Gen. Mercier's Appeal Unheeded.
PARIS, Oct. 10.—The budget committee has refused to grant Gen. Mercier's appeal for an increase of credit with which to add 35,000 men to the army.

Princess Bismarck Has a Relapse.
LONDON, Oct. 10.—The Central News correspondent in Berlin says Princess Bismarck has had a slight relapse, and Dr. Schweniger has been summoned to Varzin.

Only Workers Wanted.
LONDON, Oct. 10.—The Mansion House relief committee has been advised by the Dominion Government that there is no room in Canada for any class of emigrants other than hard workers. The part failure of the committee's emigration schemes in the past season, it is expected, will practically stop this purely charitable emigration.

Parnell's Biography.
LONDON, Oct. 10.—The Dublin Irish Times says that Mrs. Parnell, widow of the late leader of the Irish party, has given permission to Messrs. John E. Redmond, Timothy Harrington and J. J. O'Kelly to examine the private papers of her husband, and has intrusted Mr. O'Kelly with the work of writing a biography of Mr. Parnell, which will be published at a politically opportune time.

Drowned in Wine.
VIENNA, Oct. 10.—At the Mostar, in Herzegovina, a husband and wife died a most extraordinary death together. The wife went to the wine cellar to get a mug of new strong wine for her husband's supper, and as the enormous cask was not full she leaned over and fell into it. Her husband immediately dropped in after her, and both were drowned in a few minutes. Their property is valued at £20,000, but they lived as simple peasants.

The Czarewitsch's Marriage.
LONDON, Oct. 10.—The Daily Chronicle's Paris correspondent telegraphs: "The Czarewitsch's marriage will be hastened if possible, the religious difficulty having nearly vanished. A prompt alliance has been slightly hindered by the Czarewitsch's attachment to a beautiful Polish dancer named Kezinski. Concerning her a Russian abbot lately remarked: 'The Kezinski dynasty may make more trouble for the Romanoffs than all the Krapotkins.'"

The Czar.
BERLIN, Oct. 10.—Prof. Leyden has again been summoned by wire to attend the Czar, and will start for Livadia this evening and remain some time. According to the Czar's newspapers pneumonia has been established, and none of the official reports concerning the Czar's condition tally with the facts.

Took His Own Life.
LONDON, Oct. 10.—The Foreign Office was this afternoon the scene of a tragedy which created great excitement within the precincts of that department. Mr. P. Henderson, British consul at Cadix, who was in London on leave of absence, called at the Foreign Office, and in the course of conversation with Mr. H. St. G. Foley, the press writer of the Foreign Department, he suddenly drew a revolver, and before Mr. Foley could interfere, he shot himself in the head and fell to the floor, dying in a few minutes. Mr. Henderson's motive for taking his life is unknown.

Marching On.
LONDON, Oct. 10.—A dispatch from Shanghai says it is stated there on good authority that a large force of Japanese has been landed near New Schwang, at the head of the Gulf of Leao Ton, and that the capture of that place within a few days is regarded as inevitable.

A dispatch from Yokohama says that the Japanese Government has decided to raise an internal war loan of £10,000,000, which together with the new taxation for war purposes will bring the resources of the Government up to £26,000,000.

BERLIN, Oct. 10.—It is stated here that China has asked Germany to use her good offices with a view of terminating the war between China and Japan.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—A dispatch from Shanghai to the Central News says that although the Chinese Government has plenty of men at their disposal there is a total lack of modern arms for their use. Many of the Chinese soldiers sent to the front have been armed only with jingals and bows and arrows. The families of the customs officials at Peking are arriving at Shanghai by every steamer. A high official in the service of the Government recently reported that the Chinese fleet, which has been operating against the Japanese squadron, is powerless to cope with the enemy, and, in fact, it is not the slightest use as a means of offense or defense.

LONDON, Oct. 10.—A dispatch to the Star from Shanghai says the Japanese and Chinese outposts had a skirmish on Oct. 9 north of the Yalu River. The Japanese across the river reported that 45,000 Japanese troops had landed at Shanghai Kwan, at the entrance of the Gulf of Liau Tong, and cut all the telegraph wires. The report that the Japanese had landed in force at New Schwang is unconfirmed.

SEASNAI, Oct. 10.—Reports of yesterday's skirmish north of the Yalu River say the Japanese were driven across the river.

Neither the Chinese or Japanese legations at Washington, D. C., has yet been notified by its Government of the reported capture of Che Foo.

The London Times has this dispatch from Tien Tsin: The Emperor is now taking the initiative, and is infusing new energy into the work of national defense, mustering military resources, the existence of which was scarcely suspected. The Japanese are taking elaborate pains to conceal their losses in the recent engagement. Nevertheless, the truth is gradually coming out. Their fleet was crippled more seriously than the Chinese were aware.

Terrific Gales.

Fifty Vessels Ashore on the Coast of Newfoundland.

And Ten Lives at Least Reported Lost.

Numerous Disasters on the New York and New Jersey Shores.

Tugs, Barges, Schooners and Numerous Yachts Go Down—Wrecks Strew the Coast for Miles.

FIFTY VESSELS ASHORE—TEN LIVES LOST.
St. Johns, Nfld., Oct. 10.—A terrible northeast gale raged at St. Pierre last night. This morning fifty vessels were ashore badly damaged. About ten lives were lost. A fleet of some 300 banking vessels was forced to abandon fishing on account of the gale on the Banks Sept. 29 and 30. These vessels have been returning here during the past few days with heavy losses of cables, anchors, lines and dories, and several of the crews are reported missing and it is feared are lost.

