A Very Slick Prevaricator.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—I notice that in your editorial notes of a recent date, you drew attention to the fabrications to which the Premier Sir Edward Morris is committing himself while stumping sections of the north, in the interests of the Tory Party, which he leads. His latest then is that "we have captured the American market." Well certainly that is going some when only the day before Sir Edward made this declaration, the public message showed that the whole question of the revision of the American tariff which of course includes salt cod, would not be finalized for two months to come. No wonder is it that his latest created "Honorable" and close personal friend exclaimed in referring to him in days of yore: "What a lovely liar!" Truly age has not dampened Sir E's. armour in this respect. If the people of the north knew the wily Edward as well as we of the District of St. John's West, they would take all his declarations with a large discount. Edward has succeeded by subterfuge, cunning codding (and where he thought fear existed) bulldozing. We in the West End remember all his great promises, his jam and collar factories, etc., two blade razors, and few will forget the night he, at a public meeting in the West End Hall, brought on the stage a number of American "capitalists," who were going to start various industries right away, but who after polling day were never heard of more. Some were uncharitable enough to say that they were hoboes imported and dressed for the occasion. Anyhow Sir Edward never enlightened his constituents as to who they were. We of St. John's West seem to take pleasure in the codding of this fellow, but I think that the coming fall will witness the revelation. It is amazing to see this fellow every four years working overtime as a "country saver." He cares as much about Newfoundland or Newfoundlanders as a Hottentot. Edward is minding the "11th commandment" every time, and judging from appearances his attention to it has not been unfruitful. "Country-saver" forsooth. If I mistake not, however, the northern people will show the Tory Premier that they are not as gullible as he imagines, and that they will resent his attempt to cod them by telling them that the American market is captured. Possibly in a future communication I may be able to give some instances of Morris's contempt for the laborers and tradesmen of St. John's. Every man knows how he honors and reveres the fisherman. He certainly showed it when he sat like a dumb dog in the house and heard Cashin his Minister of Finance, designate them cullage. It is about time for some one to unmask Morris, and to show Newfoundlanders that while professing to serve and advance them, he is codding and making game of them, and in private and with boozing companions has often had his sneer at them.

Yours indignantly,
WEST END LIBERAL.

What About Your Cough?

It is gradually growing from bad to worse? A person contracts a cold some way or other. Very often you do not know how you contracted it. The symptoms do not begin until 1 or 2 days after.

1st—It effects the head, causing a nasty, uncomfortable feeling for about 26 hours, leaving the head and affecting the throat and gradually settling on the chest, which 9 cases out of 10 is neglected. This is the time when the danger is at hand.

If there is nothing to relieve the spasms of coughing and to take effect on the bronchial organs of the throat and chest, the chances of the cough leaving the system of its own accord is very rare.

As a rule in the night your cough is worse than any other time. Phorotone Cough Mixture quickly gets at the seat of all kinds of coughs and colds, and in a few hours great relief is obtained. If you mix equal parts of Stafford's Liniment and Sweet Oil in a saucer, warm slightly and apply on a piece of thick flannel, placing same over chest and allowing it to remain three or four hours, this will also relieve you a great deal.

Hundreds of people have coughs and colds gradually growing from bad to worse just because they do not take the proper treatment. If you are one of these don't delay any longer.

Phorotone Cough and Cold Cure is prepared only by DR. F. STAFFORD & SON, St. John's, Nfld. Price 25c. a bottle; postage 5c. extra. apr25.1f

A Different View.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—In all his writings I.C.M. invariably takes a benevolent view of men and things. The little quotation at the head of his article on the Gipsy Troupe performance in Saturday's Daily News, might very suitably be his motto. But when he speaks "good words" indiscriminately, as I think he does in his unusual advert into the circle of concert criticism, it seems to me that the mischief it might do quite warrants a word in reply, especially when I find myself with such divergent views on the performance.

From artistic, musical, literary and refining viewpoints, I.C.M. finds the entertainment eminently satisfying. If by artistic success he means the bright costumes of the Gipsies and the stage setting, there is some truth in it, as the costumes were perhaps less bizarre and less unbecoming than many so-called fashionable creations which we see and wonder at on Water Street just now.

