

Gleaned by the Way.

The automobile must go! exclaims a rural exchange. 'Sure, brother, it isn't worth much if it doesn't.'

The worst punishment that could be inflicted on the man who thinks he can run things better than any one else, is to let him try.

'A man told me this morning I looked the image of you.'

'Where is the fool? I'll thrash the life out of him!'

'Too late. I killed him.'

Protect the Lungs.

By using Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine at the first indication of throat irritation you overcome the cold before it gets a hold on the bronchial tubes or lungs.

Beacon—Do you think it is proper for a man to say things behind his wife's back?

Egbert—Well, if he's trying to button her dress, how can he help it?

'You are losing flesh, old man,' said Johnson.

'Yes, I know it,' returned Smith. 'I have been shaving myself since Christmas with a razor my wife gave me.'

Twenty-Five Cents is the Price of Peppas.

The terrible itching and smarting, incident to certain skin diseases, is almost instantly allayed by applying Chamberlain's Salve. Price 25 cents. For sale by Rand's Drug Store.

Teacher—Wait a moment, Johnny. What do you understand by that word 'deficit'?

'It's what you've got when you haven't got as much as if you just hadn't nothing.'

Switzerland's Bees.

According to the most recent returns there are in Switzerland about a quarter of a million beehives, or one to every 12 inhabitants.

Are You a Dyspeptic.

Nine people out of ten suffer from dyspepsia and don't know it. Half the pale cheeks, poor appetite and sleepless nights are the direct result of dyspepsia.

A Sun Motor.

A sun motor was one of the objects shown at the recent exhibition in Madrid.

Indescribable Torture of Piles.

Mrs. George H. Stewart, Grand, Russell Co., Ont., writes: 'For eleven years I suffered from bleeding, itching and protruding piles without success.

She—Now that we're engaged you must give up your expensive habits.

He—Then we must break the engagement.

She—Why?

He—Because you are my most expensive habit.

'If you didn't take so much interest in horses you would be better off,' snapped Mrs. Growler.

So Say We.

The following from the Halifax Herald expresses our views on a subject which is engaging the attention of the thinking people of this province:

'In some rural school sections, peculiarly situated, where it is difficult to maintain or attend school in winter, summer schools are undoubtedly a necessity.

'At any rate, all thoughtful and humane parents in Nova Scotia will admit, without hesitation, that it is a shame and a scandal to have children shut up in school rooms in such hot weather as we have been having during the past month, and that it will be all less excusable to disband them now for a brief six weeks, only to collect and pen them up again in the blazing days of middle August and early September.'

Are Your Joints Lame.

Have you a weak spot, a place where cold and inflammation always settles? Whether it is in the neck, side, joints or limbs—the cure is simple—a good rub with Nerveine and then apply Nerveine Porous Plaster.

The incumbent of an old church in Wales asked a party of Americans to visit his parochial school.

Heat prostrates the nerves. In the summer one needs a tonic to offset the customary hot weather.

What Will You Take?

What will you take for friendship's sake?

Oh, take the fruit which God has spread in blushing beauty o'er your head.

Go, take the water from the spring. And your Redeemer's praises sing.

Do not seek the rosy wine. Nor let your feet to sin incline.

When tempted to embrace the foe, Look up to Christ, and answer, 'NO!'

'What will you take for friendship's sake?'

Oh, take the sunshine, bright and fair; Take copious draughts of God's pure air.

Lay hold on Jesus' word and grace; 'Twill shield you from the tempter's snare.

Oh, do not linger near the wine! Its flame might quench the spark divine.

Though legions seek your overthrow, Look up to Christ, and shout your 'No!'

—Light and Reflector.

An Awful Sight.

One summer evening about 7 o'clock, while coming from my work, my attention was called by a fellow workman to an awful sight directly across the street, and as I looked I beheld a man, the most hideous looking specimen of humanity I ever laid my eyes upon, and as I drew near I discovered that he was barefooted, his eyes were swollen and red, on his great head his black hair was standing straight out, his great form was bent over as he wearily made his way along the great thoroughfare.

I drew still nearer and recognized him as having been at one time a prosperous business man in a small town not far from the city of Toronto.

When I first knew him he was the most successful business man in that place, he was sharp and shrewd and doing well.

Living in that town myself I was in a position to see his daily and rapid downfall as he passed down the street from his place of business to the bar room. Down and down he went, getting worse and worse, till at last his business was lost, his wife and family left him, his friends forsook him, and he was left a homeless wreck with no one to care for him.

