MIRACLE MOTOR-GAS TABLETS

Solve Your Problems
You realize that you are spending much money on your motor power and did you ever know that you were cutting down your Gasoline Because the increased cost of the gasoline, you are using a low test of Gas, which contains many impurities, such as tar, sulfur, iron and sulphur, causing an accumulation of carbon in the cylinders.

MIRACLE MOTOR-GAS is a powerless chemical in tablet form, easy to use—the tablets placed in the tank, one to each gallon of fuel. Being soluble, they dissolve immediately and cannot in any way stop or clog the feed pipe.
They save 25 per cent. of engine trouble and clean out all carbon.

MIRACLE MOTOR-GAS

Enclosed please find a sample of sample of MIRACLE MOTOR-GAS. The material is completely soluble in gasoline. It leaves absolutely no residue.

It is neutral in reaction—that is, it contains neither acids nor alkalis, and will therefore have no harmful effect on the various parts of the engine with which it may come in contact.

It does not contain any oxygenating materials, such as camphor, alcohol or other and its products of combustion will, therefore, be similar to those of the engine produced by the combustion of high grade gasoline.

TRIAL OF GERMAN WAR CRIMINALS.

LEIPZIG, May 23.
The trial of the German war criminals, as provided in the Versailles Treaty, opened in the Supreme Court here to-day. Little interest was displayed by the public, and there was only a small gathering outside the court to watch the arrival of the British Commissioners headed by Sir Ernest Pollock, Solicitor-general of Great Britain. The first case was that of Sergeant Hoynes, charged with cruelty toward British prisoners in Serene, in Westphalia. The necessary table near the Judges. After the interpreter had been sworn in the German witnesses were ushered into the courtroom.

IN TROUBLED SILESIA.
BERLIN, May 23.
Over crippled telegraph and telephone wires come reports from Oppeln that Germans and Poles are engaged in heavy artillery and machine gun fire all along the Oder, both sides are entrancing and people in several of the towns are panic-stricken. While general reports from Upper Silesia indicate considerable reinforcement of both insurgent and German sides, menacing food shortage in the rebellious area and extension and intensifying of conflicts, the German Government denies all responsibility for disturbances and declines to comply with the French request to forward money to pay miners, which was considered necessary to forestall possible chaotic conditions. Germany, however, promises to exercise great vigilance in order to prevent volunteers from crossing the German frontier, and says that to this end the police force on German-Silesian border will be materially increased. A French note asserts that German forces at Kreisberg number 8,000 and are under command of a former army officer; that the Ratisforce, also commanded by a former army officer, approximates 9,000, and, in addition, Germans in the vicinity of Oppeln and Krappitz have organized and armed under command of former officers.

GERMANY REPLIES TO FRANCE.

PARIS, May 23.
The German Government's note delivered to the French Foreign Office to-day, says the Government has no influence on measures of self-protection taken by the population of the Upper Silesian territory, which is under administration by the Inter-Allied Commission, which is solely responsible for the maintenance of law and order there. The note was in reply to the French note delivered in Berlin on May 19, asking Germany to close the frontier between Germany and the plebiscite territory as "Poland" has done. The German Government says it has taken measures to prevent the entrance of German irregular troops, but that it cannot interfere with measures of self-protection taken by the population, which, unprotected by French troops, are in a state of legiti-mate self-defence. Re-establishment of law and order, the note says, is not a question of resumption of work, but the insurrection has a political character, tending to impose Polish rule upon Upper Silesian population by violence and in violation of all dispositions of the Peace Treaty and justice. The German Government has not, however, lost hope of seeing efforts by the Inter-Al-Allied Commission to find means to restore regular and legitimate authority in Upper Silesia, and to free the population from the yoke of foreign insurgents.

A MAMMOTH CONFERENCE.

WASHINGTON, May 23.
The establishment of a confederation of British America, to include Canada and the British Colonies of Bahamas, Barbados, Bermuda, Jamaica, the Leeward Islands, Trinidad, Windward Islands and possibly British Honduras and British Guiana, was reported in official circles here to-day to be under consideration in these British Dominions and possessions of North, South and Central.

BELFAST ELECTIONS.

