Of submarine activities and other naval events during the week, all that was reported in the daily papers will be found in News of the Sea." The torpedoing of the Cymric was the outstanding feature. Of the political and diplomatic affairs rising out of the war, the receipt a Washington of the long-waited note from Berlin was the most conspicuous ever The note is construed by the American Government to mean that Germany con sents to modify her submarine policy i ordance with the expressed wishes of the American Government; and in this sense it was accepted by the American Government in a very brief and pointed note. The sinking of the Cymric followed the German note and its acceptance b Ameaica, and the vessel was torpedoe without warning. In Great Britain the Irish rebellion and the punishment of the rebels has been the outstanding feature of the week, ten of the leaders of the rebellion having been convicted and sho Lord Wimborne, the Viceroy of Ireland, has resigned, as was expected he would for Ireland have not vet been announced All the difficulties and disagreem among the British Cabinet seem to hav been composed for the present at least.

WATERWORKS

M OST people in St. Andrews will be glad of the decision of the Town Council to take a vote on the offer of the C. P. R. to supply water for the Town, but we venture to suggest that the vote might have been delayed a month longer so that a large number of the summer residents would have an opportunity to record their votes.

As to the scheme itself, we are unable to-day to discuss it at any length, but we can say that it seems quite reasonable and worthy of the support of the rate-

We think the Town Council ould have amplified the information given out, and it certainly ought to call a public meeting of the townspeople to have the matter explained and discussed have the matter explained and discussed before the vote is taken. In the Western campaign the operations around Verdun continued to occupy the most prominent place; and again, as in preceding weeks, the objective of the German drive was not reached. For the greater part of the week the fighting around Verdun resulted favorably to the French, who were able to recover some to keep abreast of the times, but we have our doubts as to the wisdom or probable success of the adoption of this so-called many gifts and congratulations from his friends, and a special whist party was given for him at the home of Mrs. Ellen Coney.

Many farmers are surprised to find Maritime fencing, even when it has been up for a number of years, remarkably free from loose or broken uprights and laterals. Examination shows, however, that the Maritime "bull-dog" lock holds the joints so rigidly that they cannot give or pull out of shape; and because we use nothing but large, strong, "live" wire—No. 9, heavily galvanized—they are able to stand the daily stress of wear and tear without breaking.

Maritime fence is always sightly, always straight, and always efficient. It's bull-strong and hog-tight, because it is made to withstand far greater strains than any it is likely to endure. It gives you all that you can expect in a wire fence at a reasonable price.
