THE BABIES

An After-the-War Problem.

It does not require much deep thinking to know that the main reason why the Germans thought they could strike at Paris last August was the fact that there are about seventy millions of Germans and about forty millions of French.

doctors and the nurses are daily growing more engrossed in the task of healing men so that they may return quickly to the firing line. Up and down the country, in almost every community, however small, there is now a hospital for the wounded.

It is idle to speculate on most of the "after-the-war" topics. "After the war" will there not be a period of great commercial depression? "After the war" will not the National Debt exceed the bounds of possible repayment?

In the midst of all our war work, and every day sees some new scheme or society in operation—we must see to it that the utmost care shall be given to the children who twenty years hence may have to repel another German attack and who, in any event, will have to carry aloft the banner that has been the emblem of real freedom for a thousand years.

the little lives. Not only are all sorts of agencies for their care and welfare removed to other spheres of feminine activity, but even the first necessity of child-life—milk—is already in some places more difficult to obtain than formerly.

With the mothers of the working classes doing more and more of men's work it is obvious that the children must become more and more neglected unless a great extension of day nurseries and the retention of local nurses for the civil population and other obvious remedies can be arranged.

Shells and machine guns are the principal munitions of the present war, but infants are the munitions of the future peace.—London (Eng.) Daily Mail.

LOCAL OFFICERS IN 59TH BATT.

The list of officers recommended to the Department of Militia for commissions in the 59th Battalion, to be commanded by Lieut-Col. Dawson includes several local military men. They are Lieut. A. B. McConnell of the 49th Regiment, Lieut. J. Downey, 15th; Lieut. F. L. Barber and Lieut. Ben O'Neil, 16th Regt. Captain Saue is well known here and Capt. J. L. McLean, 49th of Trenton has been in Belleville for some months.

The 59th Battalion is already 600 str. g. that number now being under canvas at Barrfield. Recruiting will go on at Ottawa and here and other surrounding places in order to bring the battalion up to its full strength after which it will mobilize in Kingston and go into training.

The recommendations include numerous officers of the Governor-General's Foot Guards and other Ottawa regiments. Major Birdwhistle of Ottawa, has been recommended for the rank of senior major, and Lieut. C. Taylor of the G.G.F.G., for the rank of junior major.

- The officers are— Lieut-Col. Dawson Sr. Major—Major Birdwhistle Junior Major—Lieut. C. Taylor Captains— Capt. J. M. Mowat, 14th Major A. J. Williams, 45th Capt. W. L. Grant, 14th Capt. G. A. McNaughton, 59th Capt. H. Saue, 40th Capt. A. W. Grey, 47th Capt. J. L. McLean, 49th Capt. M. H. Park, 57th For Lieutenants— A. S. Donald, 40th F. L. Barber, 16th H. B. McConnell, 49th C. P. Reiffenstein, 47th R. H. Waddell, 14th H. P. Taylor, 14th W. W. Fisher, 41st J. Downey, 15th J. W. Stagg, 14th Ben O'Neil, 16th J. F. de H. Cunningham, G.G.F.G. J. L. Thompson, G.G.F.G. Windler, 41st B. N. Morris, 42nd A. L. Campbell, 45th W. A. R. Mark, 45th G. Bawden, 14th

The base battalion has been dissolved, and the unit is now known as the 59th Battalion, and is to be commanded by Lieut-Col. Dawson. It has not yet been decided whether there shall be another base battalion as a feeder to the regular units and there is much speculation as to what will be done in this matter.

Lieut. Stratton, of Peterborough, brought 7 recruits from the 57th regiment to Barrfield camp Tuesday. Six more recruits arrived from Belleville, 12 from the 45th regiment, Lindsay, and 8 from the 41st regiment of Brockville. All were turned over to the 59th battalion.

A Masonic Funeral.

The funeral of the late Ernest A. Peck took place yesterday under Masonic auspices. The R. W. Bro. H. J. Clarke, D.D.G.M., conducted the Masonic service at the home of Mr. W. M. Peck, Albany, brother of deceased. The remains were then taken to the church where the Rev. Dr. R. C. Blagrove, officiated. Interment was in Albany cemetery.

Another Salesman Has Been Added

Mr. J. L. R. Gorman, manager of Gorman's Shoe House, has been compelled by increase of business to add another salesman to his staff. For this purpose he has been fortunate in securing the services of Mr. R. R. Spian of Toronto. Mr. Spian has had several years experience with the house of H. C. Blatford, the largest retail shoe shop in Toronto.

Summer School.