A few years more of drunken and riotous living and his body became feeble and diseased. Not long after I saw him that same evening, he was taken into the home for incurables and died. His body was taken to the little town and laid at rest, and God only knows what became of his poor immortal soul.

We can only hope he died repentant like the thief on the cross.

What an awful warning to young men not to take the first glass. I have no doubt this poor fellow thought when he took his first glass he could take another and another with perfect safety and quit when he liked, but unknown to him each glass was an invisible coil that wound around him and made him more and more helpless to struggle against his horrible fate.

An Honest Confession.

A late writer in the New York Times says, 'Tobacco is a nerve sedative, undoubtedly, but it plays havoc with the nerves of most men. With many of us when the nerves are fretted, the brain fagged, a good cigar will waft us into Elysium for two hours, if so long; after which we settle into a gloomier depression than before. At least I am always rudely and ruthlessly hounded out of the Elysium to which I was pleasantly wafted on the fumes of the cigar; that is when I in his way seek relief from the fever and fret, or try to cure my brain rather not. Work got from cigars is like money borrowed. The interest is terrible. But in our time, from what one sees, and from all one hears and reads, the extent to which narcotics and opiates are indulged in truly alarming.'

How It Works.

'But, doctor, I must have some kind of stimulant! cried the invalid kindly. 'I am cold and it warms me.' 'Precisely,' says the doctor's earnest answer. 'See how, this stick is cold—inside the hearth and tossing it into the fire; now it is warm; but is the stick benefited?'

Kidney Troubles

FROM THE LIVER

In his study of kidney disease, Dr. Chase, the famous Chicago Kidney Pills found the 90 per cent. of the cases arose as a direct result of liver and bowel disorders, and working on this idea led to the discovery of his celebrated Kidney-Liver Pills, the only Kidney medicine having a combined action on liver and bowels as well.

Dr. A. W. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills

By this unique action, cure the most complicated diseases of the kidneys when ordinary medicine fails. They also prevent kidney aches by curing first complaint, inflammation and constipation. Try them when the back aches, or there are rheumatic pains, or deposits in the urine. One pill a dose, 25 cts. a box, all dealers of Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

Mr. J. H. Gibbard, Mission City, B. C., writes: 'My wife was so bad with torpid liver and kidney complaint that she had to go to bed for weeks. I bought your medicine, and she was cured. Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills thoughtfully cured her. I have also used these pills with good results.'

Help for Those Who Have Stomach Troubles.

After doctoring for about twelve years for a bad stomach trouble, and spending nearly five hundred dollars for medicine and doctors' fees, I purchased my first box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, which did her so much good that she continued to use them and they have done her more good than all of the medicine I bought before.—SAMUEL BROWN, Folsom, Iowa. Sir David Gill, formerly astronomer at Cape Town, South Africa, had an interview with Catewray, the great Zulu chief. The Catewray potentate asked him how long it would take to go to the sun in a 'Cape' wagon. Making a rapid calculation on his cuff, Sir David told the amazed chief that it would take 15,000 years.

'Health Coffee' is really the closest Coffee imitation ever yet produced. This clever Coffee Substitute was recently produced by Dr. Shoop of Racine, Wis. Not a grain of real Coffee in it either. Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee is made from pure toasted grains, with malt, nuts, etc. Really it would fool an expert who might think it for Coffee. No. 20 or 30 minutes before boiling. 'Made in a minute,' says the doctor. Sold by T. L. Harvey.

The Western Nova Scotia Lumbermen's Association session in Liverpool, has urged the Government to have the forests of the province surveyed. It is believed our woodlands total 10,000 square miles, but this Association wants more certain information on this point.

Boy's Life Saved.

My little boy, four years old, had a severe attack of dysentery. We had two physicians, both of them gave him up. Then we gave him Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea remedy which cured him and believe that saved his life.—WILLIAM H. STRAIN, Carleton Hill, N.S. There is no doubt but this remedy saves the lives of many children each year. Give it with entire confidence to the plain printed directions and a cure is certain. For sale by Rand's Drug Store.

'Didn't she pass, then?' was a question put to a woman, whose daughter had entered for an examination. 'No,' replied the mother, sorrowfully. 'She didn't pass at all. Maybe you won't believe it, sir, but then examiners asked her poor girl about the most happened years and years before she was born.'
