WILTSETOWN.

MONDAY, June 30.—On Friday, July 4th, a picnic will be held on the banks of Rowsom's creek. This is not meant to celebrate the independence of the United States, but the closing of school.

The Misses Richards, who are leaving this place to live in Athens, made, in company with Miss E. A. Steacy, a visit to some friends in the vicinity of Harlem.

OAK LEAF

MONDAY, June 30.—Another increase in the residents at Ormond Green's. Its a boy.

L. O. L. No. 2 intend going to Lyndhurst to celebrate the 12th of July.

Quite a number went to the church of England pic-nic at point Malakoff pic-nic grounds at the Outlet. They report a large crowd and a good time. There was considerable grumbling at the action of the committee in charging for a passage from Charleston on the Outlet Queen, after announcing that one fare would secure passage on boat and admission to grounds.

Mrs. Aaron Green is suffering from a severe attack of rheumatism.

McINTOSH MILLS.

MONDAY, June 30.—There is talk of making a change in the contract of McIntosh school house. Whether in site, size, price or person, is not yet known.

It is earnestly hoped that eggs will keep a fair price until blue berries put in an appearance, so that our cheese will be looked after more regularly.

Hurrah! Ballycanoe is ahead! Bound to be unrivaled! Especially in pic-nic season. Parties that have not the wherewith to put in an appearance, mortgage there yearlings and sacrifice their whole hen dairy.

Mr. Charley Birch is desirous of leasing his stock farm with a few implements. It is in the vicinity of Centreville. He has secured the contract on the Poultry line between McIntosh Mills and Rock port.

MALLORYTOWN.

MONDAY, June 30.—Mrs. G. G. Lafayette, of Brockville, is spending a week here, the guest of Mrs. J. W. Lane.

Mr. C. R. Woods, of Montreal, is a home for a short time.

It is rumored that Mr. Geo. H. Lee will spend his holidays at Poole's summer resort.

Mr. John H. Buell and Burt Poole returned from Athens high school on Friday last.

Rev. Wm. Service, pastor for the coming year, gave his first sermon here on Sabbath morning last to a large and appreciative audience.

There will be no service in the Methodist church here on Sunday next.

Misses Flora and Kit Fields are visiting friends in Fairfield and have been absent about two weeks.

Communion service will be held in the Presbyterian church Caintown, on Sunday next; therefore, there will be no service here in the evening.

DELTA.

MONDAY, June 30.—On next Sunday the Methodists hold the anniversary of the dedication of their church in connection with which there will be on Monday night a grand tea and well prepared entertainment.

Dr. Mallory has moved his office to the upper part of Mr. J. Bell's store.

Mr. R. H. Wells is building a fine residence.

Delta is rapidly becoming a baseball town. There are two teams here, one called the Young Hopefuls, the members of which are on an average sixty-five pounds. Then there is the I X L's. On Saturday last the young Hopefuls went to Newboro to play with the third nine. We are, however, convinced that they had to play all of Newboro, which we are fully confident they could do, providing they had a scoresman. However, Newboro beat them 1 score and probably did it fairly, but we live in doubts till the return match.

The Wicked Nine of Forfar came here on Saturday for a return match. Our I X L's were successful in upholding their names. Mr. H. Chisholm, of Elgin, acting as umpire, gave perfect satisfaction. After the game the ladies of the Temperance Union soon prepared a gorgeous banquet on the grounds. Much praise is due them, especially for the fine preparation of the chicken pie.

ELGIN.

SATURDAY, June 28.—G. Sweetnam and daughter, of Venachar, have been visiting W. Sweetnam, of Elgin. As they made many friends while here, a very enjoyable time was spent.

Mrs. E. V. Halladay had the misfortune to fall and break her arm. From latest accounts, it is doing well.

J. Beaumont, an evangelist, preaches every Tuesday night in the town hall.

A few Sundays ago one of our young gents dressed in his best clothes and went to see his young lady. He was gladly welcomed and all went well until No. 2 put in an appearance. Then he had to keep in the back ground till the shades of night fell when her big sister accompanied him home. We are fearful he has gone away to hate himself to death, as we have not seen him lately.

J. Flemming is having his well drilled deeper.

Miss M. J. Pennock is selling large quantities of strawberries.

Croquet is being revived and some interesting games are being played here.

Flossy Pennock has gone to Lyn on a visit.

Mrs. J. R. Dargavel has been very ill, but is recovering.

Dr. Coon is about opening an office on Main st.

PLUM HOLLOW.

TUESDAY, July 1.—A gathering of a very pleasant character took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. V. O. Sherman on Saturday last, when a number of their friends and neighbors gathered and presented the aged couple with an address. Fifty years ago yesterday (Monday 30th inst.) Mr. and Mrs. Sherman were united in marriage and have always resided on the farm on which they commenced married life. They have reared a large family, all of whom are worthy children of honored and respected parents. Below we give the address presented by the ladies composing the Mission Circle in connection with the Baptist church, Plum Hollow, which we believe voices the public sentiment of the neighborhood, as well as their hosts of friends in other sections. We might add that Mr. and Mrs. Sherman have been constant readers of the REPORTER since its initial number, and we join in extending our hearty congratulations on their hale and hearty appearance on the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding day, and also express the fervent hope that they may long be spared to exert that influence for good that has for so many years emanated from their worthy lives.

MR. AND MRS. SHERMAN.

We, as a Mission Circle, deem it much pleasure and also an honor to meet with you, our esteemed friend and neighbor, on this the fiftieth anniversary of your wedding day. When we look forward for fifty years it seems a very long time, but we presume when you look back over those years spent together it seems quite short. As you have passed through sickness and health, storm and sunshine you have been blessed with one another's smile, kind words and presence. This we all know has been a great comfort and consolation, and we also know that your hearts are filled with gratitude to God for his kindness in having spared one to the other.

