 for 33 head is a very creditable one. We give below a list of the animals, with prices and buyers.
