Canadian Representative at Washington.

Special to Evening Telegram.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.

The State Department officials believe that the appointment of a representative of Canada at Washington, to which post Geo. W. Gail, has just been appointed, will materially expedite negotiations between the Washington and Ottawa Governments. While the State Department has not yet been officially advised of Mr. Gail's appointment, the creation of such an office was determined upon with the knowledge of the United States Government. The title which such a representative will have has not been made known to the Department, but he will be the mouthpiece of the Canadian Government, with wide discretion in his intercourse with the State Department, but of course any such things as Treaties can be signed only by the usual diplomatic officers. The substitution of direct arrangements through the permanent representative here instead of the present round about method through the British Embassy is expected to save a great deal of time in the handling of important business.

"How to Come Down Safely."

Special to Evening Telegram.

PARIS, Sept. 24.

The old problem of how to come down safely is yet to be solved by navigators of the air. This is emphasized by the accident to Chavez yesterday. The French aviators and constructors are intensely interested to discover the exact cause of the Peruvian mishap, which, they consider, is proof positive of a weakness of construction in aeroplanes, which must be corrected according to the accounts of experts printed here. Today a wire snapped permitting the wings to collapse, as Chavez restrained his motor later having planned down a distance of half a mile. His speed as he approached the aerodrome is estimated at fully 68 miles an hour. The constructors agreed that the glide earthward after the motor had been stopped subjects the stays of the wings to a tremendous strain and they believe that Chavez's machine gave way when suddenly put to the extra tension caused by the re-starting of the motor.

Fatal Garage Fire.

Special Evening Telegram.

NEW YORK, Sept. 24.

Eight persons were injured and 2 perhaps fatally in an early morning fire which destroyed $200,000 worth of automobiles, at a 41st Street garage here to-day. Most of the cars were the property of wealthy residents of the nearby avenues and were waiting to be overhauled for use in the Vanderbilt Cup Race meet next week. One of the garage employees, a foreigner, is missing and is believed to have been burned to death.

Dissolution of Finnish Diet

Special to the Evening Telegram.

HELSINGFORS, Finland, Sept. 24.

The dissolution of the Finnish Diet appears imminent. The President had declined to submit two Imperial Bills on the ground that the measures are the direct proposals of the Russian Ministerial Council instead of the Emperor. The Bills relate to the rights of Russian subjects in Finland and to a tax in lieu of personal military service. The attitude assumed by the President was decided upon at conference of the Finnish leaders.

Abandon Loan Negotiations.

Special Evening Telegram.

PARIS, Sept. 24.

It is understood here that the English syndicate headed by Sir Ernest Cassel has abandoned the negotiations for a loan of $50,000,000 to Turkey, in deference to the objections of the French and British Governments.

Chavez Cheerful.

Special to Evening Telegram.

DEMODOSSALA, Italy, Sept. 24.

Chavez the aeroplanist, who flew across the Alps yesterday, and was seriously hurt in landing here, is doing nicely at his hotel, although weak he is in a most cheerful mood.

Ancient Building Imperilled by Ants.

The Castle of Wakayama has been found to be in a state of ruin due to the attacks of African white ants. The main supporting pillars have been entirely hollowed out by the insects. On examination it has been discovered that the barracks in Awa and the Miyama fortresses in Kii district are also being ruined by these harmful insects.

The Military Department has despatched an expert to undertake the extermination of the pests. He says that should the authorities fail in exterminating the insects all the fortresses along the Kii and Awa rivers will be ruined, and should the insects once reach Kioto the temples and other ancient buildings would be lost in a few years.—From the Japan Advertiser.

Const. Power arrived here by Saturday night's train. He had three weeks' leave of absence and spent a very pleasant holiday with his relatives at Trinity.

TWO YOUNG GIRLS Leave by the Rosalind Under Circumstances That Alarm Their Friends.

Pauline O'Reilly and Katie Tremblott, cousins, of Placentia, who had been in this city in domestic service all summer, are now on board the S. S. Rosalind on the way to New York. Pauline was in service at the Presentation Convent, and Katie, her cousin, had a nice place with Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell, Queen's Road. Both girls appeared to be quite happy and contented till last Wednesday when a young "gentleman" appeared at the Convent saying that he was from Placentia, and wanted to see his cousin, Miss O'Reilly. The girls were out together that evening, and when they returned home both informed their employers that they were going to leave. On being questioned as to what they were going to do and where they were going they would give no information. Mrs. Mitchell happened to be out of town at the time but her sister who was at the house in charge knew that Katie had no wages "counting to her." The other girl, Pauline, made a bold demand for five dollars that would not be due her till the end of the month, and made such a rumpus that the Rev. Mother was constrained to give her the money and let her go. Neither Pauline nor Katie would answer any questions as to where they were going. Enquiry was made on Friday and it was found that the girls had purchased tickets to New York at Harvey & Co's, and had gone off in the Rosalind as steerage passengers. They had only $5, and the tickets to New York would have cost them five times that amount. Their employers regarded all the circumstances as being so suspicious, and knowing the girls to be good and innocent they informed the police. Inspector General Sullivan has been informed and is now doing some cabling to Halifax and New York, while Detective Byrne is about the wharves and schooners seeking information about the mysterious cousin who gave his name at the Convent as Mr. White. The circumstances of the case recall those of the White Slave Traffic, excite suspicion and call for the enquiry which is being made. Some people believe there is an agency in this city doing the devilish work and furnishing the funds to send innocent girls away to their ruin. All this goes to show the necessity of having a Working Girls Home established in the city where girls could get the protection they now so badly need, and where ladies who want girls or help would be able to get them. Hundreds of poor and innocent girls come here from the outports every year, and many of them go out of the Colony to destruction. We understand that the Rev. Mother of the Presentation Convent has a fund of $3,000 on hand for the erection of a Home for Working Girls.