THE STORM IN NEW YORK.
NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—New York is today a center of one of the most violent storms that has been known about these parts for years. It had been a genuine hurricane that found its origin in the Indies, swept the Gulf of Mexico, moved upward along the coast, doing much damage and last night reached this city. The storm is moving northeastward, and New England is now feeling its violence. The wires to Sandy Hook are down.

Two yachts were wrecked at Staten Island. The yacht Verena is ashore near Greenvich, Conn. Her crew are in the rigging anticipating a rescue.

The East River gas tank, one of the largest in the country, was blown down this morning. Along the shore the wind blew at the rate of 77 miles an hour.

A WOMAN KILLED.
ENGLEWOOD, N. J., Oct. 10.—During the gale this morning the large brick chimney on Mr. Korr's house on Chestnut street was blown down, and the crew fell through the roof on Miss Mary Kerr, killing her instantly.

FOUR MEN MISSING.
HUNTINGTON, L. I., Oct. 10.—During the storm this morning the tug Belle Williams, with seven barges in tow, was wrecked while trying to make shelter at Lloyd's Harbor. Four of the crew are missing and it is feared were drowned.

WHERE ARE THE CREW?
FORT MONROE, Va., Oct. 10.—The schooner Henry Lippitt (Capt. Howes), with coal from Georgetown, while anchored in the roads, was run into by the schooner Redwing last night and sunk. Capt. Howes and the mate and steward took to the rigging and were rescued at midnight by the crew of the Bay Line steamer Alabama. Fire of the crew took to the boat and have not since been heard from.

HOUSES BLOWN DOWN.
SEABRIGHT, N. J., Oct. 10.—A row of one-story frame buildings was blown down by the gale here this morning; loss, $4,000. The fishing smack Maria Louise, loaded with fish, was driven ashore at Highland Beach and wrecked. The crew of ten men were saved by the life savers.

MANY SMALL CRAFT DESTROYED.
ATLANTIC HIGHLANDS, N. J., Oct. 10.—The storm last night was the most violent that has visited these and adjoining shores for many years. A large number of small craft were destroyed.

TROLLEY CARS KNOCKED OUT.
JERSEY CITY, N. J., Oct. 10.—The storm did great damage in this city and greatly interfered with the working of trolley cars. The high wind tore down the wires in every direction and caused several accidents, two of which proved fatal to horses.

NEW YORK, Oct. 24.—There was a great amount of damage done along the shore near Whitestone. About 6 a.m. an unknown schooner was seen off Whitestone going for the wind in the direction of New York. Her foremast was gone and most of her bow had been torn away. It is not known what became of her crew. Great damage was done in the harbors along the Westchester county shore of the Sound. A dozen or more yachts were wrecked at a loss of $20,000.

THUNDEROUSLY HIGH TIDE.
OYSTER BAY, N. Y., Oct. 10.—A terrible rain storm accompanied by a northwest wind swept over this place today. The tide is the highest ever recalled here, and many docks are under water. A number of small craft anchored in the harbor have been driven ashore. The sloop Dexter, H. A. Townsend, was sunk.

WENT TO PIECES.
GLOUCESTER, Mass., Oct. 10.—The schooner Adelaide (64 tons), owned at Bangor, Me., was driven on the rocks near here during the storm today and went to pieces. The crew effected a landing in their boats.

A WILD STORM.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 10.—The wild storm of last night along the South Atlantic coast doubtless caused many marine disasters. The bark Ogr, of Norway, from Hull, England, to Wilmington, N. C., in ballast, grounded on Cape Fear Bay and became a total loss. The crew of eleven men were rescued by the life savers.

THREE LIVES LOST.
HUNTINGTON, L. I., Oct. 10.—During the heavy gale last night several barges loaded with coal, bound east, and the large steam tug Williams, went ashore at Lloyd's Harbor. A woman and two children were lost. Some men belonging to the crews are missing, and are believed to have been drowned. The beach for a mile is covered with wreckage. The woman who was lost was aboard the barge Jennie Hughes, whose captain, James Murphy, was her brother. With her were her three children. At the height of the storm the woman and children took refuge in the cabin, which was built upon the deck. A wave tore away the cabin and carried it into the sea. The wrecked cabin, in which lay the woman's body, was afterwards found about a mile from where the barge went ashore. One of the children, an 11-year-old boy, still alive, was found on the beach.

The exact loss of life and property cannot be ascertained until the searchers return from the scene of the wrecks. The gale was the severest ever witnessed by dwellers near the bay.

A TERRIBLE WRECK!

The Collapse of a Seven-Story Tenement.

Nine Dead Bodies Taken From the Ruins—Many Persons Injured.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—A seven-story brick structure in course of erection at 74 Munroe street collapsed at 5:30 this morning during a terrific gale and rain storm. Part of it fell the other way on the house 76 Munroe street. At least fifteen persons were known to be in the house at 72 Munroe street. This house was utterly crushed.

A few minutes after the crash the shrieks of the imprisoned victims could be heard blocks away. The building which caused the accident was being constructed as a foundry. Neighbors were loud in denouncing the way it was constructed. An eyewitness says it collapsed at once.

THE VICTIMS.

Following is a list of victims:
Dead—Bertha Kornees, 43 years old, wife of Michael Kornees; Abraham Kornees, aged 7; Solomon Kornees, aged 21; Rosie Abrams, aged 18; Meyer Steinman, aged 21, single; Jennie Steinman, aged 60, married; Isaac Abrams, aged 42; El Abrams, aged 7; Mrs. Basie Abrams, aged 40, wife of Isaac Abrams.
