In the light of the figures given out by Controller Lithgow, covering the receipts and expenditures of the local government during the past 18 months, the proposimenicipality looks, if anything more unfavorable than ever the total revenues received dur ing the period covered by the re port, considerabiy more thai se25, 100.74, out of a total $$ 332,144.15$, was derived from court fines and liquor per mits. According to the plan Gov Ogilyi is published in the Nugget som time ago, none of the receipts from permits, which amounted during the past 18 months to $101,628.14, would be available for expenditure by the city authorities, and only a proportion of the court revenues.
of the court revenues.
The gross revenue from liquor licenses amounted to $8146,655.66$, and the city would be enilied, accor ang to the po sition yaken bo this Hil a proporior ion wis. How large that proportion woila be has not as yet been determined, but it is probably safe to say that it wonit cent. Estimating, therefore, the receipts for the next 18 months by the controller's report. cover ing the past 18 moiths, an approximate amount may be icipal purposes in the event of incorporation. In yesterday's issue of the Nugget appeared a two column and a half article giving' an exhaustive account of the winter's date. The article was prepared by the Nugget's special creek lowed by others until all the creeks in the distriet have been overed. Dominion is turning out most satisfactority. In spit of high freight eharges and othe obstacles, work has been carried on upon a large scale, with most on upon a large scale, with most promming results. Thesemi-weekly issue of the Nugget is again incteased to eight full pages, which gives our creek subscribers sixteen pages creek subscribers sixteen pages er. Special care is given, the selection of the matter which appears in the Semi-Weekly Nug paper on the creeks with the atest news. The fact that the Nugget's circulation is greater when it had a clear field and no competition, speaks volumes for its popularity.
