BRUCE.

The amount received by Mr. McNamara, sub-collector of customs at Walkerton, as his share of certain seizures in 1888 was $23,644, instead of $23,644, as reported on Tuesday. A misplaced comma made all the difference.

CHAS. MUNN.

Chas. Munn, an aged pioneer of the township of Erin, has for the last five years lived with his son, A. Munn, near Paisley. One day last week he went picking berries, and not returning towards evening, at Fairfield Plains. It perched itself on the outside of the gallery window and looked as solemn and respectful as could be expected of a deacon. The congregation giggled.

ELGIN.

Mrs. Samuel Price, Port Stanley, who has been in Toronto for the past thirteen weeks under the care of a celebrated oculist, returned home greatly improved. She had a cataract removed from one eye and the inflammation in the other is subsiding. Mrs. Price can discern things quite distinctly at a distance with the eye from which the cataract has been removed, which is wonderful for a lady nearly 80 years of age.

W. W. Charlesworth, evangelist, and his wife, from Teddington, Eng., have located in St. Thomas, where a friendly welcome was extended to them in the Baptist Church on Tuesday evening.

E. E. Kimmer, of the Vienna High School, has been re-engaged at a salary of $700.

Thursday morning John Fraser, an old man over 80 years of age, who resides south of Dutton, drew the milk to the Wallace-town factory for his grandson. In returning he was thrown into the ditch, together with the wagon and cans, and narrowly escaped serious injury.

On Tuesday evening an attempt was made to enter the residence of Neil McLean, of Dutton. Mr. McLean is in Chicago, and the rest of the family had gone to the station to meet some friends, and on returning, Mrs. McLean, who was accompanied by several of the neighbors, heard a noise as if some person was endeavoring to remove the putty from the window. Shortly afterwards the sound of glass being taken out of the window was heard, and Mrs. McLean gave the alarm. The house-breakers, two in number, quickly decamped, running through the garden, when all trace of them was lost.

A tramp met with a hearty reception at the residence of Mr. R. H. McLean, Dutton, one of the family were absent excepting a young son of Mr. McLean. The tramp accepted the offer, and the family were absent excepting a young son of Mr. McLean. The tramp accepted the offer, and the family were absent excepting a young son of Mr. McLean.

HURON.

Richard Hunter, Uxbridge, died recently, aged 74 years.

Arthur Ramsey was severely bitten by a dog of the name "Bos" at Exeter the other day. The dog was running down the hill at the river, and the dog set upon him and lacerated his limbs in several places. Dr. Tennant happened along at the time and with assistance managed to take the dog off. It then set upon the men but they lassoed it with a rope and it was taken home and shot.

Since the Exeter fire on Sunday there has been no less than two agents for steam fire engines agitating the sale of a steamer to the corporation. Before a steamer is purchased there requires to be a better water supply to feed it. There is none too much water for the present engines. In the fire no engine nor waterworks could have done more than the engines and firemen did to stay the flames. What is wanted is more water and a hook and ladder apparatus.

Gregory Thom, who, previous to his departure for the west, was engaged as principal in the Exeter public school, has been successful at obtaining a high grade certificate in the recent school teachers' examination at Vancouver, B. C. He has been engaged as second teacher in the high school at a salary of $1,200 a year.

LAMBTON.

The Port Huron Ferry Company's boats carried 8,000 passengers on Wednesday. Thousands of Canadians visited the city.

LONDON.

It is rumored that Mrs. Macrae, wife of A. M. Macrae, who decamped with the Security Loan and Savings Company's funds has gone home instead of the disgraceful journey on her husband, and has been removed to the Hamilton Asylum.

The by-law to grant Patterson & Corbin of St. Catharines, about two acres and buildings estimated to cost $8,000 for the purpose of their business was voted on at Peterboro the other day, and was carried by about 350 majority. Unless the by-law is quashed this means the removal of the firm to Peterboro at an early date.

Thursday morning Owen Slavin, an old gentleman aged about 80 years, was overcome by the heat while in the postoffice and fainted away. He was removed to his home in a hack.

MIDDLESEX.

W. S. Donnell died at his residence in Stratford on Thursday. He was in his 73rd year, and had been suffering from a severe attack of bronchitis for some time. Mr. Donnell was a quiet, reserved man and made but few intimate friends since coming to Stratford, which he did some time after his daughter's marriage to the late Colonel English about fourteen years ago. He carried on an extensive business in New Orleans for many years, and was at the time of his death still the owner of a large plantation in Louisiana.

John Smith, of Zeno, has purchased from Anne Daugherty his outfit for transferring freight and passengers from the C. P. R. station at Thamesville. Consideration mentioned, $800.

A gushing spring of water was discovered a few days ago on the farm of Neil Leitch, Moss. It is situated in the bed of a creek, in a stiff clay soil, and has apparently only recently started. There is a strong smell of gas about the spring, and the water has a mineral taste, is of a milky color and quite cold. The depth of the spring was tested and found to be eight feet.

Andrew McIntyre and Alex. McRae, the carpenters who are building McIntyre's grain warehouse in the G. T. R. yard at Guelph, hung their vests a few feet away, and a short time afterwards their watches were gone.