From a musical standpoint, I agree with I.C.M. if we think only of two performers which were in every sense musical. But after this, I must part company with him. The music of the Gipsies affected me not at all, and I cannot remember even, at this writing, whether I understood one word of either choruses or songs. No doubt the action was everything but this descent into vaudeville has nothing to do with music.

The literary standpoint hangs on the sketch (or was it a drama?) which charmed I.C.M. so much. It seems to me that all literature worthy the name, is great, first and foremost in its sincerity and truth. Now the words that were put in the mouth of the masked lady by the author of the sketch, had but one object, and that was to act a lie; to deceive a morally unstable young diplomat, who, enticed to forget his honor, becomes strong (?) enough to act a coward's part in committing suicide when he thinks all is lost. It is to put a premium on unprincipled sophistry to encourage sketches that show moral weakness, even if at the last everyone becomes good and "lives happily ever afterward."

A refining influence? No! How can anyone say so with the remembrance of the Duet and Dance by two of the Gipsies? I do not know what the song was about but the "trot" (I cannot call it a dance) which followed, surely might have been omitted with advantage. It was neither graceful nor unaffected.

Altogether it was an entertainment to "tickle" the fancy, and the mischief occurs when the shadow is taken for the substance and when this "ticking" is mistaken for refined and elevated feeling. Coleridge says "that only can which with propriety be styled refinement which, by strengthening the intellect, purifies the manners," and I am content to leave that definition without comment. I do not wish to be unduly critical and I do not think that anything I have written errs on this side as much as I.C.M.'s notice errs on the eulogistic side.

To couple the performance with "The Messiah" as a refining influence must surely be a slip of the pen. They have absolutely nothing in common.

Yours truly,
—T. N. M.

PUTS AN END TO BACKACHE QUICKLY CURES WEAK KIDNEYS

A Few Doses Give Relief, and Helps Lifeless Organs Regain Health, Strength and Activity.

It is useless, dangerous, and unnecessary to be tortured with the digging, twisting pains of backache and rheumatism, or suffer with disagreeable kidney and bladder disorders any longer.

The new discovery, Croxone, provides a remedy which every sufferer can now depend upon to promptly and surely relieve all such misery and bring about a speedy cure.

Croxone cures these troubles because it quickly overcomes the very cause of the disease. It soaks right into the stopped up, inactive kidneys, through the membranes and linings; cleans out the little filtering glands; neutralizes and dissolves the poisonous uric acid and makes the kidneys filter and sift from the blood all the waste and poisonous matter that clog the system and cause such troubles. It does not matter whether you have but slight symptoms or the most chronic, aggravated case of kidney, bladder trouble, or rheumatism that it is possible to imagine, for the very principle of Croxone is such that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results.

You will find it different from all other remedies. There is nothing else on earth like it. It starts to work the minute you take it and relieves you the first time you use it; and all the misery and suffering that go with such troubles end.

You can secure an original package of Croxone from any first class druggist. All druggists are authorized to personally return the purchase price if it fails to give the desired results the very first time you use it.

Remarkable Escape from Starvation. off Cape Horn.

Extract of letter from DAVID JAMES (Master) of the late bark "Colorado," of Glasgow.

"Having lost our ship on Staten Island, on the 5th of July, and having saved neither effects nor provisions, we were then compelled to travel over the island for ten days, subsisting on nothing but shell-fish and seaweed. On the 19th of July we came across another shipwrecked party of seventeen, the surviving part of the crew of the British ship "Dunstaffnage," of Glasgow, fourteen having perished through exposure. Now, the ship was lost on the 23rd of June, and a lot of the cargo, consisting of EPPS'S COCOA, was washed ashore out of the wreck. There was nothing saved except the Cocoa, and we, numbering twenty-five men, were kept alive on it up to the 20th of August, when we were rescued by the steamer "Mercurio," of Buenos Aires.

"Too much praise cannot be given to this Cocoa. We had a good stock of it; there, we used it as a food-stuff for drink, we also baked it on the fire, which kept us alive and warm for weeks on this barren island, situated in a region of perpetual ice and snow."

Delayed in Ice.

As shown in the regular schedule of the Reid Co.'s ships published by the papers yesterday, both the Duchess and Melgie were delayed by ice on their trips north. The Duchess which left Lewisporte, Sunday, met a very heavy body of ice in Green Bay and had to return to Lewisporte. The Melgie also met similar conditions in the Straits and had to run to Port Saunders.
