MONTREAL.

Montreal, Dec. 2.—There were about 650 head of outchers' cattle, 50 calves and 1,500 sheep and lambs offered at the east end abattoir today. Trade in cattle continues rather demoralized. The best butchers maintain that there were no really good cattle on the market today, and it is probable that none of the sales exceeded 24c per lb, and very few went over 3c. Common dry cows and rough stock in general sold at from 2c to 2½c per lb, with hard-looking bulls and lean old cows at about 1½c per lb. The calves were generally a poor lot, and held at from 33 to 36 each for common veals, and from 57 to 36 each for a few of the best. The supply of sheep is much larger than the demand and prices continue low. Sheep sell at from 3c at 3½c per lb; lambs sell in lots at from 3c at 3½c per lb. A few superior lambs at about 3½c per lb. Fat hogs are plent ful, and sell at from 3½c to 4c per lb.

APPRECIATE THEIR PASTOR. At the conclusion of the programme at the Colborne Street Methodist Church last evening Pastor Rigsby announced that the evening's receipts, together with Sunday's collections, would be set aside for the object of clearing off all small floating liabilities. The Sunday collections amounted to $145 61, while the concert netted $160 77 a total of $305 38. The amount aimed at was $300. At the close of the meeting the following resolution was moved by Mr. Henry Pratt, seconded by Mr. Sohn White, and unanimously carried: "We cannot allow this anniversary to pass without extending a hearty vote of thanks to our pastor for the able way in which he has conducted the financial affairs of our church, and brought them to their present flourishing condition, and also for his untiring efforts in making the anniversary a grand success. We would also take this opportunity of thanking the choir master and organist, Mr. and Mrs. H. R. McDonald, and also the choir, the former for the way they have brought the choir to its present excellent standing, and the latter for the cheerful way in which they have given their time and talent in leading the praises of God in song."

The Ladies' Aid were also remembered in a vote, and Rev. James Allen was accorded thanks for his efficient services.

Another person to be tried was out on bail. This was the first time the judge had the privilege of presiding at the court since the number of grand jurors was reduced to thirteen, and in commenting on this fact, he gave an account of the movement which led to the reduction of the jury from 24. He also spoke of the idea held by many that the grand jury was now of little use. Speaking of the changes in the criminal code within the past few years, Judge Elliott said a great majority of the criminals were not tried before juries these times, and that if they were, the courts, instead of occupying a week would extend over a month. In support of this assertion, the judge stated that in the past two years he had tried over prisoners, while the senior judge had tried as many more. Judge Elliott in conclusion reviewed the cases to come up for trial, and gave the jury directions how to pro-

Naturalization papers were presented on behalf of Messrs. Moses Bernstein and Otto E. Brener. Notices of appeal were given in the cases of Robert Hill and John Coursey, who were convicted by Squires Lacey and Macdonald of dumping night soil in London West. Further action was postponed, as the judges in Toronto have under consideration whether or not a person has a right to appeal against a summary conviction. Notice of appeal was also served n the case of Frank O'Rourke, convicted on May 23 by Magistrate Parke on a charge of vagrancy and sentenced to six months in the Central. The appeal will be argued next Monday. MONDAY AFTERNOON. At the sessions yesterday afternoon Edward Houghton, an actor, brought an action against Proprieton Fraser, of the Thompson House, to recover damages for alleged false arrest. Houghton and a company blew into London last spring and billed themselves at the Opera House for a whole week. Business was dull. When the week was ended, Houghton didn't have money to pay his company or square up a bill of $55, which he had run at the Thor House. He promised to pay, and produced a telegram from a friend or bro-ther, stating that money would be forthcoming. Houghton left for Buffalo to procure the funds, but was ar-rested at the bridge on a warrant sworn out by Mr. Fraser, who believed he was going to skip the country.

The jury returned a verdict for $60. nich was set off by the unpaid bill

Three cases were settled between the parties. McKewsie & Thomp-son was an action involving the quality of some varnish. Scott vs. Campbell was an action on account. Leith vs. Goodall was the most interesting of the three. Last July George Leith, of East London, bought a carload of potatoes from Mr. Goodall, Toronto, but the latter was unable to fill his contract. Leith was compelled to buy during the last days of the old crop, and in consequence he lost money. The settlement arrived at was $135 and costs, which is Scott's Emulsion.

And it does them good. Scott's Emulsion is the easiest, most palatable form of Cod-liver Oil, with the Hypophosphites of Lime and Soda added to nourish the bones and tone up the nervous system. The way children gain flesh and strength on Scott's Emulsion is surprising even to physicians.

All delicate children need it. Don't be persuaded to accept a substitute! Scott & Bowne, Belleville. 50c. and $1.
