INTELLIGENCE.

PARRSBORO CIRCUIT.

MR. EDITOR .-

Allow me to congratulate you on the improved appearance of the WESLEYAN and its rapidly increasing popularity.

As "Circuit Intelligence" is not the least interesting part of your paper, perhaps some items of news from this part of the work will be acceptable. Last night we closed our fourth Missionary Meeting. We have not held all our meetings, but so far the amounts are nearly double those contributed on the same ground last year. Brethren H. Daniel, R. Tweedie, J. Hale and Mr. Brown formed the Deputation, to whose addresses we are largely indebted for the interest manifested in Missions. We are more than ever convinced of the necessity of having present on such occasions men versed in the methods and history of our work.

Since our appointment to this Circuit we have not been idle. The extent of th ground necessitates sweat of brow as we

Our people have been showing their in terest in the cause in various ways mor especially in the way of tea-meeting Our friends in Southampton realized i this way the nice sum of $218,00 the mo ney to be appropriated to the completion of our new Church there, which will be opened on the 7th November.

At the Village we had a Refreshmen Table and Fancy Sale, the result of which was to place a very respectable sum in the hands of the Committee for the pur pose of placing the house in a comforta able condition, and also to assist in re moving the debt upon the Church. Spiritually we look for for a successful year. Pairsboro, Oct. 5th, 1875.

WOODSTOCK, N. B.

THE annual meeting of the Methodist Home and Foreign Missionary Society, was held in the Methodist Church, here, on Wednesday evening last. John Fisher, Esq., was in the chair. The attendance was larger than we have seen on any similar occasion for some years past. Rev. James Taylor read the report of the Society, and the meeting was addressed by the Chairman, Rev. Messrs. Dobson, Marshall, Paisley, Kirby, and Mr. James Watts. Altogether the meeting was an exceedingly interesting one.-Sentinel.

On the 21st of June last, Mr. Case put to the test the important question the rights of the inhabitants of the islands in the Parish burial grou It was a test that required an amo of pluck seldom found. The cour had been very much disturbed on burial question. Its position had l the cause of much ill feeling, and time went on and men became more eral was likely to be the cause of m more. Many have been pressing settlement of it, but Mr. Cassidy heroic enough to grapple the ques in the only way in which it could be tled here. The matter has been brou before our courts. We have refrained from examin this ease at length until we should h the evidence as to the facts. Now. have them and they are as follows:

One Hester Levy, a member of Cassidy's congregation, died on the of June last. Notice was sent on morning of that day to Mr. Cassidy Mr. James, requesting in the words their presence at the funera 5 p.m. Afterwards the friends of deceased appear to have sent a mes to Mr. James to inform him his services would not be requi as they wanted Mr. Cassidy, her pa to perform the service and he was ing to do it. In accordance with arrangements with the friends and his custom, Mr. C. held part of the vice in the house, and then the fu cortege proceeded to the parish l ground, which is also the Episco Church burying ground. At the Mr. C. was met by Mr. James, R. of the Episcopal Church, who seem
