

The Silver Linings.

There's never a day so sunny / But a cloud appears; / There's never a day so happy / But has its time of tears. / Yet the sun shines out the brighter / When the tempest clears. / There's never a garden growing / With roses in every lot; / There's never a heart so hardened / But it has one soft spot. / We have only to prune the border / To find the forget-me-not. / There's never a cup so pleasant / But has bitter with the sweet; / There's never a path so rugged / That bears not the print of feet; / And we have a helper promised / For the trials we may meet. / There's never a sun that rises / But we know 'twill set at night; / There's never a dawn in the morning / But evening's just as bright; / And the hour that is sweetest / Is between the dark and light. / There's never a dream that's happy / But the waking makes us sad; / There's never a dream of sorrow / But the waking makes us glad; / We shall look some day with wonder / At the troubles we have had. / There's never a way so narrow / But the entrance is made straight; / There's always a path to point us / To the little "wicket gate"; / And the angels will be nearer / To the soul that's desolate.

NEWS FROM IRELAND.

DUBLIN.

The late Mr. Murphy, founder of Dublin, has bequeathed $100 towards the erection of an "Angelus" bell in Meath at church. There are some other bequests to Catholic charities. A fatal and melancholy car accident occurred at Ballina on Aug. 2nd. As a side car was taking two servant girls from the train, the horse, which was going at a quick pace, gave a sudden jerk, throwing them off. One of the girls, Maria Corry, aged 25, fell to W. Fetherston, Esq., of Killeen, laid on the back of her head, fracturing her skull. She never regained consciousness, and died in a few hours. The Gough Memorial Committee have decided that in presence of the action of the Corporation they are precluded from placing Foley's fine equestrian statue of the Irish Field-marshal within the city of Dublin. They have furthermore resolved to apply to the Government authorities for a site on the leading road through the Phoenix Park. The Dublin folks don't seem to be terribly put about by the decision.

CARLOW.

A fatal accident occurred, on August 4th, a short distance outside Bagenstown, in the Ballywilliam line. A goods train ran over a gangster named Deegan, who was lying on the rails apparently asleep. There is a curve at this particular spot, and the engine driver did not see the unfortunate man in time to pull up. The whole train passed over Deegan, completely severing his head from his body. Deegan, who is a young man, leaves a wife and five children.

KILKENNY.

A notice has been issued stating that Messrs. Galah, Falcke and Carrigrove, in the county of Kilkenny, will allow an abatement of fifteen per cent. on the half-year's rent due by the tenants of their lands, up to and ending the 25th of March, 1874, to all tenants who shall on or before the 1st of September pay all rent and arrears of rent due on the 25th of March. The abatement will only be made for the occasion, in consideration of the present depression in the value of farm produce.

KILDARE.

On August 6th, a middle-aged woman, named Marianne Mack, fell dead on the threshold of her door at Monasterevan. A minute or two previous she appeared to be in her usual good health, and went across the street to the canal for a kettle of water. When returning, just as she was entering her house, she suddenly dropped the vessel, lay down on the floor, and expired without a struggle. An inquest was held, and the jury returned a verdict of death from natural causes.

MEATH.

Mr. Parnell, the patriotic member for Meath, has reduced the rents on his property to the extent of four-and-six-pence in the pound, or more than twenty per cent.

LOUTH.

On August 4th, a sad accident occurred in Dominick street, Drogheda, which has resulted fatally in one case. A young woman, named Ellen Conroy, nurse to Mr. Terence Kelly, of West street, was passing over Dominick's bridge with three children, when a van, belonging to Mr. Casey, came dashing along, and in the girl's anxiety to get over the bridge, and fright at the runaway horse, she was thrown down, and one of the wheels passed over her and the child. The other two children escaped unhurt. It seems the man in charge had been delivering goods in a shop in John street, and the horse took fright and ran away. The child was conveyed home, and the girl to her parents' house in Mill row, both being immediately attended by Dr. J. Bellew Kelly, but next morning the child died. The girl is progressing favorably, but has been much hurt. Unmistakable signs of the potato blight have made their appearance in and around Drogheda and the surrounding district.

