SHARKEY IN THE RING AGAIN.

And the news has come out of California that Tom Sharkey has asked for and obtained a boxing license in that State. Tom is now fifty-two years old. But he is very well known both in the United States and Canada, and has always been a picturesque figure.

He was born in Ireland and served in the navy, and in the late nineties, he beat all the fighters who came up against him, till he met Corbett.

He could not beat Gentleman Jim, but he fought him a four round draw, and that made his reputation.

He could not stand up, however, before Jeffries and Fitzsimmons. He made a lot of money and started a saloon in New York, which was a curiosity for visitors from out of town.

But he got in with a bad gang, and he took too much interest in the ponies both on the thoroughbred and the harness turf.

That is why he became so well known to Canadians. He used to follow the races here, in addition to appearing in variety shows.

It is not definitely known, but it is expected that his license is only a trainer's or second's license, since his age virtually forbids participation in real fights.

POYNTON'S GREAT WALKING FEAT.

For the third year in succession, F. Poynton, late of Leicester Harriers, and now of Derby Walking Club, has secured the National Championship of the Road-Walking Association. At Derby he covered the 20 miles in 2 hrs. 48 min. 17 2-5 sec. Both the entries and crowd were records, and the local hon.-sec., Jack Britton and T. Scraton are to be complimented. There were 17 teams, representing 118 starters. At the start Depledge (Sheffield United), led at a fast pace, and soon opened a big lead. At two miles he was forty seconds in front of Wagenheim (Yorkshire) second, with Sandy (Surrey A.C.) third, but Poynton and Goodwin were close behind. At five miles Poynton had gone up second to Depledge with Sandy next. For the clubs Sheffield led Belgrave (holders) by 26 points. Poynton soon after took the lead. At ten miles Poynton looked certain to win so strongly was he walking. Depledge was tiring, as also was Sandy. Goodwin and Johnson were fast coming up. Watts, the seven miles champion, retired here. Although the first Belgrave man was only seventh, they still led Sheffield by 22 points. At 15 miles Goodwin went up second, with Jackson next followed by Cooper and Rickard, both of Belgrave. Sandy fell back whilst Depledge was having a bad time. Poynton here led by over five minutes. He walked finally in the finish in Market Square, an easy winner. His walking was his very best and he is a great champion. Lloyd Johnson walked grandly and was second for the Leicester Club. Edgar Horton stayed back with Watts for the first half so he put in a great finish. Baker, Burnet and Lloyd, for Queen's Park, were splendid and gained for their club the gallant third place. Belgrave and Surrey A.C., had a terrific battle for chief honors and the holders just held on by a single point.

As she has plenty of endurance, her admirers seem to be very certain of her success.

As was shown in the case of Omer Perrault, the French-Canadian boy, who made the attempt more than once, a great deal also depends, upon taking advantage of the tides at the right moment.

It is stated that Miss Ederle is being backed financially and otherwise by the Woman's Swimming Association of the United States.

NEGRO JUMPER BROKE WORLD'S RECORD.

CHICAGO, June 14.—Dehart Hubbard, University of Michigan's famous negro athlete, smashed the world's record for the running broad jump by four and one-eighth inches in the National Collegiate Track and Field Championship Meet here yesterday. Hubbard making his final intercollegiate appearance, jumped 25 feet, 10 7-8 inches, thereby eclipsing the former world's record of 25 feet 6 3-8 inches, made by R. Legendre, of Georgetown University at the Olympic games in Paris, last summer.

NO GOOD IN 1924, BRILLIANT IN 1925.

After every great sporting event, things come out about the chief participants, that one would never hear of otherwise.

Flying Ebony, which won the Kentucky Derby last year, with Sande up, was one of seven horses bought by Gifford E. Cochran two years ago for a total of $181,000.

Six of these he bought by a pre-auction arrangement, out of a lot of yearlings that had been shipped from Kentucky by Edward F. Simms, and then when the auction took place he took a fancy to the jet black colt by The Fawn out of Princess Mary and paid $21,000 for him.

The septette was trained last year by former jockey Schilling and hardly made their feed bill in purses. Then Coventry which was one of the seven started Cochran's lucky year by winning the Preakness. This shows the ups and downs of racing luck, once more.

Sande, the wonder-jockey, it appears now, is an enthusiastic golfer, but not a very good one as he admits himself, his score being around "the late nineties" he says.

MONEY TO BURN FOR OLYMPICS.

The Canadian Amateur Athletic Union has been informed that there will be no fear that the Olympic Games for 1928 will not be held in Holland since ample funds have been promised lately for that purpose.

The majority of the City Council of Amsterdam has agreed to appropriate 5,000,000 Guilders for general improvements, under which heading will come the holding of the Olympic Games, for which 500,000 Guilders will be set aside.

In addition to that, the sportsmen of the city of Batavia on the Island of Java, in the Dutch East Indies, have gathered another 150,000 Guilders towards the same plan.

A Guilder is worth about forty American cents so that there will be for the present at any rate some $260,000 to spend on the preparations.

Few people realize that the Netherlands for years had a dollar in their currency which is known as Ryksdaalder and which was as large as a United States silver dollar.

WORLD'S RECORD.

STOCKHOLM, June 12.—Edwin Wide Sweden's champion runner, yesterday established a new world's record for 2,000 metres. He covered the distance in five minutes 29 9-10 seconds, which is four-tenths of a second faster than Nurmi's time, made in 1922.

(On June 8, Wide made a new world's record for the 3,000 metres, of 8 minutes 27 5-10 seconds).

Susu in Port

S.S. Susu, Capt. Jacob Kean, returned from the Fogo Mail Service yesterday morning, after a round trip of four and a half days. The Susu brought a part cargo of freight, and the following passengers:—Rev. W. March, H. A. Russell, H. R. Brooks, V. J. Guy, B. J. Parsons, J. Roberts, Miss Collins, Miss Blahop and several in steerage. Capt. Kean reports a fair sign of fish at the Wareham's and Peckford's Island, with traps securing from 5 to 6 barrels per day, otherwise there is no improvement in the fishery since the previous week. There is a sign of ood all along the coast, but operations have been hampered by rough weather. On Wednesday last much damage was done to the crops at Fogo and Change Islands during the gale, but in other places the fishermen took them out of the water when it was seen that the glass was falling. A schr., owned by Capt. Parsons, dragged her anchors in the gale and went ashore at Carmanville. It is possible that the vessel will be refloated at high tide. The Susu met with stormy weather on the run north but it was quite moderate on the trip south.

Caplin at Topsail

At Topsail caplin, which put in their first appearance last week, were being taken in large numbers this morning, and the beach presented a busy scene as the silver horde was being pulled ashore, and carted off to the farm lands.

While viewing the scene one cannot but recall the remarks of Capt. Gosse, with reference to the neglected opportunity to turn these succulent fish to better account. To discover an effective method of putting them up for market may require an outlay and possibly failure at first, but it is only by overcoming such difficulties that ventures succeed, and we trust that Mr. Chambers, who is investigating the canning industry, may be able to offer some suggestions which will lead to the utilization of these fish in a more profitable way than as fertilizer.