TWO WOMEN AVOID OPERATIONS

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Chicago, Ill.—"I must thank you with all my heart for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I used to go to my doctor for pills and remedies and they did not help me. I had headaches and could not eat, and the doctor claimed I had female trouble and must have an operation. I read in the paper about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I have taken it and feel fine. A lady said one day, 'Oh, I feel so tired all the time and have headache.' I said, 'Take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound,' and she did and feels fine now."—Mrs. M. R. KANSCHER, 1488 N. Paulina Street, Chicago, Illinois.

The Other Case. Dayton, Ohio.—"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound relieved me of pains in my side that I had for years and which doctors' medicines failed to relieve. It has certainly saved me from an operation. I will be glad to assist you by a personal letter to any woman in the same condition."—Mrs. J. W. SHUMAN, 126 Cass St., Dayton, Ohio.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

STIRRING APPEAL BY UNION LEADERS

Prominent Laborites Cooperating With Lloyd George--Example to the World.

LONDON, June 28.—Trade Union leaders have issued a manifesto addressed to their fellow trade unionists, saying: "We are faced with a great responsibility and at the same time are presented with a magnificent opportunity. We are called upon to assist in saving our nation and its allies who are fighting for civilization and international law as against barbarism and brute force." After calling attention to the serious position of the British and Russian armies in the field, in consequence of the shortage of munitions the manifesto appeals to "every skilled workman of the engineering and allied trades who is not at present engaged upon war work to enroll himself as a volunteer in this hour of need and to demonstrate to his comrades in the trenches and to the whole world that British trade unionism stands for all that is best in national life, national freedom and in national security."

"Stop Quibbling; Pay Up," is U. S. Advice to Kaiser

Delay in Settling Frye Claim Has Made Washington Impatient. BERLIN, June 28, via London.—Ambassador James W. Gerard yesterday called at the German Foreign Office and presented the American Note regarding the American ship William J. Frye, sunk by the German auxiliary cruiser Prinz Eitel Friedrich in the south Atlantic. The note finds the German conditions for delay in the payment of compensation until the case is passed upon by a prize court to be unconvincing and asks that payment be made now.

OUR daily news letter from this thriving town furnished by The Ontario's special representative. Busy Trenton THE latest news of the town and surrounding neighborhood is given in an interesting manner.

TRENTON, June 25. — Enquiries are being made as to the adaptability of the Lloyd Carriage Factory for the manufacture of shells. Motorists seeking an interesting run over good roads, should go to the Sand Banks, in Prince Edward county. Col. Cooper, of Belleville, was in town on Wednesday evening, in connection with I.O.O.F. Field Day matters.

What is the matter with the Field Day advertising matter which was sent to Belleville? We looked for it in vain in several prominent places on Wednesday last. The little seven year old son of Mrs. LaFrance was drowned in the slip dock, apparently some time during Wednesday afternoon. The mother of the deceased is the wife of a man who joined the 21st Battalion.

The handsome I.O.O.F. Field Day cups, presented by Senator Harry Corby and Mr. Robert Weddell, are on view in the windows of Barry & Co. The first is to be presented to the Canton winning first money, and the second to the best appearing lodge in the parade. These cups are worth competing for alone. S. Hooey, of Toronto, a former well known townsman, is spending his holidays here. He thinks so well of Trenton that he is sure to return some day.

A vaudeville company being organized here will soon take the road with its own motor train. We believe the chief attraction is to be the exhibition of a deep sea diver at work in a glass tank. Dr. Farncomb leaves for Toronto next week to attend the annual meeting of the Ontario Medical Association. Mrs. Farncomb accompanies him. That a new bridge is almost a necessity goes without question. For nearly a century the present structure has been in use, and we are told that while the timbers appear to be perfectly sound, it is quite likely that some of them are not so sound as they look. The only thing to be commended about the present bridge is its quaintness and its usefulness as a shelter from stormy weather. The Government will, we think, find the traffic very much heavier than has been reported. The Bowling Club looks like a go. Its officers are pushers and enthusiasts and we will be surprised if they let it fall through. We would suggest that the club get an option on suitable property so that eventually they may own their own grounds.

Death of Mr. N. A. Bonesteel

(From Monday's Daily.) Norval Anson Bonesteel passed away last evening at seven o'clock at his residence, Commercial street, after an illness of six months' duration. He was born in Sidney in the year 1841, the son of the late Gilbert Bonesteel, and spent all his life in that township until seven years ago when he came to Belleville to reside. He was a Methodist in religion and a member of Bridge Street Church. He was a past district deputy grand master of the Masonic order and was a member of The Belleville Lodge No. 123 A.F. and A.M., having affiliated from Frank Lodge. He was a former member of the I.O.F. Mourning his loss are three sons, George, Belleville; D. A. of Ingersoll and Earl of Sidney and two daughters Mrs. W. J. Skarp, Sidney, and Mrs. F. Hawkins of Girvin, Sask. The late Mr. Bonesteel was well and favorably known and his death is deeply regretted.