CORK.

Immediately after the breaking of the splendid buildings—the Mallow Christian Brothers' Monastery and Schools—which were taken possession of by the Royal Irish Constabulary, on the 25th of April, to prevent any further injury being done to the magnificent buildings. The constabulary continued in occupation until Aug. 7th, when possession of the Monastery and schools was given to the Rev. Alexander Morrissey, C.C., who then put a caretaker in charge. The schools have been closed near twenty-one weeks.

WATERFORD.

A largely-attended meeting was held on Sunday, Aug. 3rd, at Dungarvan, for the purpose of promoting among the prospective agriculturists of the district. Resolutions were adopted, calling for a liberal reduction of the rents so as to enable the farmers to tide over the present crisis, and pledging the farmers not to rent any farms from which a tenant was expensively ejected after offering a fair rent. The Bishop of the diocese and the parish priest wrote expressing strong sympathy with the object of the meeting. Mr. Stuart, Dromana, also wrote, sympathizing with the farmers in their difficulties, and stating that he had made an abatement of 15 per cent. in the rent of his tenants. Mr. John O'Malley, of Kinnabegon, presided, and explained the object of the meeting by giving a summary of facts which occurred within his own recollection, showing that the Irish farmer was quickly approaching ruin unless a substantial reduction of rents were made. There were road between Fermanagh and Kilworth. It appeared that two women were going home from market sitting in a donkey cart, which was loaded with household necessaries. At the place above indicated the donkey started, and one of the women, named Clancy, fell on the road, on her head, receiving such injuries as terminated fatally in a few minutes. On Aug. 7th, a man named O'Connor went into the Lee Mills, Cork, for the purpose of seeing a friend. He was passing through one of the lofts, when his clothes were caught in the machinery. He put up his hands to save himself, and these were also caught and mangled in a dreadful manner. He was drawn in still further, and portion of his head was crushed, the brains being scattered about. The machinery was stopped at once as it was possible to do so, but the whole thing did not last a minute. Death was instantaneous.

KERRY.

Mr. Justice D. Rice, J.P. of Bushmount, county Kerry, has intimated to his tenants that he will make a reduction of 25 per cent. in the March grain due. On Aug. 1st, a farmer named Daniel Flynn, who resided at Ballyfinane, near Castlenaine, was found in a state of insensibility at Sandville Gate, within a mile and a half of the town. A doctor, whom he had been that day selling some cattle. The parties who found him at once reported the matter to the constabulary, who had the unfortunate man conveyed to the house of Edmond Prendeville, a shopkeeper residing in Castlenaine. On examination it was found that Flynn was bleeding from the nose, and an abscess of the head had been detected, from which blood flowed profusely. When found at Sandville Gate his trousers were nearly off, and his coat was pulled over his head. It appeared that Flynn went to Castlenaine, being a fair day, to sell some cattle. He sold one cow, for which he received the sum of 29s. He drank some liquor at the fair, and was noticed by several people when going home to be somewhat under the influence of drink, but not drunk. When searched there was not a single penny in his possession. He never regained his senses, and was taken home to Ballyfinane where he died on Aug. 4th. David Dunn, Daniel Dunlevy, and Geoffrey Fleming were charged with the murder, and are under arrest.

DOWN.