JOB PRINTING Neatly EXECUTED

Escaped Serious Injury

While breaking down flour in C. F. Bennett's store Saturday, Mr. Thos. Kennedy, of Flower Hill, narrowly escaped having his arm broken in several places. He pulled out the under barrel of five tiers of flour when the whole came down and caught his right hand between the barrel on the ground and the next to it. The hand was badly mashed and the flesh was torn. But that Mr. Jas. Fitzgerald took the weight off by using a crow bar the arm would have been terribly injured. The man had to go to a doctor for treatment.

PHOTOGRAPHED OFFICERS.—Saturday afternoon Mr. Jas. Vey took some excellent photographs of the officers of the Laborers' Union at his studio. They will be enlarged and hung in the rooms of the Union.

Lost All His Money.

A poor fisherman who was paid off his small summer's wages Saturday afternoon, lost it all on the street while going from the Royal Stores to Scott Street. He has a large family and no other means to support them. It would be a great act of charity as well as honesty on the part of the finder to return the money.

HELD GARDEN PARTY.—On the grounds surrounding her residence, Waterford Road, Mrs. Garrett Byrne and other ladies of St. Patrick's Women's Association held a successful children's garden party Saturday. A large number of little ones attended and the affair was an enjoyable one in every respect. A substantial amount was thus realized for the building fund of St. Patrick's Church.

Coopers' Stock Stolen.

Since the death of the late Mr. Robert Moore, his son Mr. John Moore has discovered that some person or persons unknown entered his cooperage on Moore Street, off Batters' Hill, and stole therefrom staves, heading and other material to the value of at least $40. The door was forced open by the thieves and it is believed that stock stolen was sold. If the parties are discovered they will get well deserved punishment.

Captured Two Whales.

Passengers by Saturday night's train say that whales were very plentiful in Conception Bay Saturday, and that the Port Saunders captured two large hump backs and towed them in to Harbour Grace. Since starting to work there she has killed eight fish. The hump was seen in the Bay and it is believed she also has done well.

Had Him Arrested.

Saturday night a teamster of the West End went home to his house while under the influence and "raised Cain" with his wife and children. Fearing that he would begin smashing the furniture his wife had to call in Consts. O'Flaherty and Whalen who placed the man under arrest. On getting to Adelaide Street he attacked the officers who had to handcuff him, and then putting him in a cab he was driven to the station.

NOTE OF THANKS.—Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Colah desire to thank the following persons for their kindness and sympathy and also for wreaths and flowers sent to adorn the coffin of their darling child: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Withers, Mrs. (Capt.) Berg, Mrs. Andrews, Miss Andrews, Mrs. E. Soper, Mrs. M. Manucl, Mrs. P. Maher, Mrs. D. Cook, Mrs. W. Peet, Mrs. W. Chard, Mrs. W. Thorne, Mrs. T. Smith, Mrs. Fry, Mrs. Gardner, Miss J. Payne, Miss Taylor, Mrs. Heath, Mrs. and Miss Morgan, Miss Bartlett, Mrs. Driscoll, Mrs. T. Murphy, Mesdames Hardy, Spooner, Noseworthy, Walters and Moore.—adv.11

Baptized in Odd Place.

Two years ago a 'crypt christening' took place in Great Britain's Parliamentary palace, at which Archdeacon Wilberforce, chaplain of the House of Commons, officiated. This christening by virtue of a privilege granted originally by the Pope to Edward III, took place in the Parliamentary crypt chapel.

The infant baptized was the child of Mr. Bradshaw, the resident engineer, and was born within the precincts of the royal palace of Westminster. It was this fact which brought the baby within the privileges of the old papal grant (still preserved in the record office) by which the Pope presented a college of priests for his 'new chapel of St. Stephen' and also a font, in which the children of the royal family, as well as any other children born within Westminster palace, might be baptized.

The last case of the kind was a christening in the family of Viscount Selby when he was Speaker; indeed, there have been only three cases within the last century in which the privilege has been exercised by virtue of birth within the precincts of the Parliamentary palace.—The Strand.
