Christ Church, Oyster Bay, L.I., which celebrated its 200th anniversary last year has recently had a tablet commemorating that event placed on the south wall of the church near to the pew occupied by the President and his family.

An unusually beautiful set of Festival Vestments was presented to the Church of the Redeemer, Chicago, at Christmastide, by Mrs. F. R. Lillie. The tapestry is of European manufacture, and of mediaeval design and the work has been done by the Sisters of the Holy Nativity.

Three chancel screens, which have been erected at the Parish Church of St. Michael's, Heavitree, by Miss Sanders, of Stoke House, in memory of her father, the late Mr. E. A. Sanders, were dedicated at a special service, which was held lately, by the Bishop of Marlborough, (Dean of Exeter).

Early in the present year St. Mary's Church, Droylsden, will celebrate its diamond jubilee, and to commemorate the event the Church officers have decided to arrange a suitable gathering. St. Mary's was the first church dedicated by Bishop Prince Lee after the formation of the Manchester Diocese.

Blessed Jesus, why should it be so hard for us always to cleave to Thee, closely to walk with Thee, to make Thee our Guide and Master and Friend? Conquer us by Thy love, and never let us rest until we are wholly Thine!—Bishop Thorold.

Dr. Edward King, the beloved and venerable Bishop of Lincoln, who has held that see for nearly twenty-three years, has just entered his seventy-ninth year. His only seniors amongst prelates now in harness are the Archbishops of Armagh and York.

In recognition of his thirty years' service as vicar of Hurst, Ashton-under-Lyne, the Rev. T. Butterworth, M.A., was on a recent Saturday evening presented with a silver fruit-stand and flower-stand and a Bible by the congregation of St. John's Church.
