THE COUNCIL.

It may be that we will get our City Council for 1920 along with the usual crop of New Year resolutions. There is only another day left of 1919; and yet there is no one out for a seat on the Council. It would be a mistake to assume that the reason for this is that the present Council has given entire satisfaction during its year in office. No ruling body ever existed on this earth that succeeded in satisfying everybody.
The present Council on the whole has gone along very harmoniously, and may be credited with the honest intention of serving the city to the best of their ability. Mistakes, of course, they have made, and there is the consideration that next year the Council will have to deal with large improvement questions. For this reason it is imperative that the coming election should receive greater and more general attention than it seems to have done yet. As a rule there is little doing around the holidays, but on the other hand there is very little time to spare. Even if the present Council is to go back on bloc, it would be the better for knowing that the citizens generally were really interested in the fact. It would do the Council good to know that the citizens were behind them, were satisfied with their administration of the city's affairs in 1919, and content to leave it to them for 1920.

CORONER'S COCKTAILS.

The United States is really a marvellous country. Its governing bodies have refused to ratify the peace treaty as it stands. This would not have been so surprising had the United States delegates at the Peace Conference had a full share in making and framing it. In fact more than any other great leader at the Conference it was President Wilson that the Senate turned down, and the whole thing is probably attributable to party politics. Some of the Senators will have no interference with European politics nor will they suffer America to be drawn into European affairs. It is nothing to them that a year ago over two million of the picked manhood of the country was in France, that thousands of young Americans left their bones there, and that the adventure cost millions of dollars. It was really to prevent the recurrence of such conditions as forced America into war that President Wilson insisted on the League of Nations pact being made apart of the peace treaty. Yet the Senate left the whole question in the air and the United States has yet to make peace with Germany.

And during the war, in which the logic of some of the United States Senators would deny America a part, an experiment in "bone dryness" was initiated. The experiment has several peculiar features. America has long been sung as the Land of the Free. Theoretically, the claim cannot be disputed; but in a free democracy the people's will should be sovereign. In this experiment the people's will was very little considered. The law, through the American Houses of Representatives, declared the country "dry," and dry it has to be. One result has been that the holidays have produced a crop of alcoholic poisonings. Amateur distillers have produced a beverage which somebody has dubbed "Coroner's Cocktail." At all events the Coroner has been in great demand in many cities and it is quite evident that bootlegging has been extensiv-ly carried on. This is the surprising thing in a country which is "bone dry" by law.

"Now, it is easy to criticize and when one offers criticism he should be prepared also to offer a remedy." Sir George continued. "My suggestion is that Canadian manufacturers should, without a day's delay send representatives to Japan and China to study the markets and secure orders. They should prepare to put in departments for the manufacture of goods suitable to those markets. They should be prepared to meet the wishes of the Oriental consumer, even if it is a little trouble.
"Canada should immediately es-

STEW DAYS come oftener in these times of strict economy. But stew days become gratefully welcome when FIVE ROSES dumplings add their rare delicious-ness to the savory mess.
Light and porous as the crumb of well-risen bread, airy fairy bits of toothsome nutrition.
Did you know that, weight for weight dumplings are over five times as nutritious as beef? The gluten in the flour is "the lean of the meat of the wheat." In easily digested form your stew dumplings made from contain the muscle-building, blood-forming elements so plentifully stored up in the best Manitoba wheat. A little left-over beef or meat scraps will go a long way when you pop FIVE ROSES dumplings into the stew, besides jumping up its sustenance value enormously.

Thus are you able to secure more nutrition at less cost.

"The Canadian government should provide better facilities for our representatives housing them in good offices where effective displays of Canadian products could be made.
Our men should be adequately paid, and given a better support in developing interest in Canadian goods."

"If Canadian manufacturers do not wake up to the national importance of developing Canadian foreign trade, then perhaps a little tariff legislation might be suggested as a means of enlightening them. You know the theory of the protective market is that it preserves the home market and thus enables the manufacturer to complete in the foreign market but apparently to content to enjoy the easy fruits of a protected home market and let the foreign trade go by default. Such an attitude can result only in the very condition which Sir John A. Macdonald, Sir Charles Tupper, and other early statesmen claimed the protective tariff would deliver us from: "a nation of hewers of wood and drawers of water."

"Again I ask that Canada wake up, and take heed whither we are drifting. Let us forget for awhile the petty quarrels and issues with which the public mind, and the press to a large extent, seems to be distracted, and devote our energies to the big worthwhile welfare of the country. Canada needs today the cooperation of the brains and brawn of her workers and the counsel of level-headed men if we are to avoid the penalties of a long-continued adverse trade balance. We must not only produce more, but we must export many times as much as we are now exporting, and we must import fewer luxuries. In brief, Canada must get down to a sane basis of living, and an honest day's work for honest pay."

"Our wonderful national resources will be only a mockery to us unless we utilize them for our own advantage. The world needs the products of our soil, our forests, mines and waters, and we, as the custodians of these great resources have a trust to which we must live up, and for which we must worthily account, or be in default. It is not only a national duty to the world we owe, but a domestic obligation to our own people to provide profitable occupation for all our people. We must roll up a surplus of wealth, and this surplus can come only from a foreign trade in excess of our imports."
