The cranks are already selecting the eleven for the International match. A high authority has these names jotted down in his vade meeum: Terry, Goldingham, Toronto; Gillespie, A. F. R. Martin, Hamilten; Bengough, Hughes, Halifax; Bristowe, Turton, Brewster, Ottawa; Walker, London; and one other, possibly Henry, Halifax. arnia defeated Exeter at cricket by 74

TERRY AND BEEMER'S GREAT SCORE.
The invincible Terry has once more covered himself with glory, and Dr. Beemer shares the honors. It is said their achievement yesterday on the London Asylum cricket grounds beats the Caugdian record. Opposed to one of the best teams in the Province, the Toronto Cricket Club, and batting against crack bowlers, the combined score of 186 made by Messrs. Gerry and Beemer without the loss of a wicket is certainly remarkable.

YACHTING.

Cowes, Aug. 5.—Emperor William this morning cruised on the Solent for half an hour in a royal national lifeboat. After his sail he returned on board the Kaiser Adelair. A little later the Meteor, the Emperor's yacht, and the Irene started in the closing day of the regatta with ten other yachts. The Meteor was third to cross the starting line. She gives time allowance to all competitors, in the case of one of the yachts the allowance amounting to 29 minutes. Owing to the lightness of the wind the Emperor did not sail on the Meteor.

THE ALERTS WANT A CHANCE.

The Alerts of this city have written to the aporting editor of the Toronto Globe as follows: Dear Sir,—In your issue of Aug. 2, we notice the letter of Chas. N. Gill, of the Cobourg Baseball Club, suggesting a series of games for the championship of Canada, between the Cobourg Baseball Club, the Dukes of Toronto and the Tilsonburg Blues, as the best clubs in their respective localities; all of which would be very beautiful, but for the fact that away back here, almost out of sight, there is a team—the Alerts, representing the good city of London—who propose having their finger in the championship pie, if proper arrangements can be made. We have beaten every team that has been opposed to us, including the famous Blues (from whom we took two out of three games) and the Toronte University. Our record to date is thirteen games won and one lost, which we think is sufficient evidence that the Blues are not the very best west of Toronto. Our time is all taken up until after the 15th., when we will be pleased to talk championship with any teams in Canada.

the combined score of 186 made by Messrs.
Gerry and Beemer without the loss of a vicket is certainly remarkable.

The Toronto eleven went first to bat and retired with the respectable score of 71. W. W. Jones put up 18 runs very nicely; Collins, T. O. S. Jones and H. Cosby also made double figures. Smith and Gillean bowled well for the home team, Smith taking 7 wickets for 34 runs.

The sun was high in the heavens when Erry and Beemer took up their positions, and when it had sunk in the west they were still there. From I o'clock until 5:30 p.m., barring a couple of hours for lunch, they wielded their bats in the most scientific and artistic manner and gave the leather an awful punishing. Valiantly the five good howers from the Queen City strove to smash their wickets, but in vain. It was a magnificent exhibition of cricket—one that was witnessed with delight by the lovers of the game present and that won the admiration of the visitors. The rain became too wet for comfort and stumps were pulled at the hour mentioned. The floronto eleven enjoyed the proverbial hospitality of the Asylum. They play the London Cricket Glub to-day weather permitting on the latter's grounds. Yesterday's score was as follows:

Schaefer has issued a bold defi to Ives. He says: "I was billiard champion for three years and never during that time did I refuse to play anybody any kind of billiards for any reasonable sum of money. I have never asked for more than my rights, and was willing at all times to able by any just decision. I have traveled 4,000 miles to play Ives, and as complications have arisen which debar us from playing for the championship emblem, I will arrange a match with Mr. Ives or anybody else, either one or five nights, for from $500 to $5,000 a side, the game to be played where the most money is offered. I will play any time within six months."

The grand trotting circuit is now under full awing, and, from the way it has commenced, bids fair this year to surpass in interest and in "record-smashing" anything heretofore known. But after leaving Cleveland the flyers dispersed. Delawark, Aug. 5.—Following is the finding of the coroner's jury to-night regarding the recent accident near Melrose:

"We, the jurors empaneled on the inquest held on the body of an unknown man found dead on the track of the C. P. R. west of Melrose station on Aug. 2, find from the evidence that the employes of the railway company are exonerated from all blame as to causing the death of this man."

THE HORSEMAN.

There is no better or pleasanter "road-ster" than a cob pony—no more aristo-cratic mount for a gentleman who has reached that time of life when safety and comfort are the first considerations. When sufficient power and bone are found com-bined with blood, the pony is often seen to show the way to the sixteen-hands hunter in a close or hilly country. in a close or hilly country.

It is a well established fact that over-It is a well established fact that over-grown horses cannot compete with ponies under tests of hardship, exposure or priva-tion. Hence in countries such as Brazil, where long distances have to be covered, deserts sometimes crossed without water, where the animal's power of endurance often means life or death to the rider-ponies alone are used. It is simply mar-velous what distances those little wonders can accomplish in a day under heavy weight, and almost without rest or food.

There is a well defined demand for ponies of the different breeds, and as a consequence the breeding of these family pets is becoming quite an industry in some parts of the country. The Shetland, Exmoor, Welsh and Connemara ponies are hardy and easily reared, and as pets for children find a ready market. The crosses of these ponies with the Hackney or the American road-bred horses make excellent ponies for a lady's phaeton. Such a cross results in ponies about 14 hands high, cobby built, hardy, and having the intelligence and gentleness desirable for ladies' use.