We think of your living so many years together and, more astonishing than ever, that your home is on the very piece of ground, and has always been, where you first commenced your house keeping. It has not only been the home of yourselves and your friends, but for anyone who needed rest or food; never has anyone been turned from your door hungry, thirsty or weary. We might go on enumerating your good qualities and kind deeds, but it is useless, for your lives show for themselves.

We, as a Circle, wish you many happy returns of the anniversary of your wedding day, and that your old days may be your best days is the sincere wish of your friends.

Signed in behalf of the Circle.

Questions Answered.

When you were ushered into this bright and beautiful world, what was it that heralded the fact to relatives and bade you a hearthy welcome and wished you a life of happiness and prosperity?

It was your Home Paper.

When you graduated at school and delivered your little address (partly or wholly "cribbed") what was it spoke in glowing terms of the "studied effort" and concealed its defects?

It was your Home Paper.

When you got married to the sweetest girl in all creation what was it you looked into to see the description of the festivities and the expression of good wishes?

Your Home Paper.

When the voice of your darling little cherub first broke the stillness of the chamber and sent the life blood proudly bounding through your veins, to whom did you carry the first news as to weight, day and sex and who was it that published the little notice which you have saved to this very day?

Your Home Paper.

And when in after years some fine young man had taken your first-born to wife and had taken her from you, to whom did you carry the bridal cake and the first news?

To your Home Paper.

And when the king of terrors entered at your door and took from you the companion of years; when the house was still redolent with the scent of floral offerings from dear friends; when the little lot in God's half-acre contained that which you held most dear; when the sound of clods as they fell on the lid of the coffin, still rang in your ears; when the chair in which she had sat was unoccupied, and the house was as vacant as your own sad heart; when the crape still fluttered from the door-knob and you felt as if you were deserted by every living thing, who was it spoke the tenderest words of sympathy and helped to bear your grief?

It is your Home Paper.

Who was it that sorrowed with you in your sadness; consoled you in your troubles; laughed with you in your joys and congratulated you in your triumphs?

It is your Home Paper.

Who is it that unceasingly labors for you in season and out of season, in sickness and in health, by working for your town and county with voice and with pen; who makes your battles his own and has done so for so many years that you feel it his duty to do so?

Your Home Paper.

And all these years who have you cursed for not thinking as you do; for not viewing politico-economic questions in the light you deem proper and for its temerity in presenting you a bill several years past due?

Your Home Paper.

Who is it you encourage with advertising patronage, and cheering words, and moral and financial aid?

Every outside scheme that comes along and has nothing to recommend it save unlimited "gall" and uselessness for the purpose intended.

Under consideration for Room 2:—L. Beatty, A. Slack, T. Beach, I. Pierce, E. King, A. Kennedy, C. Kennedy.

Art School Exams.

Art Schools now form an important branch of our educational system. We notice in the report of the Minister of Education for the year 1889 that art schools receiving government aid have been incorporated in Toronto, Hamilton, London, Kingston, Brockville, Parkdale, Ottawa and St. Thomas. In affiliation with the Department for examination purposes are the colleges, the high schools and the public schools of the Province.

Athens High School made application for examination in Drawing of the Primary Art Course. The examination was held in May, Mr. Geo. Sharman acting as presiding examiner. The results, as given below, show the success of the high school candidates and reflect great credit upon Miss M. L. Harrison, teacher of drawing in the high school. The number of certificates granted is 42.

Blackboard Drawing—W. Dowsley, R. Hanna.

Freehand—W. Dowsley, M. Feebles, A. Ferguson, S. Moore, M. Keeler, A. Earl, J. Buell, S. Kendrick.

Perspective—M. Peebles, A. Ferguson, W. Dowsley, S. Moore, B. Haskin, H. Kilborn.

Model—B. Haskin, H. Kilborn, A. Ferguson, S. Moore, W. Dowsley, M. Keeler, A. Earl, J. Buell, J. Percival, A Barlow.

Geometrical—C. Green, H. Kilborn, J. Blanchard, M. Peebles, B. Haskin, W. Dowsley, A. Ferguson, S. Moore, E. Gallagher, M. Keeler, A. Earl, J. Percival, I. Pinkerton, A. Barlow, R. Hanna, A. Hollingsworth.

NOTE.—W. Dowsley, having completed the Primary Course, receives a proficiency certificate, which entitles him to teach drawing in high schools, public schools, county model schools and mechanics' institutes.

Brockville Wins.

On Saturday last the Young Shamrocks, of Athens, again suffered defeat at the hands of Brockville Coll. Inst. baseball club. The defeat is all the harder for the boys to accept because they rather thought that the defeat would be the other way. It is difficult to understand just why they thought so, but that they did is evidenced by the fact that very little practicing was done since their former match. However, the cold fact remains that they have been twice defeated fairly and squarely and the best thing they can do is to strengthen a few weak spots in their team and get down to practice with a view to another match next term. The game, considering the age of the players, was not "Muskoka ball" by any means, the score showing six whitewashes, honors in which were "easy." In batting, Lee for Athens and Weatherhead for Brockville lead with a score of 4 each. There was but little unpleasant friction during the progress of the game, all disputes being promptly and amicably adjusted by the umpires, Messrs. Alex. Green and Ed. Sullivan. Following is the score:—

Scorers—Curzon Lamb and J. Shields.

Another Brockville painter went wrong last week. Mr. George Purbeck, becoming enamored of a servant girl in town, induced his wife to go on a visit to her friends in Minneapolis, and during her absence he eloped with his new inamorata. The girl knew he was married and so is deserving of little sympathy.