On August 5th, a fire broke out in the woolen drapery establishment of Mr. Mulligan, Margaret street, Newry. The concerns were completely gutted. In the district of Warrenpoint the potato blight has appeared recently, and is not to be seen on some of the late varieties. TYRONE. Mr. Robert Stevenson has been elected chairman of the Dungannon Town Commissioners for the ensuing year. FERRMANGH. That the far-famed sanctuary of St. Patrick's Purgatory on Lough Derg, is sufficiently attested by the fact of the increasing number of distinguished visitors, and eminent ecclesiastics who of late years have been attracted to this pilgrimage. The Most Rev. Dr. Gilroy, Bishop of Ely, and the Most Rev. Dr. McCann, Bishop of Achonry, accompanied by the Rev. Mr. Strickland, S. J., and the Rev. Professor McDonagh, recently came on a visit to Lough Derg. After spending some time on State Island, and praying before the Blessed Sacrament in the Church of the pilgrimage, they proceeded in the pilgrims' boat to Saints' Island, where they examined the ruins of the ancient monastery, church cemetery, and the "Caverna Purgatoriz." On their return the worthy Prior, the Very Rev. James McKenna, entertained the distinguished party to dinner. They expressed themselves in the highest terms of praise regarding the pilgrimage of Lough Derg. On July 29th, the Most Rev. Dr. Crooke, Archbishop of Cashel, with the Bishop of Clogher, the Most Rev. Dr. Donnelly, and other clergyman honored the sanctuary by their distinguished presence. The Venerable Archbishop Lee, P. P. Bray, also paid a visit to the pilgrimage. Before the present Station season closes the illustrious Archbishop Lynch, of Toronto, is expected on a pilgrimage to this holy retreat. The body of a man named Thomas Keane, aged 56 years, was found in the tail-race of Mr. Palmer's Mill, Galway, on August 1st. Deceased was for years lock-keeper of the Canal. He was missed on the night of the 15th July, and though searched for each day since the body was found till the above date. It is thought he fell in at the canal gate leading from the Queen's College. He was a sober, inoffensive man. At the inquest, held by Dr. McNamara, Esq., an open verdict was returned.

TYRONE.

On July 25th, His Grace the Archbishop of Tuam administered the sacrament of Confirmation to 400 of the faithful in the parish church of Dunmore. To His Grace it was a day of labor, but the labor was one of love. Thousands approached the tribunal of penance and the holy table in celebration of Confirmation day. The sermon was preached by the Rev. James Stephens, C. C. His formal treatment of the sacrament and eminently practical, and would be a wealthy contribution to the literature of our native tongue. The hospitalities of the occasion were dispensed by the Very Rev. Patrick (Canon) Duffy, P. P., who is, after His Grace, the oldest of the ministers of the sanctuary in the West of Ireland. His Grace returned to St. Jarlath's in the afternoon, rejoicing with a special joy, in which priests and people joined in heartfelt congratulation, that another full day of arduous labor had not left the slightest symptom of fatigue on the venerable features of their beloved Archbishop. To the Irish race who revere the cherished name of the illustrious prelate, "John of Tuam," it will afford no ordinary satisfaction to learn that many more years of fidelity and usefulness in the sacred cause of Faith and Fatherland seem to be extended to His Grace's valuable life. MAYO. The Earl of Erne, recognizing the justice of the present demand for "fair rents" has, on the good old principle, "live and let live," notified to his different agents his wish that they grant a reduction of 10 per cent. to all his tenants.

MAYO.

The tenants of the Marquis of Sligo have petitioned His Majesty for a reduction of rent. It has been forwarded to the Marquis who is at present in India. His agent, however, is of opinion that the reduction will not be granted. The first political gathering to be held in Ireland under the Repeal of the Irish Convention Act is arranged for the present month, and will be a convention of delegates elected in public meeting by the farmers of the various districts of the West of Ireland. The convention of the delegates will be held at Castellar to consider the question of agricultural rents. ROSCOMMON. On August 7th, at Roscommon, Mr. Dubarry, clerk to Mr. McDonnell, solicitor, after eating his dinner, fell, and on being examined was found to be dead. Death is stated resulted from disease of the heart. SLIGO. A melancholy case of drowning recently occurred at Ennistown, county Mayo. A young man named Patrick Murnally went into the sea to bathe, accompanied by his brother and a servant man. Having ventured beyond his depth, and being a poor swimmer, he was carried out by the tide and drowned.
