FOR W. S. CALVERT

Rousing Meeting at Metcalf in the Interest of the West Middlesex Liberal Candidate.

A largely attended and enthusiastic meeting was held last night at Walker's schoolhouse, Metcalfe, in the interest of Mr. W. S. Calvert, M. P. The meeting was addressed by the candidate himself and Mr. J. C. Elliott, and the enthusiastic welcome received by Mr. Calvert promises well for his success in the coming contest. The supporters of Mr. Calvert's opponent, Mr. R. Dunlop, of Napier, have been building upon the fact that the latter gentleman is a Metcalfe man, and would therefore be well supported there, but judging by the reception accorded to Mr. Calvert, Metcalie is as solid as ever for the Liberal cause. A pleasant feature of the occasion was the large number of ladies in attendance. Mr. Calvert is meeting with the heartiest receptions at each of his recovered sufficiently to be removed to her home. —Mr. and Mrs. William Ralph, of Vancouver, B. C., and Miss Ethel Shopland, who has been visiting in the west for a number of months, have arrived in this city.

-Today's Toronto Globe contains a very brief interview with Major Beattie, which may be interesting to our readers, as showing the way Mr. Beattie talks when abroad. The Globe's in-terview says: "Major Beattie, M. P., of London, was in the city yesterday. In conversation he stated that Mr. C. S. Hyman will be his opponent, and that he anticipated a stiff fight, but expected to win out in the end. London, he admitted, is a very close constituency, and at present it might be said to be anybody's fight. The major spoke more hopefully of the results in South Perth, North Middlesex, East Lambton and Kent, all of which the Conservatives expect to win." -The schoolhouse of St. George's Church, West London, was crowded to the doors last evening, on the occasion of the harvest home entertainment. An excellent programme, consisting of solos, quartets, instrumental selections, readings and recitations was rendered by the following ladies and gentlemen: Misses Hance, Chapman, Wilson and Gahan, and Messrs. Ellis, F. Ellis, Macklin, Farney, Large and other members of quartet. Refreshments were served by the ladies of the con-gregation. The room was most tastefully decorated with the spoils of the field and garden. The children were entertained the previous evening, the chief part of the programme being South African wars views.

WILL CONCLUDE TONIGHT. The closing session of the Y. W. C. A. conference will be held in St. Andrew's Church this evening, when Rev. A. L. Geggie, Parkdale Presbyterian Church, Toronto, who is an eloquent and powerful speaker, will address the meeting. Mrs. T. M. Harris, Toronto, the newly-elected Dominion president, will speak on "Canada's Day of Opportunity." Rev. Robert Johnston, whose fine pulpit oratory is known throughout our land, will give the closing address of the conference. THE RED CROSS SOCIETY.

Dr. Hodgetts, in writing under date of Oct. 3, for complete statements of the help sent through the London Red Cross Society, says: "The council would further state that although a large portion of the first contingent will soon have returned to Canada, there are many Canadian soldiers who will be in South Africa for some months, and these will continue to receive the attention of the society's agents, who are acting under the directions of Major Biggar, D. A. A., Cape Town." Dr Hodgetts thanks all "the Red Cross branches for their valuable assistance which has rendered the society, through its commissioner, Lieut.-Col. Ryerson, to be of inestimable service to our soldiers of all ranks in South Africa, and he also asks for their continued

POLICE COURT STATISTICS.

Police Court Clerk Moule has completed and forwarded to Ottawa the local criminal statistics required by the Dominion Government. The report is for the year ending Sept. 30, 1900. The total number of cases adjudicated upon is 1,783, being 1,490 adults and 293 juveniles. This number of cases is 292 in excess of those for the previous year. The summary convictions were 612, and the summary trials for indictable offenses were 160. The offenses comprised within the summary convictions were breaches of bylaw, breaches of diquer license act, common assault, drunkenness, vagrancy, keeping disorderly houses, etc. The indictable offenses tried included stealing, house and shop breaking and burglary, stonethrowing at street care, assault and wound, resisting peace officers, fraud, perjury, neglect to supply necessaries

Details of the Oil Springs Tragedy-Inquest Begun.

AT THE SCENE OF THE TRAGEDY. [Special to Advertiser per G. N. W.] Oil Springs, Oct. 11 .- A Chronicle reporter visited the scene of the tragedy Stokes, of London South, was found last night and succeeded in extracting not guilty of the charge faid against the following story from Jas. Clarke, him by his father, John Stokes, of re- the man suspected of kicking his brother to death: James and John Clarke took a of grain to Petrolia Thursday, and, returning home late in the afternoon, stopped at Farr's Hotel to procure a flask of whisky, from which they each took occasional drinks.