BELFAST, May 23.
Elections for new Parliaments in Ireland under the Home Rule Bill, were carried out throughout Ireland to-day. Only in the North were ballots cast, as nominations for the Southern Irish Parliament were made without contest. It is possible that Belfast results may be known Wednesday night, but the others will not be in for several days. Belfast accused to not political fights, has never seen such an election morning. It was more of a fight to get to the polls than a stand-up battle. The idea seemed to be to get to the polls early to prevent personation under the proportional representation system, which was being used. In some sections there were barrages, bricks and stones and some shots, before the polling booths, where either side was stronger, long lines formed before the polls to prevent the minority from reaching the booths. There were a large number of child voters, ranging in age from two to sixteen.

ROSEN JOINS CABINET.

Dr. Friedrich Rosen, German Minister to Holland, was to-day appointed Foreign Minister in the Cabinet of Chancellor Wirth.

U. S. EMERGENCY TARIFF.

WASHINGTON, May 23.
The House to-day adopted the conference report on the emergency tariff, which now goes to the President.

How to Apply the Profits

Editor, Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir—Newfoundland's share of the profits of the Army Canteens is in the vicinity of $20,000. What to do with this is to come up for discussion at a meeting of the veterans, to be held shortly. To divide it amongst all returned men is out of the question, involving considerable trouble, which would not be justified by the amount each would receive—an amount that would not exceed three or four dollars per man.

Here is a suggestion which I conceive to be a good, practical, common sense one. Set aside and invest $10,000 of this sum, which will yield an income of $600.00 per year at the least.
With this annuity establish scholarships to be called the "Veteran" Army and Navy, or any name which would be decided upon. Two prizes of $50 each for the winning boy and girl in the Primary, and two prizes of $25 each on the same lines for the winners in the Intermediate Grade. Those eligible to sit for the exams would be the brothers and sisters, sons and daughters of all ex-service men.

Soldiers and Sailors, think this over! Here is a fitting manner to honor our fallen comrades! Let this be our memorial. Unique—in that every man who has served from Newfoundland, has contributed—it is wholly and solely a Veterans' Memorial.

Thanking you for space, Mr. Editor, I am,
Yours truly,
ARVET.

Girls' Industrial Home.

The regular bi-weekly meeting of this Society was held at the Seamen's Institute on Saturday last. The respective committees reported good progress. Every effort is being made to surround the girls now in the Jensen Camp Staff House with healthy, happy influences, to counteract the evils following misguided childhood.
The life that has no law but its own will, is open and exposed, night and day, to influences which impel upon errands and deeds of destructive evil.
Therefore provision for constant association in conditions conducive to curbing the evil and preventing the wrong that inevitably follow the neglected, unprotected girl, is a necessity of the land. Women of Newfoundland, rally to the work of prevention, and support this effort to establish a home of industry for young unprotected girls.—COM.

Relics of Ancient Egypt.

Offered at London Sales.

London.—Relics of ancient Egypt, including many of Nebuchadnezzar and a mummy form, named "She," the original of Sir Rider Haggard's novel, are about to be sold by Messrs.
Southey. The collection was made by the late Lord Amherst and his daughter, Lady William Cecil, and is one of the most interesting private collections in England, ranging as it does from the earliest dynasties to the last of the Egyptian Kings. Some of the relics were excavated by Lord Amherst and his daughter themselves in the Nile Valley at Telet-Amarna and at Assuan.

There are many figures of royal personages and high priests, some painted wood, their names stirring one's imagination. There are, for instance, "the Royal Scribe," "A Scribe of the Temple of Amen," "the Divine Father of Writ," "Scribe of the Palace of the Divine Writing," and "Chief of Harim." Figures used in funeral rites are also included in the unique collection, such as wooden hawks, "soul birds," and carved wooden mummy cases in the shape of costs.

A Rare Specimen.

A rare specimen of the new empire is preserved in the form of a draught-board, one of the oldest in the world. Of the thirty draughtsmen nine blue pawns have been recovered.

Portraits in wax of Egyptian women, showing their style of coiffure and jewellery, will be of special interest to the fair sex and the student of fashions, who will also find food for study in the tablets, boxes, wooden palettes, color rubbers and "domestic spoons." A beautifully carved statuette, painted and gilded, shows a lady wearing a massive court wig, a long pleated robe, with deep collar, armlets and bracelets.

The cuneiform tablets, covering a period of several thousands of years, include an important cylinder of Nebuchadnezzar, referring to the prosperity of his reign and the temples he had restored.