A deputation from the Recreation Park Association of Glenora waited upon the Moss and Elford Union Agricultural Association at their meeting on Saturday, and made them a proposition to the effect that the Park Association would form a joint stock company and purchase the new show grounds from the Agricultural Association, fence the grounds and put the grounds up for show purposes.

The death occurred last Wednesday of P. J. Dewau, in Biddulph. Deceased had been confined to his bed for over a week, and died from congestion of the lungs. He was born in London township in the year 1841. Mr. Dewau served the township for thirteen years as councillor, and one term as deputy reeve, and was a most respected by all. His wife and nine children survive him.

NORFOLK.

A span of young horses attached to a covered buggy, belonging to Anson Austin, of Woodhouse, were left for a moment untied at Simcoe. The horses took fright and ran into the kitchen at Mrs. Harding's boarding house. Both of the horses went through the door and were found in the kitchen beside the cooking stove.

Margaret Cresswell, wife of John Cornwall, a well-known resident of Dereham township, died on Sunday last, in the 82nd year of her age. The deceased lady had suffered from a cancerous disease during the year preceding her death. Deceased has been a resident of the neighborhood 45 years, and for 44 years has resided on the farm which her husband purchased in 1847.

WELLAND.

Russell Griffiths, the 3-year-old son of A. Griffiths, dairyman, Montrose, was out in the fields playing with his brothers on Wednesday evening. The boys returned home, but forgot to bring little Russell with them. Search was made for the little fellow, and his body was found in a small pond near the M. C. R. roundhouse.

WELLINGTON.

The milk from several dairies in Guelph has been analyzed by Professor Ellis, and pronounced to be pure and of the best quality. The report that diphtheria prevails in the city to an alarming extent is greatly exaggerated.

Reuben Evans, one of the pioneers of Framos township, died on Monday, aged 69. The village of Everton and the mills thereto, now owned and operated by Mr. Henry Horst, were named after him.

At the last meeting of the Guelph Board of Education Mr. Peterson moved that the School Management Committee be empowered to devise the ways and means of introducing into the schools some method of instruction upon mechanical subjects. Guelph, board, was essentially a mechanical city, and it was important to train the schoolboys to a knowledge of that which would be of practical advantage to them in after years. Mr. Peterson's suggestions were well received, and a resolution to take action upon them was adopted.

Harry Hamilton, grandson of John Black, Wellington, was feeding with a cow on Friday and was thrown to the ground, breaking his arm above the elbow and dislocating that joint.

there for a couple of weeks, having been removed thence from her residence, near the Erasmus bridge. Her daughter resides in Cleveland.

Maggie, daughter of Chas. Austin, near Mosborough, had a narrow escape from poisoning on Tuesday night. She had been ailing slightly, and by mistake took a teaspoonful of Paris green instead of allspice. A doctor was sent for as soon as the mistake was discovered. The lady was in great pain for some time, and the physician had to use a stomach pump. She recovered.

Some Guelph cattle buyers had a rather severe experience Wednesday in crossing a bridge on the Irvine five miles above Feigus. The bridge broke in the middle, and some 60 head of cattle were launched a distance of twenty feet towards the river. On account of the stringers on the side they did not fall into the river. The animals were rescued after a couple of hours hard work. None of them were killed, although some were injured.

On Sunday last Arch. McEachern, son of Arch. McEachern, sen., of Ospringe, was drowned near Glen Williams under painful circumstances. He was subject to fits, and feeling one coming on he went to the milk shed to get some milk, and losing control of himself, fell in headlong and was drowned before anyone was aware of his whereabouts.

Valentine Delson, of Hespler, was arrested in Guelph on Wednesday on the charge of committing an assault on Aug. 6, at Elora, on Miss Etie Cooper, a 17-year-old girl, who works in one of the mills. The evidence of the girl was taken, after which the prisoner was sent up for trial.

Almost Broken is His Lyre. Mr. James McIntyre is about to issue an edition of his book of poems, which will close his poetic career. The new book will contain 300 pages, and will be handsomely bound and contain his complete works from the collection.

Almost broken was the lyre. In the hands of Bard McIntyre, who long has been a resident of the stream. Till rudely wakened from his dream.

The waters high in each damp pent. Rushed furious when they found vent. Through the flood gates open. Madly roared the foaming tide.

He heard the waters' awful dash. And heard his warehouse crash. And saw the waves in small connection. Bearing his stock off to the ocean.

Now thanks he gives unto each friend. Who a helping hand had lent. The heartfelt thanks of McIntyre.

Old friends and new he'll gladly meet. On the west side of Thames street. Where he has a furniture store. And a good stock of furniture.

What It Does. 1. Purifies the blood. 2. Creates an appetite. 3. Strengthens the nerves. 4. Makes the weak strong. 5. Overcomes the indigestion. 6. Cures scurvy, with rheum, etc. 7. Invigorates the kidneys and liver. 8. Relieves headache, indigestion, dyspepsia, etc.

Arguments are wasted on a wisp, and a man generally finds this out just as he is about to grasp the wisp. Mr. J. R. Allen, upholsterer, Toronto sends us the following: "For six or seven years my wife suffered with Dyspepsia, Constipation, Inward Piles and Kidney Complaint. We tried two physicians and any number of medicines without getting any relief, until we got a bottle of Northrop's Lyman's Vegetable Discovery. This was the first relief she got, and before one bottle was used the benefit she derived from it was beyond our expectation."
