HON. ADAM BECK Residents of Ontario generally, of all shades of politics, will be deeply sorry to learn that the death of Hon. Adam Beck is that his physicians have ordered him an indefinite rest. Only recently he was found dead faint in his office, but on covering consciousness, he went it hammer and tongs again, as his ways does. Very few men have ever through a bigger scheme for people than he, with regard to Electric light and power, and few have had to buck up against more opposition, much of it, leading political friends. Through it all, he has stuck to the project, an entirely non-partizan basis, has literally worked himself to death. Mr. Beck has the tenacity of a dozen bull dogs, and what he after he always seems to get. It is not too much to say that was the one man capable of pushing through the Hydro scheme. It will be the general heartfelt wish, that after a rest, he will make a complete recovery, and once more with vigor take up the duties of the which he so ably fills.

IT IS TO LAUGH.

WORTHY RECOGNITION

The Courier is pleased to see the City Council has recognized the services of Judge Hardy as of the Police Commission. The judge is a Liberal, the worse for that because lots of good ones, notably voted against reciprocity, take this paper. He was way his father, Mr. Russ was a Grit of the old school of which on both sides one thought there was grace, or hope of salvation fellow—and his brother the A. S. Hardy, at one time of Ontario, was also a prominent of that side, which has always opposed for reasons. And Apropos of Hardy two incidents might For many years the late Mr. man, County Crown Attorney unable through illness to his duties. During all that Hardy absolutely refused other man in his place.