At Oil City they met some friends, and had a few rounds at Willis' Hotel. and arrived home about 8 o'clock. After supper they began quarreling, then James called Joseph a liar, and the two men clinched.

Then James left the house for over an hour, and when he came back Joseph had gone to bed, and was moaning, but James says he thought this was from the effects of the liquor. Jas. Clarke came to Oil Springs last night for the purpose of giving himself up to the police. He went to Magistrate Marshall, but as there was no authority for taking him into custody, he was not detained, and returned home.

The Clarke brothers have been living on the fourth line for about four Joseph, the deceased, was 47 years. years old and leaves a wife and four small children. James is a bachelor, aged 59 years.

Brockville, Oct. 8 .- When an eminent physician notifies a sick man that his case is hopeless and that he must die, he is, it may be taken for granted, in a pretty bad way.

That was the position of Mr. Ed N. Stowell, of this city, not long ago. He had suffered all the agonies of Bright's Disease for several years. The ablest physicians had pronounced his case hopeless, and he had begun to "set his house in order," when a friend urged him to try Dodd's Kidney Pills. AMONG THE MINERS

All Quiet at Oneida -- All But One of the Hazelton Concerns Offer Advance in Wages.

Hazleton, Pa., Oct. 11.—Everything is quiet this morning at Oneida, where the strikers and special officers clashed yesterday. The colliery is being closely guarded, but no further out-break is feared. It was reported this morning that the Oneida store, where the special officers were bairicaded during the night, had been burned, but there is no truth in the report. Geo. Kellner, the special officer, and Joseph Lipko, the striker, who were wounded in yesterday's affray, will recover.

J. S. Wentz & Co., operating the collieries at Hazlebrook and Silver Brook, today posted notices offering a ten per cent increase in wages. All the companies and individual operators in the Hazleton district, with the exception of G. B. Markle & Co., have now posted notices of an increase of wages to their employes.

WHAT STRIKERS WANT Shamokin, Pa., Oct. 11. - The delegates who left here for Scranton to participate in the miners' convention, have been instructed to vote for a reduction in the price of powder per keg, semi-monthly pay, and to accept the 10 per cent increase providing the op-erators guarantee to keep wages up to that standard for at least one year,

CONTEMPORARIES

The Catholic Record Replies to the London Free Press.

[From the London Catholic Record, of Oct. 10.]

The Free Press of the 3rd inst., in an article under the above heading, seeks to make political capital for the Tories based on the denunciation of Political Professions versus Political Practices, which appeared in the Record of the 22nd of September. Although the actions of the present government were referred to, and alt found with their treatment of the Catholics of Ontario, the denunciation was not leveled exclusively at them, but was intended to apply to illiberalism, no matter from what quarter it emanates. Bigotry and intoler-ance are not confined to one party, and under no government were they so rampant as under the administra-tion of a man who was a Catholic, an able parliamentarian and an upright and honest administrator of the country's affairs. We mean Sir John Thompson. He, however, was no judge of character, and soon came under the influence of the crafty politicians, who used him for purposes of their own, without reference to the good of the country or the party, and as a consequence some of the most indefensible appointments ever made were made during the time the Thompson government was in power. As a result the government was, even before Sir John's death, brought to the verge of destruc-

In the pamphlet from which we quoted in a former issue, entitled "Causes of the Conservative Defeat," published in Montreal in August, 1897 the author refers to the mistake made by Sir John Thompson in permitting himself to be so imposed upon by the irresponsible self-seekers that the name of Sir John Carling, one of the representative men in the Conative ranks, was dropped from the list when the Thompson cabinet was formed. Here is what it said:

"Another mistake was the deposing of Sir John Carling from the Thompson Cabinet. He possessed fair adminastrative ability, he was respectable and respected, and enjoyed the confidence of his party and the people generally, besides possessing a social status in the community, the effect of which cannot be overestimated in selecting ministers of the crown or any one else destined for high official posi-Not one of those who came into the Thompson Government from Ontario efter him were his superiors in ability, and nearly all were wanting in the social standing and qualities which often prove compensatory for the lack of the highest administrative attainments." We referred in our issue of the 6th to the fact that, although the Catholics of Ontario had fought shoulder to shoulder with the Protestant supporters of Sir John A. Macdonald, to keep him in power, there was no when the Catholics, having determined on uniting for their common protection, that artful politician concluded that promises would pass current no an appointment upon Cathodics.
