A Good Business.

There was a man in our town And he was wondrous sick; He didn't strive to win renown Or try to get rich quick. Instead, he sold the recipes For fame and wealth to get And now he lives in gilded ease And's never known to fret. —Binghamton Age-Herald.

WESTMINSTER MEN.

The First regular meeting for the winter session of Westminster Men's Society took place in the school-room on Thursday evening, and took the form of an informal reception and impromptu concert. In his opening address President Hallaway spoke in his optimistic manner about the future of the society. This he said was to be a genuine social society, and he called for a spirit of unity and work among its members. Rev. J. R. VanWyck gave a short address, which ought to prove an inspiration to the men. The following contributed to the programme: Messrs. Gourlay, Collins, sen., Collins, jun., Cresney, White, Hallaway, Unsworth and Knox. The vice-president, Mr. Milton Smith, made happy speeches. After a vote of thanks to those who had taken part in the programme the meeting closed by singing the National Anthem.

"I am so sorry for Mabel, poor girl." "What's the matter?" "I heard her telling George that her face is her fortune."—Detroit Free Press.
