From time to time the press has told of brave men winning the coveted Victoria Cross for saving life. If medals were awarded for cases of life-saving, our foods would surely receive them, for they have proved invaluable in correcting stomach and bowel troubles, and have thereby prevented a great deal of suffering, disease and death. GRANOLE and GRANOLA supply in proper proportions the food elements needed for the sustenance and building-up of the body. Their use should be supplemented by drinking Caramel Cereal, which is palatable, healthful, and free from the deleterious properties of tea and coffee. Do not accept any substitutes.

TRIBUTE WAS WELL-EARNED

Truthful Pen Picture of the Late Alan D. Scatterd.

An Admirer of American Institutions, Yet a Loyal Subject of Canada.

The following notice of the late Alan Scatterd will be gratefully read by very many of our readers, not only because of their respect for him, but because it points out that he was "a true Canadian in heart, in principles, and in practice." It is just what would be expected from one whose father, grandfather, and uncle, were members of the Canadian House of Commons, and whose name, "Scatterd," has been much respected in Western Ontario for over eighty years. His grandfather, in April, 1821, left England, and settled at Wynton, in Missouri. He afterwards, in 1854, became the member for West Middlesex, and continued such till his death in 1858. His uncle, the late Thomas Scatterd, was member from 1861 until his death in April, 1878, and his father, the late R. C. Scatterd, from that time until his death. The notice is taken from the Daily News of Batavia, N. Y., where Mr. Scatterd had made his home for ten years.

[From the Daily News, Batavia, N. Y.]
The remains of Alan D. Scatterd, who died on Saturday at the home of his cousin, John D. Scatterd, in Buffalo, were taken yesterday afternoon to London, Ont., where the funeral was held at 2 p.m. today at the residence of Mr. Scatterd's father-in-law, John Labatt. The interment was there. Arthur E. Clark, of Batavia, attended the funeral. But in respect to Mr. Scatterd the wood working company's factory and its New York office are closed today.

The following is a deserved tribute from a friend, sent to the News today: "In your announcement of the death of Alan D. Scatterd reference was made to the constant interest manifested by him in the welfare of this town, where he lived about ten years, and the fact that he was a citizen of the United States. The man was always so approachable to his friends that many were led to ask why, in view of his genuine interest, not only in local affairs, but in the great political party whose cause he so warmly espoused, he did not take steps toward becoming a citizen. His answer was always so convincing and so full of the true spirit of loyalty to his native Canada, and of patriotism toward the land of his temporary abode, that it never failed to satisfy. No one can do justice to his charming manner of saying it, but he used to answer the question by asking his friends whether, if married to an American wife, they should happen to go to Toronto for a few years, more or less, but with every permanent family and business tie in the States, they would care to renounce allegiance to the country of their birth. The question as he asked it was quite unanswerable.

"Those of us who knew Alan Scatterd well are quite agreed that he was one of the brightest men Batavia has known, and he was equally agreeable and warm-hearted. His death is indeed a great loss to this community, and the sincere sympathy is felt for his afflicted family. While seemingly a quiet man, he had a fine gift of leading conversation into pleasant and instructive topics. His tastes were studious, and in many directions scholarly, and he had seen much. One meets but few men in a lifetime who are so thoroughly conversant with the history of their own land, lover of American institutions.

A novel way of opening a package of food is shown in the Grape-Nuts package, where a line indicates that a slit should be made with a knife, and the package squeezed, which makes it gap enough to pour out what is needed for a meal, then the package automatically closes, thus preserving the contents from the moisture of the air.

As a rule Grape-Nut packages are not kept on hand very long in any family, but it is well to know how to keep the contents of the package in prime condition. Grape-Nuts Food is ready cooked, very crisp, and can be served immediately with a little good cream or milk. This feature is of great advantage to those who appreciate ease and convenience in preparing breakfast.

CITIZENS' DAY WESTERN FAIR

Monday, Sept. 9, To Be One of the Big Days of Fair Week.

Admission Fee Will Be Charged Only at the Gates—Grand Stand Will Be Free.

The directors of the Western Fair are doing all they can to make Monday, "Citizens' Day," one of the greatest days of the week. If it is to be a success the people will have to help them. In the past it has been usual for them to wait until Wednesday before going to the fair, in the belief that it was then in its best running order. But this year Monday will be made the big day, and the citizens are looked to to support the directors' efforts.

Yesterday afternoon a meeting of the executive committee was held, and the committee was appointed to interview the manufacturers of the city to try and arrange with them to induce their operatives to accept Monday afternoon, Sept. 9, as their holiday for attending the fair. As an inducement to have them fall into line and assist the directors in making the fair the success it should be, the association has decided to charge admission fee only at the gates throughout the day, giving the grand stand and the last day are free.
